The President introduces The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain for the 2013 Session of the General Assembly, who offers prayer as follows:

“Let us pray. Almighty God, Heavenly Father, you are our light and our salvation. Lord, you have been our dwelling place from generation to generation. Nothing can be hidden from your sight. You have placed each of us here today in your sovereign will. You have placed these senators here in a position to serve the people that have elected them. May they serve them with humility. As we come before you today, Lord, on this holy ground, we come with fear, with anxiety, and even with gladness. As we travel together this course of history, may we be reminded of what the great hymn writers said, ‘Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take, the clouds ye so much dread are big with mercy and shall break in blessings on your head. Judge not the Lord by feeble sense, but trust Him for His grace. Behind a frowning providence, He hides a smiling face. Lord, your purposes will ripen fast, unfolding every hour. The bud may have a bitter taste, but sweet will be the flower. Blind unbelief is sure to err and scan his work in vain, but God is His own interpreter, and He will make it plain.’* We ask all these things in the name of Christ Jesus—through Him and in Him, in His blessed name. Amen.”

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in the City of Raleigh, this seventh day of January in the year of our Lord two thousand and thirteen, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and thirty-seventh.

January 9, 2013
OATH OF OFFICE

The President of the Senate recognizes The Honorable Paul M. Newby who administers the following Oath of Office, to which those present respond and subscribe:

“I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will support the Constitution and laws of the United States, and I do solemnly and sincerely swear or affirm that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of North Carolina and to the constitutional powers and authorities which are or may be established for the government thereof, and that I will endeavor to support, maintain, and defend the Constitution and laws of said State, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, to the best of my knowledge and ability; and I do solemnly and sincerely swear or affirm that I will faithfully discharge the duties of my office as a member of the Senate of the 2013 General Assembly of the State of North Carolina to the best of my knowledge and ability, so help me, God.”

ORGANIZATION OF THE SENATE

The President announces that the Senate stands ready to proceed with the election of officers and declares the floor open for nominations for President Pro Tempore of the Senate, pursuant to Article II, Section 14(1) of the North Carolina Constitution.

The President recognizes Senator Apodaca who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Members, guests, it’s another great day in the North Carolina Senate. It’s a day we look forward to every two years. Many of us have been here more years than we’d like to think, they add up. Senator Allran was here in 1870 and then 1898—or the second Lincoln administration maybe—we can’t get it straight. That being said, we made history two years ago, we made history this year, and it is my pleasure today to nominate the man who led us over the last two years. I think any of us that served with him over the last two years, and those of us that have served with him prior to the last two years, will tell you that he follows in the great tradition that we’ve seen in this Senate of President Pro Tempore, with compassion and caring for the great State of North Carolina. And I think with the actions we’ve seen the last two years that we can expect even more the next two years. So it is my honor and pleasure today to nominate Phil Berger to the next term as President Pro Tempore of the North Carolina Senate. Thank you, Mr. President.”

The President recognizes Senator Brown who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

January 9, 2013
“Senator Apodaca, I couldn’t have said it any better. I think Senator Berger has done a great job leading us the last two years, and it sure is a great pleasure for me to get to do this a second time as well. I rise to second the nomination of Senator Phil Berger to be President Pro Tempore of the 2013 North Carolina Senate. I further move that the nominations be closed and that Senator Berger’s nomination be accepted by acclamation.”

The President recognizes Senator Nesbitt who offers the following remarks:

“I rise on behalf of the Democrats who have served with Senator Berger and to thank him for the courtesy that he has extended to us over the two years that he’s been the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and to echo the remarks of the two who have spoken and to urge the Democrats to support the motion.”

The motion offered by Senator Brown that the nominations be closed and that Senator Philip E. Berger be elected President Pro Tempore by acclamation prevails.

The President declares Senator Philip E. Berger duly elected President Pro Tempore and appoints Senator Rucho, Senator Brunstetter, Senator Harrington, Senator Nesbitt, and Senator Stein to escort the President Pro Tempore-elect to the well of the Senate. Senator Rucho presents Senator Philip E. Berger to the President. The President directs the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort Senator Berger’s son, Kevin, his granddaughter, Emily, and his grandson, Jackson, to the well of the Senate, where they join Senator Berger as he receives the prescribed Oath of Office. The Honorable Paul M. Newby administers the prescribed Oath of Office.

The President recognizes Senator Philip E. Berger, President Pro Tempore, who addresses the Senate from the well of the Senate and offers the following remarks:

“Thank you for that warm welcome and the trust that you, my colleagues, have placed in me. It is a true honor and a responsibility that I do not take lightly. Governor McCrory, we appreciate you being here with us today. Lt. Governor Dan Forest, we appreciate your presiding and your presiding over the upcoming session. Justice Paul Newby and members of the Judiciary, we appreciate your participation and your help in this ceremony. The members of the Junior Army ROTC Color Guard from John Motley Morehead High School, from Eden, North Carolina, my hometown, I appreciate their participation in the service. My wife, Pat, my son, Kevin, my grandchildren, Jackson and Emily, and my daughter-in-law, Amber, I thank you for being here and for your support over the years. All of us understand the importance of our families and the support we have from our families in order to enable us to be able to serve in public office. So I thank you, and I know all of our colleagues thank their family members as well.

January 9, 2013
Today we renew the fight for reform that started two years ago when the voters sent a new General Assembly to Raleigh to change the way our government operates. For too many years, North Carolina tried to tax and spend its way to prosperity. For too many years, North Carolina lost jobs, lost businesses, failed to educate many of our children and struggled to compete. Our leaders had lost their way, and our state lost its place as the leader of the South and the envy of the nation. We vowed two years ago in this chamber to begin fixing those problems, and we’ve made great progress in just a short period of time. Today that work continues.

Senators, as we make tough decisions, I want us to be thinking about the families out there struggling to make ends meet, sitting around their kitchen tables, balancing their check books, saving for retirement or for a college education for their children. Think of them as we craft bills and cast votes. Ask yourself, ‘How can we help them create a better life? How can we work together to help small businesses become more successful? How can we work together to help working families take home more in their paychecks?’ Ask yourself, ‘How can we help their children get a better education regardless of the political consequences?’ Ask yourself how we, as a body, can come together to help our towns and communities compete in order to create jobs and grow our economy.

The voters have placed in our hands enormous trust and responsibility. We have the opportunity to set sweeping policy, to change the direction of North Carolina and to make a real and lasting difference. To my Republican colleagues: we must show our constituents, this state, and this country that there is a real difference between a Washington Republican and a North Carolina Republican. North Carolina Republicans deliver. We kept our word, and we act on the promises we’ve made. We made that clear last session. We cut taxes, unleashing private enterprise to grow our economy and create new jobs. We cut government red tape and bureaucracy. We began the long process of retooling our public education system to make it more focused on delivering positive results for our children.

Those were great achievements, but they were only the beginning. These next two years, Republicans and Democrats must set the bar even higher. With Governor McCrory, his administration, and leaders in every branch of government, we will reform our old and outdated tax code. Today, our tax system slows economic growth, kills jobs, and hurts businesses. It’s one of the single greatest roadblocks to our recovery, and we will not stop until it’s improved. We will continue making government more efficient and more responsive. Taxes on working families are still way too high. Regulations on our job creators are still way too cumbersome, and we have an obligation to change that.

We will never back down from the effort to reform our public schools. No child in North Carolina should be forced to attend a failing school, and while we are committed to rewarding and recognizing our best teachers, no teacher should be guaranteed a job if they fail in their responsibility to educate our children. Every month, every week, every day that we accept mediocrity, another child slips through the cracks. We will move on this critical issue, and we will move quickly.

January 9, 2013
Most of you know me. I grew up in a working class home; my dad worked with his hands. Throughout my life, I’ve had to work hard, as many of you have. I worked multiple jobs while raising a family to work through college and through law school. My wife, Pat, and I both understand what it takes to make ends meet. We’ve seen firsthand how hard work and determination makes anything possible.

Education reform. Tax reform. Regulatory reform. They are lofty goals, but if we work hard, we can change our state. We can make it more competitive, more successful, and help the families of North Carolina. I know many North Carolinians have lost hope. They feel stuck. They wonder if they’ll ever get ahead. Each and every day that we walk into this chamber, remember: we have an obligation to those in our state who are working hard and doing their best to provide for their families.

Now is the time that we, as leaders, roll up our sleeves and get to work. We will not waste this great opportunity. Will there be tough battles? You bet. Will we have to make decisions that take us outside of our comfort zone? Yes, but it is the right thing for us to do, and no matter how difficult or daunting the task, we must keep our eyes on what’s best for the people of this great state. I want to thank you for the trust that you have reposed in me. I want to thank you for the opportunity to serve you and for the opportunity to serve the people of the State of North Carolina. May God bless this body and the people of our great state. Thank you.”

RULE 15. Questions of personal privilege; explanation of vote.
– (a) Upon recognition by the Presiding Officer for that purpose, any Senator may speak to a question of personal privilege for a time not exceeding three minutes, and may use some or all of that time to explain to the Senate a “Senatorial Statement of Personal Privilege”. Upon motion supported by a majority present and voting, that statement may be spread upon the Journal. Neither personal privilege nor a Senatorial Statement of Personal Privilege may be used to explain a vote, debate a bill, or in any way disrupt the regular business of the Senate, nor shall such opportunities be used to solicit support or sponsors for any bill. The format of Senatorial Statement of Personal Privilege shall be prescribed by the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operation of the Senate, but in any case shall speak only in the voice of the Senator submitting it. The Presiding Officer shall determine if the question raised is one of privilege and shall, without the point of order being raised, enforce this rule, subject to an appeal to the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operation of the Senate whose decision may be appealed to the Senate by any Senator, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once unless by leave of the Senate. A two-thirds vote of the membership of the Senate present and voting is necessary to sustain any appeal from the ruling of the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operation of the Senate.

(b) Any Senator may explain that Senator’s vote on any bill that day by obtaining permission of the Presiding Officer after the final vote is taken. No more than three minutes shall be consumed in such explanation.

(c) Questions of personal privilege and explanations of vote shall be the last orders of the Senate’s business that day.

RULE 16. (Reserved for future use).

RULE 17. General decorum. – (a) Male Senators and male visitors shall not wear any head covering in the Senate Chamber while the Senate is in session, unless one’s religion requires his head to be covered. All persons on the Senate floor while the Senate is in session shall be dressed in business attire, including coat and tie for men.

(b) No derogatory remark reflecting personally upon any Senator shall be in order upon the floor of the Senate unless preceded by a motion or resolution of censure.

(c) When the Presiding Officer is putting a question, or a division by counting is in progress, no Senator shall walk out of or across the Chamber, nor when a Senator is speaking, pass between that Senator and the Presiding Officer.

(d) When a motion to adjourn or for recess is affirmatively determined, no member or officer shall leave that member or officer’s place until adjournment or recess is declared by the Presiding Officer.

(e) Smoking shall not be allowed in the Senate Chamber.

(f) No remark soliciting the donation of funds for the support of any person or organization shall be in order upon the floor of the Senate, unless the remark has some relevance to a bill or resolution before the body. No article of any kind soliciting business or donations may be placed by any person anywhere in the Senate Chamber or in any Senate office.

(g) The President Pro Tempore may authorize and provide for the broadcasting of Senate sessions via television or Internet.

(h) Reading of newspapers, magazines, periodicals, or books shall not be permitted while the Senate is in session. This rule does not prohibit the use of electronic devices, the use of quotations during debate or for personal privilege.

(i) The operation of:
   a. Vocal wireless communication devices, or
   b. Any other electronic devices whose sound cannot be muted, are prohibited on the floor or in the gallery while the Senate is in session.

(j) No member of the Senate shall place any item on another Senator’s chamber desk or in another Senator’s office unless the item conspicuously displays the name of the Senator placing the item.

(k) No person other than the member, the member’s legislative assistant, or the Principal Clerk’s office or staff under the direction of the Principal Clerk, shall place any matter on the member’s chamber desk, then only materials relevant to the business of the Senate, or as allowed under subsection (j) of this section.

(l) Neither food nor beverage shall be permitted in the galleries.

III. MOTIONS

RULE 18. Motions generally. – Any motion shall be reduced to writing, if requested by the Presiding Officer or a Senator, and read by the Presiding Officer or Reading Clerk before the same is debated. Any motion may be withdrawn by the introducer at any time before decision or amendment. No motion relating to a bill shall be in order which does not identify the bill by its number and short title. Except as otherwise specifically provided in these rules, no second is required.

RULE 19. Motion; order of precedence. – When a question is before the Senate, no motion shall be received except those herein specified, which motions shall have precedence as follows:

(1) To adjourn.
(2) To resolve into the Committee of the Whole Senate.
(3) To lay on the table.
(4) For the previous question.
(5) To postpone indefinitely.
(6) To postpone to a certain day.
(7) To re-refer to a standing committee.
(8) To refer to a select committee.
(9) To amend.

