S 2019. LEGISLATIVE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS. Filed 5/25/06. AMENDING THE CONSTITUTION TO LIMIT THE TERMS OF THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE OF THE SENATE TO TWO CONSECUTIVE GENERAL ASSEMBLIES AND TO LIMIT CONSIDERATION BY CONFERENCE COMMITTEES OF SPECIFIC MATTERS IN CONTROVERSY. Subject to approval of the voters at the general election in November 2006, amends the North Carolina Constitution, effective January 1, 2007, as title indicates. New section 22(9) of Article II would provide that only matters in a bill as are in difference between the two houses or included in the bill as passed by both houses will become law as the result of the adoption of a conference report by both houses.