RULE 20. Motions requiring a second. – The motions to adjourn, to resolve into the Committee of the Whole Senate, to lay on the table, and to call for the previous question shall be seconded and decided without debate.

RULE 21. Motions to postpone to certain day and to commit. –

January 9, 2013
The respective motions to postpone to a certain day, to resolve into the Committee of the Whole Senate, or to commit to a standing or select committee shall preclude debate on the main question.

RULE 22. Motion to substitute. – Subject to Rule 19, a member may offer a motion to substitute to any motion, except the motions for the previous question, to table, to resolve into the Committee of the Whole Senate, or to adjourn. No motion to substitute shall be offered to a motion to substitute.

RULE 23. Motion for previous question. – (a) The previous question may be moved upon a pending single motion, any pending amendment or amendments, and/or the pending bill to its passage on that reading or all readings or the pending resolution to its adoption. An authorized Senator moving the previous question shall specify to what the motion applies. Unless specified, the motion shall be deemed to apply to the current question.

(b) The previous question shall be as follows: “Shall the main question be now put?” and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments and debate. If this question is decided in the affirmative, the “main question” shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution, or other matter under consideration; but when amendments are pending, the question shall be taken upon such amendments in their inverse order, without further debate or amendment.

(c) Only one of the following Senators may move the previous question:

1. The chair of the committee submitting the report on the bill or other matter under consideration;
2. The member introducing the bill or other matter under consideration;
3. The member in charge of the measure, who shall be designated by the chair of the committee reporting the same to the Senate at the time the bill or other matter under consideration is reported to the Senate or taken up for consideration;
4. The Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate; or
5. The President Pro Tempore.

RULE 24. Motion to reconsider. – (a) When a question has been once put and decided, any Senator who voted in the majority may move to reconsider the vote thereof. No motion for reconsideration shall be in order unless made on the same day or in the next following legislative day on which the vote took place. When the next legislative day has by motion of the Senate been restricted as to matters which may be considered, a motion to reconsider shall be in order on the next succeeding day upon which regular business is conducted. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this rule, a motion to reconsider is in order at any time if made by the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate or the President Pro Tempore for the sole purpose of correcting grammatical errors in bills in the possession of the Senate.

January 9, 2013
(c) If a bill has gone out of the possession of the Senate and a motion to reconsider under these rules is passed, the bill shall not be enrolled unless it again passes third reading. The Principal Clerk shall notify the House of Representatives and the Enrolling Clerk of any action under this subsection.

IV. VOTING

RULE 25. Use of electronic voting system. – (a) Votes on the following questions shall be taken on the electronic voting system, and the ayes and noes shall be recorded on the Journal:

(1) All questions on which the Constitution of North Carolina requires that the ayes and noes be taken and recorded on the Journal;

(2) All questions on which a call for the ayes and noes under Rule 26(b) has been sustained;

(3) Second and third readings of bills proposing amendment of the Constitution of North Carolina; and

(4) The vote on approval of a bill that was vetoed by the Governor.

(b) Votes on the following questions shall be taken on the electronic voting system, and the resulting totals shall be recorded on the Journal:

(1) Second reading of all public bills, all amendments to public bills offered after second reading, third reading if a public bill was amended after second reading, and all conference reports on public bills.

(2) Any other question upon direction of the Presiding Officer or upon motion of any Senator supported by one-fifth of the Senators present.

(c) When the electronic voting system is used, the Presiding Officer shall fix and announce the time, not to exceed one minute, which shall be allowed for voting on the question before the Senate. The system shall be set to lock automatically and to record the vote when that time has expired. Once the system has locked and recorded a vote, the vote shall be printed by the system.

(d) The voting station at each Senator’s desk in the Chamber shall be used only by the Senator to whom the station is assigned. Under no circumstances shall any other person vote at a Senator’s station. It is a breach of the ethical obligation of a Senator either to request that another vote at the requesting Senator’s station or to vote at another Senator’s station. The Presiding Officer shall enforce this rule without exception.

(e) When the electronic voting system is used, the Presiding Officer shall state the question and shall then state substantially the following: “All in favor vote ‘aye’; all opposed vote ‘no’; _______ seconds will be allowed for voting on this question; the Clerk will record the vote.” After the machine locks and records the vote, the Presiding Officer shall announce the vote and declare the result, and no member may vote thereafter.

(f) One copy of the machine printout of the vote record shall be filed in the Office of the Principal Clerk, and one copy shall be filed in the Legislative Library where it shall be open to public inspection.

(g) When the Presiding Officer ascertains that the electronic voting system is inoperative before a vote is taken or while a vote is being taken on the electronic system, the Presiding Officer shall announce that fact to the Senate, and any partial electronic system voting record shall be voided. In such a case, if the Constitution of North Carolina or the Rules of the Senate require a call of the ayes and noes, the Clerk shall call the roll of the Senate, and the ayes and noes shall be taken manually and shall be recorded on the Journal. All other votes shall be taken as prescribed in Senate Rule 26. If, after a vote is taken on the electronic system, it is discovered that a malfunction caused an error in the electronic system printout, the Presiding Officer shall direct the Reading Clerk and the Principal Clerk to verify and correct the printout record and so advise the Senate.

(h) For the purpose of identifying motions on which the vote is taken on the electronic system (the identification codes having no relation to the order of precedence of motions), the motions are coded as follows:

1. To lay on the table.
2. To resolve into the Committee of the Whole Senate.
3. For the previous question.
4. To postpone indefinitely.
5. To postpone to a day certain.
6. To refer to a committee.
7. To reconsider.
8. To adopt.
9. To concur.
10. To take from the table.
11. Miscellaneous.

RULE 26. Voice votes; call for division; call for ayes and noes.

(a) When the electronic voting system is not used, all votes on which a call of the roll of the Senate is not required shall be taken by voice vote. The question shall be put as follows: "Those in favor say ‘aye’," and, after the affirmative vote is expressed, "Opposed ‘no’"; after which the Presiding Officer shall announce the result. If a division on any vote is desired, it must be called for immediately before the result of the voting is announced on any question, and, upon such call, the Presiding Officer shall require the members to stand and be counted for and against the proposition under consideration.

(b) The ayes and the noes may be called for on any question before the vote is taken. If a Senator desires the ayes and noes recorded on the Journal on a question, that Senator shall address the Presiding Officer and obtain recognition and say, "Upon that question I call for the ayes and noes.” Whereupon the Presiding Officer shall say, “Is the call sustained?” If one-fifth of the remaining Senators present then stand, the vote shall be taken on the electronic voting system if it is operative, and the ayes and noes shall be recorded on the Journal. If the electronic voting system is inoperative, the roll of the Senate shall be called and the ayes and noes taken manually and recorded on the Journal. If fewer than one-fifth of the Senators present stand to sustain the call, the Presiding Officer shall announce, “An insufficient number up,” and a vote by electronic voting or by voice, whichever is appropriate under the Rules of the Senate, shall be taken.

RULE 27. (Reserved for future use).

RULE 28. Dividing question. – (a) If a bill is subject to division into separate parts so that each part states a separate and distinct proposition capable of standing alone, a Senator may move that the question be divided. The motion shall:

1. Be in writing,
2. Be submitted to the Principal Clerk at the time the motion is made, and
3. Clearly state how the question is to be divided.

Upon a majority vote of the Senators present and voting, the motion shall be adopted.

(b) If the motion to divide the question is adopted, then there shall be no further amendment or debate on any of the distinct propositions.

(c) If the question is divided and any part thereof fails, then the bill or resolution and any pending amendments shall be removed from the calendar and re-referred to the committee from which the bill or resolution was reported.

(d) Only one motion to divide the question shall be in order during consideration of a bill or resolution.

RULE 29. Duty to vote; excuses. – (a) Every Senator who is within the Senate Chamber when the question is stated by the Presiding Officer shall vote thereon unless that Senator is excused by the Senate.

(b) A Senator who is a member of a committee shall, upon request, be excused from deliberations and voting on the bill while it is before the committee. The Senator must make the request to the chair of the committee when the bill is first taken up for consideration and before any motion or vote on the bill or any amendment to the bill. The Senator making the request for excuse in committee must renew that request for excuse on the floor of the Senate as set forth in this rule.

(c) Any Senator may move to be excused at any time from voting on any matter. The Senator may make a brief statement of the reasons for the motion which question shall be taken without debate on the motion.

(d) The Senator may send forward to the Principal Clerk, on a form provided by the Clerk, a concise statement of the reason for the motion, and the Clerk shall include this statement in the Journal.

(e) The Senator so excused shall not debate the bill or any amendment to the bill, vote on the bill, offer or vote on any amendment to the bill, or offer or vote on any motion concerning the bill at that reading, any subsequent reading, or any subsequent consideration of the bill.

(f) A Senator may move that the excuse of that Senator from deliberations on a particular bill be withdrawn, which question shall be determined without debate.

January 9, 2013
(g) A motion to be excused or for the withdrawal of an excuse shall be taken without debate.

(h) A motion by any Senator to change that Senator’s vote must be made on the same legislative day as the vote is taken. This subsection may not be suspended.

RULE 30. (Reserved for future use).

RULE 41.1. (Reserved for future use).

RULE 42. No bill, resolution, or amendment for which a fiscal note has been requested may be considered for passage prior to the fiscal note’s being attached to it.

(b) The fiscal note shall be filed and attached to the bill, resolution, or amendment within two legislative days of the request. If it is impossible to prepare a fiscal note within two legislative days, the Director of Fiscal Research shall, in writing, so advise the Presiding Officer, the Principal Clerk, and the member introducing or proposing the measure and shall indicate the time when the fiscal note will be ready.

(c) The fiscal note shall be prepared by the Fiscal Research Division on a form approved by the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate as to content and form and signed by the staff member or members preparing it. If no estimate in dollars is possible, the fiscal note shall indicate the reasons that no estimate is provided. The fiscal note shall not comment on the merit but may identify technical problems. The Fiscal Research Division shall make the fiscal note available to the membership of the Senate.

(d) A sponsor of a bill, resolution, or amendment may deliver a copy of that member’s bill, resolution, or amendment to the Fiscal Research Division for the preparation of a fiscal note. The sponsor shall attach the fiscal note to the bill when the sponsor files the bill or resolution or to the amendment when the sponsor moves its adoption.

(e) The sponsor of a bill, resolution, or amendment to which a fiscal note is attached who objects to the estimates and information provided may reduce to writing the objections. These objections shall be appended to the fiscal note attached to the bill, resolution, or amendment and to the copies of the fiscal note available to the membership.

(f) Subsection (a) of this rule shall not apply to the Current Operations Appropriations Bill or the Capital Improvement Appropriations Bill. This rule shall not apply to a bill, resolution, or amendment requiring an actuarial note under these rules.

RULE 42.2. Actuarial notes. – (a) Every bill or resolution proposing any change in the law relative to any:

January 9, 2013
(1) State, municipal, or other retirement system funded in whole or in part out of public funds; or
(2) Program of hospital, medical, disability, or related benefits provided for teachers and State employees, funded in whole or in part by State funds, shall have attached to it at the time of its consideration by any committee a brief explanatory statement or note which shall include a reliable estimate of the financial and actuarial effect of the proposed change, as provided in G.S. 120-114. The actuarial note shall be attached to the jacket of each proposed bill or resolution that is reported favorably by any committee and shall be clearly designated as an actuarial note. Upon its introduction, a bill or resolution described in subdivision (a)(1) of this rule shall be referred to the Committee on Pensions and Retirement and Aging.

(b) The sponsor of the bill or resolution shall present a copy of the measure, with the sponsor’s request for an actuarial note, to the Fiscal Research Division, which shall prepare the actuarial note as promptly as possible but not later than two weeks after the request is made. Actuarial notes shall be prepared in the order of receipt of request and shall be transmitted to the sponsor of the measure. The actuarial note of the Fiscal Research Division shall be prepared and signed by an actuary.

(c) The sponsor of the bill or resolution shall also present a copy of the measure to the chief administrative officer of the system affected by the measure. The chief administrative officer shall have an actuarial note prepared by the system’s actuary on the measure and shall transmit the note to the sponsor of the measure not later than two weeks after the request is received. The actuarial note may be attached to the jacket of the measure.

(d) The note shall be factual and shall, if possible, provide a reliable estimate of both the immediate effect and, if determinable, the long-range fiscal and actuarial effect of the measure. If, after careful investigation, it is determined that no dollar estimate is possible, the note shall contain a statement to that effect, setting forth the reasons why no dollar estimate can be given. No comment or opinion shall be included in the actuarial note with regard to the merits of the measure for which the note is prepared. Technical and mechanical defects in the measure may be noted.

in the opinion of that Chair, the effect to the cost to or the revenues of a system described in this rule are not apparent from the language of the measure. No bill, resolution, or amendment for which an actuarial note has been requested may be considered for passage prior to the actuarial note from both the Fiscal Research Division and the administrator of the affected system being attached to it.

(f) The Fiscal Research Division shall make all relevant actuarial notes available to the membership of the Senate.

RULE 42.3. Assessment reports. – (a) Licensing or Registration Boards. The assessment report shall not constitute any part of the expression of legislative intent proposed by the formation of a licensing board.

Upon receipt of the request, the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations shall prepare and return the assessment report as soon as possible but not later than 60 days from the date of receipt of the request, reserving the right to extend this time to 90 days. The fiscal note shall be prepared in consultation with the Sentencing Policy and Advisory Commission and shall identify and estimate, for the first five fiscal years the proposed change would be in effect, all costs of the proposed net increase in incarceration, including capital outlay costs if the legislation would require increased cell space. If, after careful investigation, the Fiscal Research Division determines that no dollar estimate is possible, the note shall contain a statement to that effect, setting forth the reasons why no dollar estimate can be given. No comment or opinion shall be included in the fiscal note with regard to the merits of the measure for which the note is prepared. However, technical and mechanical defects may be noted.

(b) The sponsor of each bill, amendment, or resolution to which this subsection applies shall present a copy of the bill, amendment, or resolution with the request for a fiscal note to the Fiscal Research Division. (c) This fiscal note shall be attached to the original of each proposed bill, amendment, or resolution that is reported favorably by any committee, but shall be separate from the bill, amendment, or resolution and shall be clearly designated as a fiscal note. A fiscal note attached to a bill, amendment, or resolution pursuant to this subsection is not a part of the bill, amendment, or resolution and is not an expression of legislative intent proposed by the bill, amendment, or resolution.

(d) If a committee reports favorably a proposed bill or resolution with an amendment that proposes a change in the law that could cause a net increase in the length of time for which persons are incarcerated or the number of persons incarcerated, whether by increasing penalties for violating existing laws, by criminalizing behavior, or by any other means, the chair of the committee shall obtain from the Fiscal Research Division and attach to the amended bill or resolution a fiscal note as provided in this section.

the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate or, in the Chair’s absence, the Vice-Chair of the Committee, or the President Pro Tempore may refer to a Senate committee all bills introduced in the Senate or received from the House of Representatives. Upon the referral being made, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate shall notify the Principal Clerk of the Senate of the referral, and the Reading Clerk shall announce the referral of the bill. The Principal Clerk shall inform the Presiding Officer of the referral. The title and referral shall be entered upon the Journal.

report referred to the Appropriations/Base Budget Committee.”

RULE 44. Bills to receive three readings. – Every bill shall receive three readings before being passed, and the Presiding Officer shall give notice at

No petition may be circulated for signatures until 10 legislative days after the bill has been referred to the committee. No petition may be circulated for signature until notice has been given on the floor of the Senate that the petition is to be circulated. If such a motion accompanied by a valid petition is filed, the Principal Clerk shall place that motion on the calendar for the next legislative day as a special order of business. If the motion is adopted by two-thirds of the members of the Senate, then the committee to which the bill or resolution has been referred is discharged from further consideration of the bill or resolution, and that bill or resolution is placed on the calendar for the next legislative day as a special order of business. If the committee had, prior to discharge, adopted any amendment or committee substitute for the bill, it shall be in order to offer that amendment or substitute on the floor as if it were a committee amendment or substitute. The Principal Clerk shall provide a form for discharge petitions.

(c) This rule shall not be temporarily suspended.

RULE 51. Special orders. – Any bill or other matter in consideration before the Senate may be made a special order for a subsequent day or hour by a vote of the majority of the Senators voting, and if action on the bill is not completed on that day, it shall be returned to its place on the calendar, unless it is made a special order for another day; and when a special order is under consideration it shall take precedence over any special order or subsequent order for the day, but such subsequent order may be taken up immediately after the previous special order has been disposed of.

RULE 52. Procedure when necessary number of Senators not present. – If, on taking the question on a bill, it appears that a constitutional quorum is not present, or if the bill requires a vote of a certain proportion of all the Senators to pass it, and it appears that such number is not present, the bill shall be again read and the question taken thereon; if the bill fails a second time for the want of the necessary number being present and voting, the bill shall not be finally lost but shall be returned to the calendar in its proper order.

RULE 53. Effect of defeated measure. – (a) After a bill has been tabled, or has failed to pass on any of its readings, the contents of such bill or the principal provisions of its subject matter shall not be embodied in any other measure. the committee having it in charge or by the Principal Clerk, so as to indicate the full purport of the bill as amended and the county or counties to which it applies.

RULE 56. Corrections of typographical errors in bills. – The Enrolling Clerk is authorized to make corrections of typographical errors in the text of bills at any time prior to ratification. Before the correction is made, the Enrolling Clerk shall have the approval of the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate or, in the Chair’s absence, the Vice-Chair of said Committee, the President Pro Tempore, or the Deputy President Pro Tempore.

2. Advise the Presiding Officer as to whether or not the amendment or committee substitute is a material amendment under Article II, Section 23, of the State’s Constitution.

(d) If the amendment or committee substitute for a bill is not a material amendment, the question before the Senate shall be concurrence. In the event there is more than one House amendment, the question shall be concurrence in all the House amendments, and the question may not be divided, notwithstanding Rule 28. The question which shall be put before the Senate by the Presiding Officer shall be: “Does the Senate concur in the House amendments (committee substitute) to S.B.______?”.

(e) If the amendment or committee substitute for a bill is a material amendment, the receiving of that bill on messages shall constitute first reading, and the question before the Senate shall be concurrence on second reading. If the motion is passed, the question then shall be concurrence on third reading on the next legislative day.

His district included constituents in Wayne County. He was elected to the Senate in 2010, representing the Fifth District. He now represents the Seventh District which includes Wayne, Pitt, and Lenoir Counties. Senator Pate is a retired merchant, mayor, and city council member of Mount Olive, North Carolina. He served twenty years in the Air-Force and retired as a Major in 1982. In Vietnam he navigated B-52’s and later F-111’s. He is a father of three and a grandfather of nine. He is joined by his wife and other family members today. He was a strong member of our freshmen caucus in 2010, and we are honored and privileged to serve with such a great gentleman. With that, I formally nominate Senator Louis Pate to serve as our Deputy President Pro Tempore.”

The President recognizes Senator Tillman who seconds the nomination and adds the following remarks:

“I rise to second the nomination of Senator Louis Pate to serve as the Deputy President Pro Tempore. I further move that nominations be closed and that Senator Pate’s nomination be accepted by acclamation.”

The motion offered by Senator Tillman that the nominations be closed and that Senator Pate be elected Deputy President Pro Tempore by acclamation prevails.

The President declares Senator Pate elected Deputy President Pro Tempore and appoints Senator Bingham, Senator Cook, Senator Rabon, and Senator
Tucker to escort the Deputy President Pro Tempore-elect to the well of the Senate. Senator Bingham presents Senator Pate to the President. I will do the very best I can for this office and to support you, and I most appreciate the support you have given me. Mr. Justice, I certainly appreciate you coming down and giving the Oath of Office today. This is a very humbling moment for me, and I appreciate it so much and will do the best I can for this Senate, individually and as a body, to support the laws of the Constitution of the United States and also our state, North Carolina. Thank you very much.”

I think she is friendly and helpful to any member, or any person, that needs help. She frets, she worries—she probably hasn’t slept in a week—and she has done a magnificent job. So it is with no hesitation at all that I stand today to nominate Sarah Clapp, our Principal Clerk for the 2013 Session of the North Carolina Senate.”

REMARKS BY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate, offers the following remarks:

“As we begin the 2013 Session, we celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of this legislative building, which was opened in 1963. This building is a modern architecture masterpiece designed by world renowned architect Edward Durrell Stone. It stands among the great works of architecture in America today. To understand the importance that our forefathers placed on the design of this building, the building’s architect also designed the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., Radio City Music Hall, and the Museum of Modern Art in New York City, as well as the Standard Oil Building in Chicago, which still stands as one of the tallest buildings in the world today.

While it may take some time to find your way around, and some of you may have a great view of a concrete block wall in your small office, as an architect, I have a great appreciation for the design of this building, and especially because of the context that it was designed within, and I hope you will learn to discover that same appreciation over time. To understand good design, you must place yourself in the context of time, place, and culture during its creation. Let’s take a look back at 1963.

1963 witnessed the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, yet America was still hanging on the words of the President, ‘Ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country.’ We find ourselves as leaders of our great state asking similar questions, ‘What can we do for our state to get the economy back on track and our people back to work, to transform education, and to ensure energy independence? What is our role as leaders of our state, and what kind of future will we design for our children and grandchildren?’

In 1963, George Wallace became the governor of Alabama proclaiming, ‘Segregation now, segregation tomorrow, and segregation forever.’ In that same year, Martin Luther King, Jr. gave his ‘I have a dream’ speech from the steps of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C. That famous speech helped lay the groundwork for a civil rights movement that would free America from its sordid past of a segregationist ideology. What are your dreams, and how will you, like Dr. King, devote your lives to transforming the future of North Carolina? In 1963, American scientists were racing the clock against world competition to fulfill the dream of placing a man on the moon. Technology was not on their side. Computers the size of a bedroom had the computing power of only a small calculator, yet they designed a plan to achieve the seemingly impossible.

What obstacles stand in your way to achieving the impossible, and how are you going to create a plan to overcome? Today, do we dream the impossible dream: the dream of every working age North Carolinian who wants a job being gainfully employed, the dream of being the best place to live, work, and play in the country, the dream of being number one in education in the world, the dream of building a low cost energy economy and being energy independent right here in our state? These are not impossible dreams if we design and build the right foundation.

In 1963, unemployment was 5.5%, yet President Kennedy unveiled sweeping tax reforms to improve the economy. Today, unemployment in North Carolina is 9.1%, among the highest in the nation. In 1963, gas cost twenty-nine cents per gallon; today, we pay more than that in taxes for gas in North Carolina. Many of our families are struggling just to make ends meet. We have the responsibility to get the burden of taxation and regulations off the backs of our families and small businesses and put people back to work. It is time for sweeping reforms that will simplify the tax code and jump start the economy. We have the opportunity, and we will have the courage to take advantage of it.

In 1963, the first purpose-built ocean drillers were launched in the Gulf of Mexico for deep water off-shore oil drilling. Thanks to the efforts of many of you, fifty years later we have an Energy Jobs Act in North Carolina that will allow us to explore our energy options both on shore and off and design an energy plan suitable for the 21st Century. It is time to get busy exploring and producing natural gas and oil to make North Carolina the first energy independent state in the U.S. We have the resources, and we will have the courage to use them.

In 1963, the concept of Cloud Computing was invented at MIT. It was called Timesharing. For the first time in modern history, we have the opportunity to take advantage of Cloud Computing to transform the world of education through virtual learning. We have the opportunity for the first time in history to customize education curriculum to each student in North Carolina through the online classroom. It is time to break down the barriers of education through school choice and open the world of learning to all students: black, white, Hispanic, rich, poor, and middle-class. We have the tools, and we will have the courage to make it happen.

A significant work of architecture, like this building, is only realized and remembered because of design leadership. Architects are visionaries, planners, creative problem solvers, and consensus builders, and these are the qualities that will be demanded of you as leaders of our great state. An architect knows that a great building starts with a solid foundation, and a solid foundation starts with a well thought-out plan, and that plan starts with a vision.

The designer of this building envisioned a future where the leaders of our state could come together despite their differences, to work for the common good. They designed a building open to the people, solely devoted to the legislative branch of government, so Senators and Representatives could work alongside each other, in close proximity, to solve the challenges of our great state.

We have many challenges that face us in North Carolina in 2013, but as designers of North Carolina’s future, we will tackle these challenges with boldness and courage. We will build a strong foundation for our future and design a North Carolina that our children and grandchildren will be proud of fifty years from now, in 2063. A great trust has been placed in you by the people or our state, and I know each of you are up to the task of ensuring that trust is never breached. I look forward to working with you and getting to know you over the next two years, and you have my word that I will preside over this body with fairness and transparency. May God bless each of you with wisdom, knowledge, and courage as you lead our great state.”

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Almighty God, you are our light and our salvation. Lord, you have been our dwelling place from generation to generation, grandmother to grandfather, great grandfather to great grandmother. As we gather here today under the shelter of this building, in the hallways of centuries of law-making, we realize, Almighty Lord, that we are actually underneath the sky of your grace. Many saints, many citizens, and many senators have gathered here, and they have prayed here for protection, for the well-being of the citizens in this state. Each of these men and women have been sent here on a mission to represent their constituents. Lest we not forget, Jesus, that even in the midst of the ceremony and sometimes even despite ourselves, you are somehow leading us. You are our guide. Lord, you are the chief cornerstone. Help us, as we pray, to be given a plumb line, to be given exactness, accuracy, and direction by your perfect cornerstone. We pray in the name of Jesus. Amen.”

Give them sound minds and pure reason, reminding each of them that the height of reason is to recognize reason’s limits. Thank you, Lord, that you provide a space such as this to have political conversation and debate. RECESS

The Senate meets pursuant to recess and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Today, Lord, we gather to rededicate ourselves to the same promises that you initiated a short fifty years ago on this very day. We invoke your blessings upon this building, upon these leaders here today, and upon all who exercise just and rightful authority in this state. ‘Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the Lord guards the city, the guards keep watch in vain. It is in vain that you rise up early and go late to rest, eating the bread of anxious toil.’* From the fountain of your infinite wisdom, Lord Jesus, endow these senators to my left and to my right with the wisdom and courage to administer all the affairs with prudence and in justice and in equity, to the end that freedom and happiness may forever abide among us. Lord, may your will be done in North Carolina in such a way that our community might become a beacon of a community, in such a way that we might become a model for all other communities around these United States. As we rededicate ourselves today to another fifty years, let us heed the words of Psalm 100, ‘And let thy graciousness, O Lord, our God, be upon us. Establish thou also the work of our hands for us. Yes, the work of our hands, establish thou it.’ Amen.”

“Gracious and steadfast God, we stand before you today, in this chamber, with a call. Lord, there are two things that we need today: inspiration and wisdom, inspiration and wisdom. Inspire us, we ask, so that we might be like Corrie Ten Boom, so that we might be like Frederick Douglas, so that we might be like Abraham Lincoln, Helen Keller, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, that we might live our lives under the bright blue sky of your praise and your grace, and that in fifty years from today we might be seen as a generation that decided to live with integrity. You are our inspiration, Lord, and may we be not ones to beat the tepid drum of insecurity, but instead listen for the drum of your righteousness. Lord, we need your wisdom. We need you to show us how to run companies, how to pave roads, how to run schools, and how to work together as a community for the good of all of our citizens. We also need your wisdom in this session today. We plead with you for the dispensation of your perfect, wise counsel. Inspire us with your Holy Spirit that we might be full of a wisdom that is from on high. Because as your child, James, said, ‘Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change.’* We ask these two things in the name of Jesus, my fountain of wisdom and our inspiration. Amen.”

Monday, February 11, 2013

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Loving God, today as I stand before you, and as we bow our hearts to pray, I feel most vulnerable, exposed, because I just do not know what to pray or what to ask for. For I truly have nothing to offer you, nor anything to say. We know, our Father, that at this hour, at a place where we might feel your absence, this is perhaps a time when you are drawing near. As we feel weak, we are able to draw down on your grace. In this place, at this desperate hour in state affairs, we need you. We need your strength, your guidance, and your wisdom. There are problems far greater than any wisdom of man can solve. What shall our leaders do in such an hour? May thy wisdom and thy power come upon the leadership of this Senate, to whom have been entrusted leadership. May the responsibility lie heavily on their hearts until they are ready to acknowledge their helplessness and turn to you. Give to them the courage and the moral integrity to confess that they don’t know what to do and that they can come empty handed to you. Only then can they lead us, as a state and as a nation, beyond human wisdom to thee, who alone has the answer. Our God, may we never recover from our feeling of helplessness and our need of you. In the strong name of Jesus our Lord, we pray. Amen.”

February 11, 2013

ELEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, February 14, 2013

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“‘Almighty God, how deep your love for us, how vast beyond all measure, that you should give your only Son to make a wretch His treasure.’* We come to you today, Lord, we often find ourselves not able to live in this truth, and so we begin to fear the wrong things. We think we have to get ourselves together before you are going to love us. We can get stuck as people. But Lord, would you give us something we cannot produce ourselves? Would you give us your love and your grace? Help us to fear you. ‘The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.’† Increase our awe, our reverence, and our delight in you. May that amazement and jaw dropped admiration and glory drive us. May it help us communicate with one another. May it help us forgive one another—across the aisle. May it drive us on this day of Valentines, and may you drive us throughout this session. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.”

February 18, 2013
STATE-OF-THE-STATE ADDRESS

“About five weeks ago, when I was being sworn in as governor, and they called me ‘Your Excellency,’ both my wife and I looked behind us to see who they were talking about. What an honor this is to be here tonight in this beautiful chamber. Mr. Speaker, Lieutenant Governor, Mr. President Pro Tem, Governor Martin—who I think is in the audience. Please give a round of applause for Governor Martin. He’s been a mentor and a friend and a next door neighbor. Members of the court, members of the General Assembly, and I also must recognize eight very, very hard working people during the last six weeks, and even before that: people who are making tremendous sacrifice working for state government along with many of you, and that is my Cabinet. I’d like all eight members of my Cabinet and my other members of my staff to please stand up. You’re doing an outstanding job, and I’m proud to have you be a part of our team. Thank you very much. Aldona, this is the earliest I’ve seen you out of your office. I also want to give a special ‘Hello’ to former Governor Jim Holshouser. He’s back home. He had to deal with an immediate issue that came up tonight, but I just wanted to let you know, he’s healthy, he’s strong. We had a great conversation today, and, Governor Holshouser, thanks for all your wisdom and your service to this state. I really appreciate it. Also, more than anything else, I welcome the fellow citizens of North Carolina. I first came to Raleigh in 1967, as a fifth grader from Jamestown Elementary School, to tour this magnificent chamber. It seems just like yesterday. My goal as governor is to ensure that the fifth graders that we’re seeing today and yesterday and we’ll see tomorrow that are taking that same tour that I took 46 years ago will also get the same great opportunities to live, work, play, and raise a family in the greatest state in the United States of America, and that state is North Carolina. But to make that happen, we cannot accept the status quo. We cannot live off of a brand that needs updating and major revamping to not only compete with our neighbors, but to compete with the rest of the world. Tonight you will hear a sobering assessment of our state, but also some recommended actions that will get our economy and state moving again. I already know that during my short tenure here, I’ve already stepped on some toes on both the left and the right. I am not doing it to cause pain, but to get us to stand up and recognize that we must solve our serious problems now to prevent pain for future generations. That’s why we’re here tonight. But one thing I’ve learned, I learned during my fourteen years as a mayor: when you try to appease everyone, you satisfy no one. What motivates me every morning, when I’m so privileged to get up here in Raleigh as your governor, is the opportunity to be part of long term solutions. We must be here not only to represent the next generation, but also the hardworking men and women, who everyday have to get up in the morning and take responsibility for their families: the manufacturing worker completing shift work with every day demands to improve quality and productivity, knowing that if it is not achieved, the plant may move or shut down due to competition not only in the United States, but throughout the world—that’s pressure; the emergency room doctors and nurses and even our sheriff deputies throughout North Carolina who are sadly having to take care of mental health patients and those fighting addiction in our emergency rooms and county jails; the farmer who is constantly trying to save their crops from an approaching hurricane or tornado or storm; the hardworking teacher who cannot get funds for needed technology to help students learn; and the sixty or more people, along with me, who took time off of their jobs to wait in line for over an hour and a half to get their driver’s license renewed. We are here to represent these people and all of the people of North Carolina, especially those people right now that are looking for work. That is our goal right now, to represent all of these people. We obviously have a lot of work to do together, but my team and I chose to look at these challenges, to look at these challenges as opportunities. These are opportunities for every one of us. Therefore, our administration is going to focus, focus all of their time on three key functions: our economy, our education, and the efficiency of our services. Our economy, our education, and the efficiency of our services. Let’s start with efficiency. First, we are reviewing the budget numbers as we speak, and right now it looks like next year’s budget provides almost no new money or new revenue. So like families across North Carolina, we must live within our budget. We must refocus our priorities and become more efficient in how we spend our limited dollars. Now, during my first five weeks, I’ve had to work on things that we did not anticipate, but that’s the part of leadership, and many of you are working on these same issues. This is because those people in Washington required us to make some tough decisions on two massive programs affecting all of North Carolina. These Washington policies were passed with little understanding or discussion of the short term and long-term impact on our state services and on our state taxpayers. I will not outsource these tough decisions. I was elected to do what is right for the people of North Carolina. Now, after extensive reviews in this brief time that we were given, I have concluded that our government, like working families throughout our state, must first pay off its debt—pay off its credit card—which in this state’s case is $2.5 billion. Therefore, tomorrow, I will sign House Bill 4 to protect our small businesses from continued over-taxation. This will ensure our citizens’ unemployment safety net is secure and financially sound for future generations. This is the reason I’m signing this bill. These are not easy decisions, but I know one thing: borrowing from Washington with no idea or plan on how to pay for it ends with this administration right now. We aren’t going to do it any longer. We are not going to borrow money from Washington with no idea on how to pay it back. A recent audit showed that the past administration overspent on Medicaid by $1.4 billion over the past three years. Georgia is able to deliver Medicaid services at a cost of $4,000 per patient, while North Carolina’s delivery cost is over $6,000 per patient. We must fix this and strengthen our existing Medicaid system prior to putting at risk further tax dollars in a broken system. But I must ask all of you to please give my team the time and the flexibility to first stop the bleeding. Please, please, minimize the reports that you’re requiring from our administration. This is just last week.

February 18, 2013

February 18, 2013
Please minimize the reports. I know you have a lot of work to do and a lot of review, but please let my administration fix the problem and stop the bleeding now. We also need your help, and I will be requesting your help through legislation, to streamline the process at the Office of Administrative Hearings where delays—delay after delay—are adding millions of dollars to our cost as we speak today. We must change legislation which allows us to break through this very costly appeal process. Then we can all work together, with hospitals, with doctors, with insurance companies, with patients, on reforming this broken system. This is our number one priority that has been put on our lap, and we have to fix it together, and we will fix it together. In other areas of inefficiency, and frankly basic neglect of state operations during the past decade, my administration is taking immediate action. Our administration is moving IT equipment from over 30 identified, in the last five weeks, unsafe locations to ensure that the safety of our employees is protected and also the integrity of our IT systems. We’ve already had one fire. We don’t want to have another. My budget will provide substantial funding to fix and repair state properties and our broken IT systems in North Carolina government. We will be requesting legislation to expand efforts to implement electronic tracking—tracking systems for state vehicles—an area where we currently don’t have any accountability. In addition, we are ‘right-sizing’ vehicles where possible to reduce cost and fuel use, saving hundreds of thousands of dollars each year. We are also requesting legislation to address state personnel and productivity issues. This is a very serious issue for our Cabinet and for other people in the Council of State who have communicated this issue to me. We want to reward our talented state employees, but ‘seat warmers’ must be a thing of the past. I want to also say, we have to continue to attract, retain, reward and appreciate our state talent that works so hard for all of us in state government. Let’s also give them a round of applause. Now let me say, tell you a few other things we’re trying to fix regarding short-term and long-term operations. We recently found out that we inherited a system that has been double billing on the Triangle Expressway. Our administration has already fixed this issue. Customer accounts have been refunded, and each one of those customers that were double billed have been called and given a personal apology. Now that’s the culture of state government that we must have: a culture of customer service. I’d like to thank our Secretary of Transportation for his role model leadership and delivery in this excellent customer service in a very short period of time, but, Tony, I’ve charged you with several other projects. First and foremost, fix DMV. While you’re at it, Mr. Secretary, can you please fix the lights on the highways throughout North Carolina, and with all respect, can you start on I-85 and I-77 interchange in Charlotte, my hometown? We would appreciate that. Malcolm Graham I know appreciates that. Most people don’t think of criminal justice, addiction, and mental health issues as priorities while we work to streamline government, but as a former mayor, I’ve seen first-hand the collateral damage to our families, our communities, and taxpayers if we continue to sweep these issues under the rug. Recently, our First Lady and I visited the Durham Rescue Mission. We were moved by the stories of addiction and its impact on families. After meeting many of the people at the mission—and my wife has now been there twice—Ann said it best, and I’m quoting her, ‘So many of us could sit back and say, “Why don’t these people get out of it? Why don’t they just quit doing drugs? Why don’t they just leave this battered situation?”‘ She concluded by saying the following, ‘These women and men have more courage than I can fathom in this entire state.’ I want to introduce my wife, Ann, and two heroes of ours from the Durham Rescue Mission who have successfully, who have successfully, turned their lives around in fighting their own addiction—while fighting their own addiction battle, and also preserving their family. Please welcome our first lady, Ann McCrory, and our special guests, Mike and Rebecca Allred. May God bless you, and thank you for your hard work. Ann, your ovation was bigger than mine, and I just want to make a point of that. I am so proud of Mike and Rebecca. Their story can be repeated in every of the 100 counties in North Carolina, and we have to do everything that we can to help this terrible addiction issue throughout North Carolina. For the sake of North Carolina families, I ask you to please send me legislation which will re-establish our drug treatment courts and also increase penalties for those who set up meth labs in our communities. I will sign both of those pieces of legislation immediately. I have also instructed my head of Public Safety—because this issue of drugs and alcohol are just penetrating our families and our communities—I have instructed my Head of Public Safety to ensure that all state law enforcement officials will fight a coordinated effort against the cartel drug rings that are currently in North Carolina as we speak. We cannot ignore them, we must identify them, and we must get them out of this state now. The sheriffs will tell you this. We need to let people know about this serious issue. I also want to collaborate with our educational leaders to ensure that our schools and universities have a strategy to change the culture, to change the culture—that I’ve seen first-hand—of binge drinking and so-called recreational drug use. There must be enforcement in our schools and universities of their own policies and enforcement of our laws. In addition, we must offer help to these students who are doing harm to themselves and to their families. This is not a laughing matter; this is not something that they are just going through a time of their life. They’re causing serious harm to themselves and their families, and we must offer help, both through enforcement and through counseling. That must start now or we are going to continue to have these terrible mental health issues for generations to come. Speaking of education, this is an area that I have passion for—I had my teaching degree at Catawba College—and it’s another major focus we are moving forward on because North Carolina is known around the country as a leader in education and innovation in the classroom, but we cannot rest on our past reputation or our laurels. We must continue to reform our education system to stay ahead of the competition, not just in the United States but throughout the world. Last year, I’m sad to report that 14,000 kids dropped out of North Carolina schools. Fourteen thousand kids dropped out of our schools. Thirty percent of our children weren’t able to read at grade level. Sixty-five percent of our high school graduates who enter community colleges need remedial math or reading. We can all agree on the importance of improving education because our competitive future depends on it, but tonight we must begin to change the debate on education. Instead of focusing the debate only on the budget, we now must demand results. We must ensure that our schools are preparing our students for success by effectively teaching them both the knowledge—both the knowledge and the skills that will help them lead productive lives and also find jobs. The disconnect right now that I’ve seen between employers not able to find qualified talent, even with our high unemployment rate, and the citizens unable to get jobs must be resolved through education. Senator, I know you are working on this, and I appreciate it. Market based needs must be an important factor in education funding, curriculum, and results. That’s why my administration is seeking to expand strategic partnerships between the education community and the business community. My budget will promote this philosophy in pre-K, K-12, community colleges, and our university system. I have strongly advocated for two pathways for success in our high schools: vocational and higher college education. I firmly believe in this. There are two pathways to success: both a college track and a path through vocational training. Students like to have choices. Our employers need these choices. They are both equally important to empower our students, to achieve their post-graduation high school goals. That’s why today we had a wonderful event in Asheboro at Randolph Community College, in front of over 400 people. I was proud to sign into law my first bill as governor, your first bill in this legislature, Senate Bill 14. This major bipartisan legislation will help our employers find qualified candidates for jobs. It directs high schools and community colleges to share resources. It also makes it easier for experts in a private sector to get certified for teaching. Congratulations to all of you, almost every one of you, bipartisan, Democrat, Republican, everyone almost voted for this bill. You deserve applause. North Carolina needs this education reform, and you started it, and it was signed today. Congratulations. But we can and must do more to break down what I consider to be the four silos of education: pre-K, K-12, community colleges, and our great universities. It’s been too long since the Education Cabinet has met. You may have not even known there was an Education Cabinet, but I will reinstate and lead these meetings to develop a joint strategic plan and process to share resources, to share teachers, to share technology that puts both students and our hardworking taxpayers first. As governor, I will also lead a collaborative effort to help our universities come together as the competition for federal dollars is getting so tough. We need to come together as universities to maximize research funding. In our Morrisville city schools, the superintendent recently issued laptops for students in grades 4-12. Three years ago, the graduation rate was below 80 percent. In the last three years, the rate shot up to 90 percent. Education is no longer just about spending money on bricks and mortar. The power to improve education and deliver real results is at our fingertips. Right now, you watch any four-year-old child learning, they’re learning on technology, and they’re learning quicker than any of us in this room ever learned. To increase our children’s access to technology, I’m advocating that we ensure that the education lottery money actually be used for education. Now that’s a novel thought that all you’ve been hearing across North Carolina, but we can change some legislation to make that happen. I’m recommending that we pursue legislation to reallocate a portion of money away from the bloated and, frankly, annoying advertising and the large administration cost of the Lottery Commission, and we will use that money to directly help our students with technology. I also think we need to work together to give schools more flexibility to spend lottery funds on digital and virtual learning, which school districts, according to our laws, are not allowed to do right now. There’s a pot of money right now that can only be used on certain things. Why not let all of our hundred districts use that money on technology and virtual learning? This is the future. Why don’t we be ahead of the curve as opposed to being behind the curve? This begins right now. Now, third and most important, our number one focus is on the economy and jobs because there are a lot of people hurting out there right now. You know it, I see it, and it’s tough. We’ve got to do everything we can to help people want to work and get work. Today, North Carolina’s unemployment rate continues to be the fifth highest unemployment rate in the country. This is our North Carolina. My number one priority as your governor is to make sure that we are doing everything possible to make North Carolina an engine for job creation. North Carolina’s economic development brand has not been updated—and we’ve looked—since the 1980’s. Governor Martin, thank you, but it’s time we update your plan. Simply put, our competition in other states caught up to us, and many times, we have to admit, beating us. We are going to develop a long-term strategic plan, Madame Secretary, that updates our brand and puts us on a path to success. The first part of that plan is to fix and modernize our tax system in North Carolina. We’ve got to do it. I know many of you have been working on this for 50, 60 years. It was even in Governor Martin’s speech, I think. The fact of the matter is, our current system is out of date. It was written in the 1930’s. It no longer applies to the modern economy. We must have an economic and tax policy in North Carolina that is simple, that is competitive, that is modern, and that is pro-growth. This policy must reward our people and businesses that build things, produce things, grow things, and innovate things. We cannot live off of the services free alone or government jobs. We have got to help the people who build things and make things and produce things and innovate things, and our tax policy needs to be updated to help those industries. My friend, Joel Ford, even stood up, I am proud of you, Joel, thank you. We will work together—we will work together on this plan, which should meet the following criteria: lower rates on personal income and businesses to be more competitive, at least with our next door neighbors. Close loopholes for special interests to make our system more fair and transparent. It must be revenue neutral. We must implement this plan systemically and strategically to ensure that we don’t put at risk business confidence where crucial revenue is needed for services to our citizens. Tax reform is just one tool we have to build our economy; we have many other tools to make this economy start igniting again. During the past decade, we have sat on the sidelines for far too long on energy exploration at a time when our country needs to be more energy independent, at a time when the gas prices right now are going up almost every day, and at a time when our people need jobs. Sadly, we are in a catch-up mode with other regions of the country, and those states that went first have the lowest unemployment rates in the country. This administration will move, closely working with all of you, to get North Carolina into the energy business and begin the process of energy exploration in a safe and environmentally sound way. Last week, I proudly joined the governors—one minute they are my competitors, and the next minute they are my partners, but I joined the governors of South Carolina and Virginia to request federal authority to begin offshore exploration in North Carolina. Just think what we need, what we could do with these future revenues. Future revenues can help create jobs. They can provide new revenue for roads and needed infrastructure or to repair of bridges. It can help replenish our beaches, which our travel and tourism industry currently needs desperately at this point in time, dredge our ports, which we need right now for travel and trade, and to help fund our education system. This is one pocket of revenue that we have got to explore and find out, ‘Are we capable of moving now and beating our competition that has also been sitting on the sideline for far too long?’ We also can’t afford to overlook and take for granted the valuable economic resources that we’ve had in this state for a long time, and that’s our military. To grow our private sector economy, we must use our military assets as a major recruitment tool. Think of the talent that is coming home right now, especially as our heroic men and women return home from Iraq and Afghanistan. Think of the leadership talents, the technical talents, the skills that they have to help fill that gap between commerce and the people needing the jobs. We will use them as a recruitment tool and help them and their families when they return home. I want to thank our men and women in uniform who honor North Carolina with their presence, and our country with their service. They deserve it. For these heroes, we are finalizing a plan that focuses on first, the retention of our bases and our troops here in North Carolina, growing our military supplier base, three, retaining our highly skilled military personnel, and four, growing the defense manufacturing sector. We have incredible opportunity to follow through on those four objectives. Speaking of the military, I’ve always said I’m kind of an Eisenhower Republican. I believe one of government’s main roles is to provide the needed infrastructure to support job creation and economic growth. This is one of the great things that Dwight Eisenhower did as president. He worked to connect the urban with the rural and the East with the West. We need to keep focused on continuing that type of visionary thinking right here in North Carolina, using our infrastructure. That’s why we will soon kick off the development of a strategic, long-term plan for four areas of infrastructure that are crucial for the next generation and for job growth to continue and to protect our environment. Those four areas are: transportation, water, energy, and communications. We need to present to the people of North Carolina and the people who want to invest in North Carolina our vision for the transportation plans, our water plans, our energy plans, and our communication plans. This will send a strong signal to the private sector that we will be partners with them in their continued economic expansion in North Carolina. It is crucial that we begin this process now. We’ve waited far too long. Let’s do it now and present the next generation with a vision and a plan for economic growth and prosperity through infrastructure. Now, let me tell you one of North Carolina’s other greatest strengths, and that’s our export potential. I’ve always firmly believed that the best way to grow a business is to increase that business and wanting people to have that product and export it to other countries. When I go overseas on trade missions as your governor, my number one priority will be expanding the exports of products which say, ‘Made in North Carolina.’ Mr. Commissioner, the export of North Carolina products, especially our incredible agricultural products, is crucial in the rebuilding of our economy. To help achieve this goal, under the leadership of the Agricultural Commissioner and the Transportation and Commerce Secretaries, we gained approval—and I’d like to thank the Council of State—to bring needed refrigeration to our Wilmington port for our cold food chain exports. This will be one step forward that we must have to increase exports. Thank you, Mr. Commissioner. We also must look at our entire commerce strategy. In the area of business recruitment and needed investment expansion, we are going to be recalibrating our incentive program. This will ensure that we are using our resources, based upon measurable results, to attract, expand, and retain jobs in North Carolina. We will be undergoing a total review of our Commerce Department to ensure that we are flexible and we are adapting to our ever-changing competition and economic conditions. Almost every day since I have been your governor, I have been personally meeting, along with other members of my administration, with potential employers who want to expand or relocate to North Carolina, and, I’m telling you, we’re getting a lot of people who are interested. We are already successful in improving our customer service, working through bureaucratic regulatory roadblocks that stifle economic recruitment efforts. This is especially true in the Department of Environmental and Natural Resources. John, thank you very much for your hard work, and, DENR, we appreciate it. We’re bringing a customer service attitude to DENR. I’d like to thank the employees of that department too. We are also developing partnerships with our community colleges and universities to help meet specific workforce needs for our businesses. Let me tell you this: the heads of our universities, the heads of our community colleges are also important parts of our recruitment team. I have told Tom Ross, and I will tell every university president and every community college president, we want them with us on our recruitment trips because they will be an important part of our selling of North Carolina. Our biggest challenge, our biggest challenge as I travel the state right now, is right now, not just developing jobs in a growing urban area—sometimes it’s much easier to sell, for example, the Triangle area or the Triad area or the Charlotte area—but right now I think our biggest challenge is to develop a strategy for the small towns throughout North Carolina that have been hit so hard by this recession. That’s exactly what we plan to do. We’ve got to work with the small towns of North Carolina. There are too many people hurting in those towns. Let me tell you this right now: I did it as mayor, and I’ll do it again as governor. No one will outwork this governor or this team or any of you in our effort to grow, recruit, and retain North Carolina jobs. We will be on the road, and we’re going to sell our great resources that we have. This is my job, this is your job. We’ve got a great product. Already, I anticipate good news in the near future because of the groundwork we’ve already laid down in only the first five weeks. We have been meeting and meeting and meeting with potential customers who are interested in North Carolina. Now, to do this, however, I’m not going to be deterred by those who want to keep the status quo—the way we’ve always been doing things in North Carolina. We’ve got to change, we’ve got to adapt, and we’ve got to be visionary for the future. We’re going to stay focused despite what some of the critics say. We’re going to stay focused on fixing the economy, transforming education, and improving government efficiency. I’ll say it one more time: fixing the economy, transforming education, and improving government efficiency. None of this can be about politics, power, legacy, turf, or who gets the credit. Who cares? This is about the people of North Carolina. This is why we’re here. This is why each one of you is taking time away from your families every day to work right here in our state capital: to have this privilege. It’s about the people of North Carolina. It’s not about power or turf or legacy. It’s about solving problems and developing long-term solutions. We cannot achieve these goals alone inside the bubble of government. There’s no way. We’ve got to get out of here occasionally. Our approach must be outward. Starting tomorrow, I ask all of you to bring this message to our citizens on main streets across our beautiful state: achieving these goals during our term in office will not be easy. It’s going to be tough, but we have to fulfill and exceed North Carolina’s potential. Let’s unleash—let’s unleash our unlimited resources and opportunity North Carolina has to offer. We will do it, we must do it. God bless all of you and the great state of North Carolina. Now let’s get back to work. Thank you very much.”

Senator Rucho and Representative Howard are recognized to escort Governor McCrory from the Hall of the House of Representatives.

Upon motion of Senator Phil Berger, President Pro Tempore, seconded by Representative Thom Tillis, Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Joint Session is dissolved, and pursuant to the motion prevailing earlier in the Senate, the Senate adjourns at 7:45 p.m. to reconvene Tuesday, February 19, 2013, at 2:00 p.m.
The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Gracious and loving God, have mercy on us. Lord, have mercy, for sometimes we do not know what we are doing. Have mercy, Lord, and turn our minds from our lives to be able to hear your divine wisdom from on high. You are better than the fullest purse, Lord, or the most magnificent income. Broad acres of grain fields do not yield the peace that comes from your side. Lord, you are Jehovah Jireh, the Lord who will provide. You are Jehovah Rapha, the Lord who heals. Lord, we call upon you in this time of need to strengthen us with your voice, and to give us the courage that has to come from you. We pray in the name of Jesus. Amen.”

February 20, 2013
The Senate meets pursuant to recess and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, it is an honor to be able to serve you. It is an awesome honor to serve alongside these brave men and women that are public servants. It is easy to lose ourselves in our work, Lord. We are giving so much in service to others. It becomes easy to baptize our motives and over-work. We say, ‘Look how important our work is.’ We certainly are helping, but it is good to remember that we are not the true physician or the true lawyer. We are helping, vitally, but we are first your children. We are not the ones that are ultimately needed here. We are imminently replaceable, and we need you to guide us, Heavenly Father. So as your servants, call us back to our humble beginnings as servants. May we remember where we have come from and where we are going. It is in the name of Christ we pray. Amen.”

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Hartsell and Senator Nesbitt.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. Ward Adcock from Gastonia, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and to Tom Hartley from Cary, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

Upon motion of Senator Nesbitt, the words spoken in support of S.J.R. 133 are spread upon the journal as follows:

SENATOR D. DAVIS: “Members of the Senate, as you are well aware, this is the last day of February which is also the last day of Black History Month. Although it was originally established in 1926 by Carter G. Woodson, nationally we began to observe Black History Month in 1976, and mind you that President Gerald Ford was actually the first president to acknowledge Black History Month, and ever since, presidents have acknowledged Black History Month. As we may have seen many events and received invitations to such events throughout this month and, the schedule allowing, have attended. I know, Senator Pate, in the past, Mount Olive puts together a pretty good Black History Parade, and hundreds line up along the stretch, and we’ve attended and participated, and I think that parade is coming up Saturday. Likewise, here in the General Assembly, it’s not uncommon for us or a member to stand up and reflect on Black History Month. Many may remember, even though I was not here last session, but our dear friend Ed Jones stood up and brought forth some words, and he shared the story with you that he had shared with me quite often, and he was talking about his time when he was in the Army. He had a buddy that he served with, and he reminded us then that service wasn’t about race—in the line of fire—that it was about survival. He shared that story, and I remember talking to him shortly afterwards, and God bless his soul. In lieu of a single word of reflection today, we have this Joint Resolution 133 that recognizes the outstanding Americans and North Carolinians, that just so happen to be African American, who served in the North Carolina General Assembly. But before moving forward, I would like to just pause briefly and recognize Senator Bryant who actually came up with the idea of this Joint Resolution and putting in one document a historical account of those legislators who have served of African-American descent. I do thank you for working on it. She was working starting last week, and by the time staff finished the resolution, she was out of town, if you noticed, and she’s back with us, and we’re glad to have you back with us so that you can continue on the journey—while you had asked me to work on this Resolution. Joint Resolution 133, as I said, provides a historical account, starting in 1868 through today, highlighting the accomplishments of African-Americans, regardless of political party affiliation, that served and made great contributions in shaping North Carolina into the state that it is, beginning in 1868 when the first African-Americans that served in our State Senate included senators such as Henry Eppes of Halifax County and Abraham Galloway of New Hanover County and John Hyman of Warren County. By 1833, there were 19 African-Americans who were serving in the House and Senate, and this was, during this time, one of the larger groups, that had served, of African-Americans, and actually history tells us that it was greatly due to the North Carolina Republican Party. Now, interestingly, God rest his soul, when I was serving before, I sat right here with Senator Tucker and Jim Forrester—Senator Forrester. We shared so many stories, and he reminded me of the efforts of the Republicans along the way. But heading up to the century, there were 111 African-Americans that served in the General Assembly, but then as the century turned, it wasn’t until 68 years later that we began to see African-Americans begin to serve once again in our General Assembly, with one of the first in 1968: then-Representative Henry Frye, which many of us know and understand later became Justice Frye of Guilford County. Also, I’ll remind you, by 1971, we began to see the first African-American female to serve in our House: Dr. Alfreda Webb of Guilford County. Twenty years later, in 1991, we saw the first African-American to go on to become the Speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives, and that gentleman is by the name of Daniel Terry Blue, Jr. He wasn’t having enough fun in the House; he was not truly fulfilled with being the Speaker so he sought his true fulfillment here in the Senate—Senator Blue. Yet history continues to chart itself. By 2009, Representative Pearl Burris Floyd of Gaston County was the first African-American Republican elected to serve in the General Assembly. Currently, there are 31 African-Americans, including two Native Americans, serving in our General Assembly in this session. What rich history we have as a state as we reflect on this last day of February 2013. Historically, 2013 is a very significant year for other reasons. This year marks, too, the 150th year of the signing of Lincoln’s Emancipation Proclamation, which freed over three million slaves. Also, many may remember, fifty years ago we had a march on Washington. Interestingly, history tells us that A. Philip Randolph, the visionary behind the March on Washington, had actually begun to plan the march nearly twenty years before the actual march took place. However, in working with President Roosevelt at the time, an Executive Order was put forward to help alleviate discrimination in the Defense Industry, and, therefore, he held off on the march. But then by 1963, Asa Philip Randolph and the Big Six were very intent on moving forward with the March on Washington, and the reason for that was because, at the time, they were interested in capturing a historic account to examine the progress made since the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation, then 100 years later. The Civil Rights movement, the March on Washington, produced tremendous leaders, as we remember: Martin Luther King, now-Congressman John Lewis, and even Floyd McKissick—not our Senator Floyd McKissick, but his father, who was a tremendous giant in the Civil Rights community. Actually, Senator McKissick’s father was one of the featured speakers on the March on Washington, and we continue to remember his contributions through today. My friends, as we now reflect, then, through this Joint Resolution, on what history tells us for our state, there are some things that I hold on to. Number one, Black History does not, by any means, shape, or form, conflict with American History, the history of our great state, or any other history, but, in essence, our histories are deeply connected and rooted in American history and North Carolina history. Number two, our past, as we reflect here today, we see in that past both strengths as well as struggles within our communities, even our political parties at times, our state, our nation, but yet as we reflect on the same history, it’s our unyielding resilience that has brought us this far and our ability to persevere. So as we allow reflections to lead us and guide us into our future that may be yet unknown, I would simply suggest that this Joint Resolution remind us, too, of the beauty of this institution. This institution, as Senator Apodaca reminds us, we are a family, and it’s this family that brings us together—a ‘child of the east’ to meet with mountain men like Nesbitt, this ‘child of the east,’ and out of all senators, yes, to meet with Stan Bingham, this ‘child of the east,’ that brings education experience, to meet up with, yes, Jerry Tillman too. Growing up for me in small, rural Greene County, often people would say, growing up, they were ‘going to town,’ and that was to go to the County Seat. Nevertheless, they were thinking about and imagining planning a trip to the big city of Raleigh. But it’s this institution that allows a ‘son of the east’ to come and exchange ideas with senators from the big city of Raleigh, Chad—Senator Barefoot—and Senator Clodfelter and so many. My friends, I would simply say, it’s this institution—this institution—that as we perform, allows us and will allow us to move forward and has given us the strength to get here today. So as we place God ahead of all and keep our love of our country and our state at the forefront, I’m convinced that our strength—our strength—our collective strength—will continue to allow us to rise above any of our struggles and challenges of our past. As we reflect on this history of this institution and the progress, let us hold onto this fact that often our policies are a reflection of our relationships, and often our politics are a reflection of our hearts, and it’s important, then therefore, to allow our hearts to guide us and allow our relationships to move us forward. Understanding this, that true progress, as we look in this Resolution, it has required both parties to move us forward, people of all races to move us forward, people from different backgrounds to move us forward, people from different religions to move us forth. I’m glad to serve with each and every one of you, and I’m glad to celebrate this enormous legacy that is captured in this Resolution, and I’m joyed to celebrate and honor pioneers such as Senator Blue, and I’m honored to submit this Joint Resolution to you. I do ask for your support on this Resolution, and I also ask for God to continue to guide the Old North State. May God bless you.”

SENATOR ROBINSON: “I want to thank and commend Senators Davis and Bryant and the others for bringing this forth, and I want to certainly congratulate one of my mentors, Senator Blue, for his work both in the House and the Senate, and I want to certainly commend one of my greatest mentors, on whose campaign I worked in the ‘60’s—Representative Henry Frye, who later became North Carolina’s Supreme Court Justice Frye—for the work he did for this state as well. But I would not be in compliance if I did not acknowledge that in 1994, Senator Henry McKoy became the first African-American Republican Senator since Reconstruction in North Carolina, so I certainly want him included as we recognize those who have contributed to the history of North Carolina. He, of course, later was appointed to the North Carolina Civil Rights Commission, I believe, by Governor Hunt, and later to the Peace Corps. I’d like to acknowledge his contribution along with the others who made significant contributions to North Carolina and to the United States.”

SENATOR BRYANT: “I just wanted to make a few additional points. In doing the work to pull together some of this history and in reviewing material provided by the staff, there were three things that were interesting to me. First, Dr. Alfreda Webb, who was the first black woman appointed to the General Assembly, who never actually got seated because she was appointed during the interim and then she didn’t win her election, but she was also the first black veterinarian in the United States which I just thought was an interesting point and indicated how outstanding she was in her time. The second point I want to make is when I get discouraged sometimes with the challenges we face and the work to be done, I think about what it had to be like for my ancestors just a few years out of slavery who came here to serve and often under threat of their life, or for fear of how they would be perceived, or for fear of what would happen, so when I think of my own anxieties sometimes, I think about the courage it took for them, and I get over my butterflies, and sometimes I get over my despair about those challenges. The other point I want to make is how easy it is for these gains to be wiped away because of our legal changes involving the right to vote. From 1900 to 1968, there were no African-Americans or other persons of color serving in the General Assembly, so what we gain and celebrate can so easily be lost if we’re not careful, and finally, just to acknowledge that it wasn’t until 1974 that the first African-American was on the legislative staff, and that staffer’s name was—that was a female—and her name was Clay Knight. I wanted to acknowledge that. Thank you and I commend the resolution to you.”

February 28, 2013
SENATOR PARMON: “I just wanted to highlight a couple of individuals: one being Representative Annie Brown Kennedy, who is recognized in this resolution, but I also wanted to share with some of you that she was the first African-American woman admitted to the Bar in the State of North Carolina. Representative Brown is still giving good advice and served honorably in the House. Also Judge Richard Ervin, who served in the House, went on to serve as a Federal Judge, and he was from Forsyth County. He was a great leader in our county—one of the first African-American legislators from Forsyth County, but I also wanted to point out that this is 2013, and I have the honor of being the first African-American ever elected Senator from Forsyth County.”

SENATOR McKISSICK: “I think it is wonderful that we’re here today to commemorate all of the contributions of the African-American legislators that are identified in this resolution. I want to thank those that have brought it forward for our respectful consideration. I think it’s important that we recognize Black History Month. I can remember as a child growing up we recognized Black History Week, and that was about the extent of it. The reason being, when it was created, it was because there was a void in our textbooks, a void in what was taught in our classrooms, a void in what was taught in our universities that related to the contributions of African-Americans. So we came up and put it in a week, and I’m glad that it got expanded to a month. Of course, I’ll be happiest when the contributions of African-Americans as well as those that are White, those that are Latino, that are Asians, are such an integral part of our history that it becomes as if it’s a piece of woven fabric together that we stand, that we speak, that we contribute, and that we become the type of color blind society where all of our contributions are such that we may not even necessarily need a Black History Week or a month. We will recognize it because each and every one of those members is adequately and appropriately reflected based upon their contributions in all of those textbooks and all of those books that are in our universities which commemorate our history. If we think back to where we’ve come as a country, I think we can all be very, very proud. Our Founding Fathers, they were wonderful people in terms of being visionary leaders, to set up a Constitution which basically has provided all types of rights and privileges, but at the same time many of them were slave owners, and within our Constitution it refers to those that are slaves as three-fifths of a man because African-Americans were not viewed as full people by our Founding Fathers. We so often speak of the land of the free, but we were also the home of the slaves, and I don’t think, for any of us who are African-Americans, we forget that vestige in our minds and in our hearts and reflect upon how far our ancestors have come and appreciate the leadership that they provided us to help us get us to the point that we are today. But I think, more importantly, that we, as the elected leaders of this state of North Carolina, can take pride and dignity in the oaths of office that we have taken to make sure that we protect the rights and liberties and aspirations of all, and that we embrace those ideologies that may be sometimes different from our own—to embrace those complexions and tones of people that come to us regardless of their backgrounds, regardless of their socio-economic status, and we can represent them all collectively and effectively. I know that we can, I know that we must, I know that that is a sacred trust which we all share, and I look to each and every one of you that are colleagues and say, let’s not just think about these contributions in one month a year, let’s try to think about those contributions and try to enable those that have historically not been able to contribute to more meaningfully contribute in the future and do all that we can to make sure that we are in fact the type of country, the type of state, that we would not only aspirationally speak of, but that we realize all of those dreams and aspirations through our actions each and every day as we conduct business within these sacred halls. Thank you.”

The Joint Resolution passes its second reading (48-0) and, without objection, is read a third time and passes its third reading and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

You have blessed us through prophets, priests, and through your Holy Word. So we plead with you, Lord, Father, to continue to encourage these servants here assembled. Senate Chamber
Wednesday, March 6, 2013

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Dear Lord, every time we meet, we pray that you would ‘cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit.’* We think a thousand thoughts in a minute—as small as a cell phone or loneliness or good food. We trust that you do in fact hold all these things in your sight. You turn the wind; you examine our hearts. You are the Great Physician. ‘Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy,’+ we give you thanks. Lord, it is in your name we pray. Amen.”

Recognizing the Seventy-Fifth Anniversary of the March of Dimes

WHEREAS, the March of Dimes Foundation is a pioneer in improving the health of infants and women of childbearing age by preventing birth defects, premature birth, and infant mortality; and

WHEREAS, the March of Dimes was founded by President Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1938 to fight polio, and funded the development of two vaccines, still in use today, that virtually eliminated the crippling disease; and

WHEREAS, the March of Dimes was a pioneer in the support of newborn screening, urging Congress to pass and fund the Newborn Screening Saves Lives Act, which in 2008 established national guidelines on the conditions states should include in newborn programs, and through state advocacy ensured that every state screens all newborns for that core set of conditions; and

It is an honor to be here before you and the service that you provide for our great state, and so I ask that God’s presence be in service—God’s presence be here with you. We pray that we are not here for our own riches, but the riches that are ours lead us to generosity in sharing with others; that we are not here for our own beauty, but the fairness that is ours lead us to modesty in the way that we face our community; that we are not here for our own power, but the power that is ours shall lead us to influence others with greatness, with wisdom, lest arrogance take over our nature. We pray that we are here for honor, so that our honor shall come to us with understanding, lest esteem cause us to forget those who need a helping hand. We pray that we understand our talent, lest we forget that our gifts are only lent to us—that our gifts are a mark that we should not lose our humility, knowing full well that our talent comes only from another. We pray that we stay far from trouble so that we shall understand that the troubles that others face shall be put before us as a challenge so that we shall stand with them in their time of need and not stand in blame. We pray, in times of sorrow, that when grief enters our life, we will have the fortitude to bear the trials that are ahead with patience to be a comfort to those who are around us. We pray most of all that we are here with modesty, wisdom, understanding, humility, and courage, with fortitude for the leadership that the position demands, that in your presence, O great wonder and creator, we will bring goodness to this land, to this place, to this great state. Amen.”

“Almighty God, we are thankful that you have gathered us back together for a new week. As we come to you, we lift up Senator Sanderson and his mother who has gone now to be with you, Jesus. We thank you for her life and for the service of all these senators. We come before you confessing that we often fritter our lives away; that we often follow our own dreams, we follow our own policies and our own thought process. We need you to take our hands back and remind us that you are the strong rock beneath us. You are the strong mother that holds us in your arms. For this reason I ask you, Lord, to ‘fan into flame’ the gift of God which is in these friends gathered. ‘For God gave us a spirit not of fear or timidity but of power, and love, and discipline.’* In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.”

Senate Principal Clerk

Pursuant to Senator Berger’s motion to adjourn having prevailed, the Senate stands adjourned.

March 27, 2013
The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Father in heaven, as we come to the end of this week and grow closer towards Good Friday and Easter, may we hear the words of a Christian martyr: ‘We cannot do everything, and there is a sense of liberation in realizing that. This enables us to do something and to do it very, very well. It may be incomplete, but it is the beginning, a step along the way, an opportunity for the Lord’s grace to enter and do the rest. We may never see the end results, but that is the difference between the master builder and the worker. We are workers, not master builders; ministers, not messiahs. We are prophets of a future that is not our own.’* We pray in Jesus’ name. Amen.”

April 1, 2013
THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, April 2, 2013

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Jimmy Moore from First Baptist Church in Washington, N.C., as follows:

“Almighty and Eternal God, we pause to give you thanks today for this great nation and state where we are privileged to live and work. We thank you for the plan you gave to our forbearers by which to govern our nation and state; for the division of powers so that our destiny does not rest in the hands of one person or even just a few. We acknowledge today your sovereign power over all. In praying for those in authority, we therefore lift up our elected leadership to you, O Lord. We pray today for the governor, the lieutenant governor, the judicial branch, the General Assembly, and, in particular, those senators who sit in this very chamber. We pray that by your Holy Power, our legislative bodies would make laws that are fair and just. Father, we ask you to give them wisdom to make decisions that would strengthen and prosper us as a people. We desire that they would make right decisions concerning the politics, the social welfare, and the economics of this great state. O God, we pray today that all of us will be motivated by your hand and not our own personal concerns. We offer this prayer in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.”

S.R. 543, A SENATE RESOLUTION EXPRESSING GRATITUDE AND APPRECIATION TO OUR VETERANS, for adoption.

Upon motion of Senator Bingham, the words spoken about S.R. 543 are spread upon the journal as follows:

SENATOR PATE: “Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, in times of war and peace, our nation has depended greatly on her young men and women to defend our homeland from any enemy, either foreign or domestic, and I think it is very fitting that we, as a state, take this day to recognize the veterans who are in our midst today. Some of us here sitting in the Senate, some of those who are sitting in the gallery, we welcome them all, and today is their day, and we salute them. I urge your support of this resolution.”

SENATOR RABIN: “I was asked to do this, and it is my pleasure to do this, by one of the gentlemen now in the gallery. We in this chamber, we in this state, and we in this nation all enjoy the privileges afforded us by the Bill of Rights and by the Constitution. We have these privileges because people like those in the balcony served our country: the veterans of this country and nation. I’m proud to be one. I hope that this day goes down well with them, and I wish them great, good fortune in the future. Thank you.”

SENATOR WOODARD: “Just a note of personal privilege and personal pride that among the veterans with us today is my father, Master Sergeant James E. Woodard, retired from the U. S. Air Force, who is the guiding force in my life, and I honor his service along with our other veterans. Thank you.”

Upon motion of Senator Pate, the Senate Resolution is adopted (49-0).

HONORING VETERANS

Upon motion of Senator Bingham, the words spoken by Senator Tillman, Senator Goolsby, and Senator Rabin, honoring our Veterans through a point of personal privilege, are spread upon the Journal as follows:

SENATOR TILLMAN: “I would like for us to adjourn today in honor of and the memory of veterans who have and are still serving us today. I must say, Colonel Senator Rabin, I read your bio there, and I did not realize that you were such a decorated military hero, and many of these highest order of military awards, Merit and Valor, and so forth, that have come your way. I congratulate you on that, Colonel, and salute you and thank you for your service and many others in here. I think—Senator Dannelly is not here anymore, but I believe he served in the Civil War, but I’m not sure. I’m kidding there, but he had a great military career, too, and some of the others of you that I don’t know that well. If you can rank with what I read about Colonel Rabin you’re up there among the elite. Congratulations. Thank you.”
SENATOR GOOLSBY: “I want to apologize, Mr. Rules Chair, I did not put my name on this. I am the one who had this passed out. I know the rules, but somehow my name didn’t get put on it. I wanted to make sure—Senator Tillman beat me to the punch. I had this printed up. I found it online, actually, regarding Senator Rabin at his Alma Mater, Mississippi Southern College, at the time he attended. It’s now Mississippi Southern University. You can see that our eldest senator, and also one of our freshmen, has quite a distinguished military career, as Senator Tillman pointed out. He actually went into the Army Special Forces back when nobody knew what Special Forces was in the 1960’s, actually in 1960. You can see that after completing that school he was sent over to Vietnam, I’m sorry, to Laos, where he served. Upon his return, he ended up going to the Special Warfare Center where he learned of all languages, and probably the only one in the Senate Chamber, or maybe in this part of North Carolina, that can speak Burmese. Then in 1964, he got his regular Army Commission. You can see that, starting in 1965, he was sent back to Southeast Asia, where he served in the highlands of Vietnam. He went on search and destroy missions, and during that time period he actually earned the first of his four Legions of Merit and the first of his three Bronze Stars. All those Bronze Stars were for valor in the field. They weren’t the Bronze Stars like you see given out today sometimes to people who pilot drone aircraft. The Colonel earned his in combat. Next, Colonel Rabin was sent back and became the Aide de Camp to Lt. General Stanley Larson. He got his second Legion of Honor at that point and the Meritorious Service Medal. Then in 1969, the good Colonel volunteered yet again to return to Vietnam. He got his third Legion of Merit, his second Bronze Star, and then in 1970, when he was Commanding Officer of the First Battalion, 22nd Infantry, he demonstrated outstanding leadership and received the Silver Star, which you can see the medal ribbon he many times wears on his jacket. I believe—Colonel, you correct me if I’m wrong—I think that’s the third highest award in our country for valor given only for gallantry in combat. The Colonel earned that in 1970. He got also during that same tour his third Legion of Merit and his third Bronze Star. He then returned to the United States. His active combat operations were done at that point, and at that time he was assigned as Executive Officer and Special Assistant for the Modern Volunteer Army, and the Colonel led the way and laid the groundwork for today’s all-volunteer Armed Forces. His awards are listed on the back of this page, and they are numerous, starting with the Army General Chief of Staff identification badge going up through the Ranger Badge, Parachutist’s Badge, you can see them all the way up through his three air medals with oak leaf clusters, his two Bronze Stars, his Meritorious Service medal, his three Legions of Merit with oak leaf clusters, and a Silver Star. Colonel, I’d just like to thank you for your service to our country and am glad that we have this opportunity today. I’m sorry that all the other veterans aren’t here, but it’s my pleasure to read out this great life and this incredible contribution you’ve given to our country. We are proud of you, and I’m proud to serve with you. Thank you, sir.”

April 2, 2013
SENATOR RABIN: “Maybe I can hold together through this. First of all, I’m proud to have served with the men up in the balcony, my brothers in arms. I’m equally proud to be here serving again with a great group of people who I know are positively motivated to do great things for our country that we all love and pledge allegiance to, one nation, under God. Thank you very much for today.”

Lord, how I thank you for these senators, for their families, for the sacrifices that they make in order to serve others. Lord, I know that each one has challenges that have nothing to do with legislation: family, friends, finances, health. I pray that you will minister to each one in a special way. Now, Lord, we ask your blessing upon this session. I pray, O Lord, that you would sanctify this time, by your truth, for your word is truth. You are the one who raises one up and brings another down. It is to you that we shall all give account. We’re not playing. So, we pray the prayer of our second president, John Adams, when he said, ‘May none but those who are wise and honest ever rule under this roof.’ We proclaim to all who would hear and to the world that is seen and the world that is not seen that Jesus Christ is Lord of this habitation. We pray these things in the name of Him who said, ‘I am the way, the truth, and the life. No man cometh unto the Father but by me.’ In the name of Jesus, Amen.”

THIRTY-NINTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, April 4, 2013

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend James Gailliard from Word Tabernacle Church in Rocky Mount, North Carolina, as follows:

“Good morning. For those of you that may pray a little differently than I do, or for those of you that may not pray at all, I would like to start with just a moment of silence. Let us pray. Our Father and our God, we thank you for being a prayer answering God and a covenant keeping God. I thank you for giving us access to you who alone holds all power, majesty, and authority. Thank you for the promise that if we abide in you, and your words abide in us, we can ask what we desire and we shall receive them. Thank you for the promise that the effective, fervent prayer of a righteous person avails much. I pray today, God, for our lieutenant governor and our governor, for this body of officials, senators, legislators—specifically, God, this North Carolina General Assembly. I pray for every elected and appointed official to assemble in this chamber today. I pray, God, for the most senior statesman here to the most newly elected. I pray for their families, I pray for the desires of their hearts. I pray, God, that you would keep them in good health and in sound mind. I thank you, God, for this nation we live in. I thank you, God, for the vision of our forefathers that we might be governed by a division of powers so that our destiny does not rest in the hands of one person. To that end, God, I pray that our destiny will not be controlled by special interest or personal agenda or by racial prejudice or injustice. I pray, God, for policies, discussions, outcomes that are compassionate and also good for the common good. I pray, God, that decisions will be made in this place to empower people to do great things. I pray, God, that decisions will be made in this place, God, that people would not be able to live irresponsibly. I pray for wisdom to make decisions that would strengthen and prosper our state. I pray, God, for both social and capital entrepreneurism. I pray, God, for policies that will benefit those who wear a Timex or a Rolex. I pray, God, for policies that will benefit those in public housing as well as in gated communities. I pray, God, for those with a PhD as well as those with a GED. I pray for every business, every belief, every burden. I pray for healthcare that is affordable and accessible. I pray for an education system that results in our children being critical thinkers and not reduced to good test takers. I pray for the wealthiest and the poorest of our state. I pray for those of us who govern that we might realize that our blessings—our prosperity—that we might acknowledge that we are the beneficiaries many years removed of the entitlements of land grants, GI Bills, and the Homestead Act. I pray for the common good. I pray that no select group of people would feel entitled, God, that their own comfort and their own convenience would have an adverse effect on the masses. I pray, God, that we would embrace what G.K. Chesterton wrote in 1909 when he stated, ‘The first principle of democracy is this: that the things common to all men are more important than the things peculiar to any man.’ I pray for a spirit of gratitude that we were not born in Burundi or Madagascar or Afghanistan, but we were born in the greatest nation and the greatest state to ever exist. Help those who are in this chamber to be thankful for the opportunity you have given them to lead and to govern and remind each of us as we deliberate today, God, that for every vote, every meeting, every e-mail, we will be held accountable for the decisions and the deeds done in these offices. Give us a productive day that you may be pleased and be able to say, ‘well done.’ In Jesus’ name I pray. Amen.”

The Chair grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Stein.

Senator Apodaca, Rules Chairman, announces that the Senate Journal of Wednesday, April 3, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal and it stands approved as written.

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, April 9, 2013

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Heavenly Father, it is an incredible privilege to close our eyes and be able to hear from you in this moment, in this chamber. ‘Seek the shalom of the city where I have sent you,’* says the Lord. Seek the peace of Asheville, Southport, Roanoke Rapids, Old Fort, Charlotte, Beaufort, Kinston, Oriental, Ahoskie, Winston-Salem, Manteo, and Lexington. We pray that, Lord, you would bless us and bless these cities. Because as you said in Scripture, ‘In its peace and in its welfare, you will find your welfare.’* So keep us from selfish gain. Encourage us on to pray for our cities, to pray for our people. You say that in seventy years you will visit and ‘fulfill my promise and bring us back to our homes.’* You say that you have a ‘plan for us,’ and we believe you. Help us believe in the midst of our unbelief, and help us believe that if we pray to you, you hear us, and that that is all that matters—you hear us. In the name of Jesus, the very one that taught us how to pray and how to love, Amen.”

A SENATORIAL STATEMENT
Submitted by Senator Clark Jenkins

Commemorating Edenton’s 300th Anniversary

WHEREAS, an Act of Assembly adopted in 1712 called for the surveying of what is now Edenton, on which, to this day, are homes, the 1767 Chowan County Courthouse (a National Historic Landmark), and the Oldest House in North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, Charles Eden was appointed by the Crown to be the first Governor of North Carolina on May 18, 1713, and upon arrival established the first Capitol of North Carolina government at the Town on Queen Anne’s Creek (renamed Edenton following Eden’s death in 1722); and

WHEREAS, on October 25, 1774, Edenton resident Penelope Barker orchestrated a petition, signed by 51 women of the Edenton area, sending it to King George saying, “NO to the imposition of duties on cloth and tea.” The action of the Ladies of Edenton was later called a tea party, but in actuality it was the first women’s political activity in colonial American history - in fact, the first in western history; and

WHEREAS, James Iredell, a lawyer from Edenton wrote “Principles of an American Whig” and “To The Inhabitants of Great Britain” to help English citizenry understand the motives of the independence seekers. President George Washington nominated Iredell, only 38 years old, to serve on the first United States Supreme Court; he was confirmed by the United States Senate the following day; and he contributed to defining the freedoms we enjoy today as his writings are quoted in contemporary Supreme Court decisions; and

WHEREAS, Edentonian Joseph Hewes signed the Declaration of Independence and contributed essential ideas to winning the battle for independence by his leadership of the colonial committee that created the nation’s first Navy and then served as its first de facto Secretary; and

WHEREAS, Hugh Williamson, another Edenton resident, was selected to attend the constitutional convention in Philadelphia, where he became a pivotal vote in adoption of the Connecticut Plan establishing a bicameral legislature. Williamson signed the proposed United States Constitution and contributed thoughtful writings that influenced the Federalist Papers and fought for the North Carolina adoption of the proposed Constitution, including a Bill of Rights; and

WHEREAS, Samuel Johnston, also of Edenton and a Governor of North Carolina, presided over both State conventions called to ratify the United States Constitution, during which the first convention of forward-looking North Carolinians rejected the proposal because it lacked the protective amendments that later became the Bill of Rights. Johnston was elected United States President under the Articles of Confederation but refused to assume the position due to poor health. Following adoption of the Constitution and creation of the United States Senate, Johnston served as one of the State’s first United States Senators; and

WHEREAS, the contributions of the people of Edenton to the nation continued as the War Between the States broke out and Edentonians created their own defensive capacity by melting their church and courthouse bells to forge the Edenton Bell Battery, which saw service in the war; and

WHEREAS, Edenton’s long history as a colonial port and its more modern role as protector of the 1886 Roanoke River Lighthouse contribute to the history of the Albemarle Sound and waterways of North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, Edenton was the home of many black artisans who contributed to its cultural development, including the Badham family of African-American architects, builders, and carpenters: Miles Badham I, his son Hannibal Badham, Sr., and Hannibal’s sons Hannibal Badham, Jr., and Miles Badham II, whose designs and constructions stand to this day; and

WHEREAS, much of Edenton was declared a National Historic District in 1973 recognizing the many historically significant homes and public buildings that stand as authentic examples of over 250 years of architectural progress in America: the 1736 St. Paul’s Episcopal Church; the 1758 Cupola House, a National Historic Landmark with national significance, and the 1782 Barker House, long recognized on the National Register of Historic Places; and

WHEREAS, in 1918 the people of Edenton, fearful that a significant part of our State’s heritage was endangered, created an organization which became the “Cupola House Association” to defend against the irrevocable loss of this historically important dwelling, the first such act of preservation by private citizens of North Carolina and one of the first in the nation; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of North Carolina created the Edenton Historical Commission in 1961 as evidence of the unique role Edenton and Chowan County played in the preservation and perpetuation of the history of the colony and the State; and

WHEREAS, Edenton, on the eve of its 300th Anniversary, was defined by Forbes.com as one of America’s prettiest towns, thereby awarding Edenton the honor of being the only 300-year-old town in the United States to hold such a distinction;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Town of Edenton should be recognized for its contributions to this State and the nation during its 300-year history.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned certifies that the foregoing statement was read in the Senate and placed upon the Journal on the ninth day of April, 2013.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE

A standing committee report is submitted as follows:

By Senator Soucek for the Education/Higher Education Committee:

S.R. 196, A SENATE RESOLUTION HONORING THE MEMORY OF RUTH BELL GRAHAM AND NAMING BILLY GRAHAM NORTH CAROLINA’S FAVORITE SON, with an unfavorable report as to resolution, but favorable as to Committee Substitute resolution.

April 10, 2013
Pursuant to Rule 45.1, the proposed Committee Substitute resolution, 85207, is adopted and engrossed.

Upon motion of Senator Brunstetter, Vice Chairman of the Rules and Operations of the Senate Committee, without objection, the rules are suspended and the Committee Substitute resolution is placed on today’s calendar for immediate consideration, and the resolution is read in its entirety.

CALENDAR

Bills and a resolution on today’s calendar are taken up and disposed of as follows:

S.R. 196 (Committee Substitute), A SENATE RESOLUTION HONORING THE MEMORY OF RUTH BELL GRAHAM AND NAMING BILLY GRAHAM NORTH CAROLINA’S FAVORITE SON, for adoption.

Upon motion of Senator Soucek, the words spoken about S.R. 196 are spread upon the journal as follows:

SENATOR SOUCEK: ‘First, I would like to thank Franklin and his family for sharing your father with us, with this state, with this country, and with the world for so many years. When you listen to the accolades you just heard—two pages worth—I don’t know if anyone in the country or world could claim greater pride, but as I was speaking with Billy Graham’s staff, something that was amazing about him is how long the people that have worked with him have worked with him. That says something about someone’s character. Something stuck out in the long conversations when he said, ‘Billy Graham says he sees himself as “just a messenger.”’ I think that type of humility is rare in this world. ‘Humility’ is understanding your place and your role and not rising above that. The scripture that came to mind as I was contemplating this statement was Micah 6:8. It says, ‘He has shown you, O man, what is good and what does the Lord require of you: to act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God.’ I found a couple quotes from Billy Graham which I think typify this type of attitude in this statement. One thing he said was, ‘The Christian life is not a constant high. I have my moments of deep discouragement. I have to go to God in prayer with tears in my eyes and say “O God, forgive me” or “Help me.”’

Another statement he says, which I think is a great perspective, is ‘I’m going to heaven just like the thief on the cross who said in that last moment, “Lord, remember me.”’ I don’t know if there is a greater way to honor someone than to honor that which he values most. One statement that typifies this is, Billy Graham said, ‘My one purpose in life is to help people find a personal relationship with God which I believe comes from knowing Christ.’ In honor of Billy and his wife Ruth and the entire Graham family, I’d like to conclude this statement with a verse that he has shared to literally billions of people around the world: John 3:16, ‘For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son that whosoever believeth in him shall not perish but have everlasting life.’ I urge your support in this resolution.”

April 10, 2013
SENATOR NESBITT: “Mr. President and Members of the Senate, it has been my distinct honor and pleasure to represent the Graham family in the House and the Senate for over thirty years. I think the word that I heard from Senator Soucek that all of us in our mountains up there would echo would be ‘humility.’ He’s very much been a part of our community, investing in our hospital, doing charitable work throughout the community, but most of all, being a humble soul and just being there. You can feel his presence throughout our community. Out in the Montreat area, the Black Mountain area, there seems to be a reflection of him in some way. I’ll leave you with one thing that tells you how proud we are of him. In 2012 he was listed on the ‘Ten Most Admired Men’ in the world [list] for the fifty-sixth time, in his mid-nineties. That tells you all you need to know. I urge you to support the resolution.”

Upon motion of Senator Soucek, the Senate Resolution is adopted (48-0).

LT. GOVERNOR: “Upon the motion of Senator Dan Soucek of Watauga County, the Chair is happy to extend Courtesies of the Gallery to the family of the Reverend Billy Graham: Ann Graham Lotz, daughter; Danny Lotz, son-in-law; Rachel Ruth Lotz, granddaughter; and Morrow Reitmeier, granddaughter. Please stand and be recognized, thank you for joining us today.”

Prayer is offered by Dr. Michael T. Whitson, Senior Pastor of First Baptist Church Indian Trail in Indian Trail, North Carolina, as follows:

“Father, as we gather here this evening, many in our nation are reeling from a senseless attack. We ask that you comfort the bereaved and heal the wounded of their wounds both physical and emotional. For those who initiated this mindless horror, we pray that justice will reign. Please take this tragic event and use it to cause us to become more dependent on you than ever before. When others are illogical or unreasonable and self-centered, help us to love them anyway. When we do good and others question our motives, empower us to do good anyway. In the midst of our success and false friends arise as a result and our true enemies are exposed, may we succeed anyway. When our good may be forgotten tomorrow, may we do good anyway. When our honesty and frankness make us vulnerable, strengthen us to be honest and frank anyway. When the biggest men and women with their biggest ideas are shot down by the smallest of minds, may we think big anyway. When what we have spent many years building crumbles overnight, may we build anyway. When those we help respond with attack, may we help people anyway. When we are kicked in the teeth for giving the world our best, give us the determination to give the world the best we have anyway. For in so doing we become like you and how you treat us. In Jesus’ name, Amen.”

“Father God, we give you praise today for life and the ability to follow the dreams of our hearts. Today, we remember and reflect on the families and individuals who were victimized by this cowardly act of terror. My prayer today, Father, is that you would bring peace and healing to these families, but may you also expose these violators of such evil. May it propel each citizen to engage with a fresh devotion, and may it remind us that our freedom isn’t a derivative from the federal government but rather from you, our Creator. May we never forget that life on this earth is but a fleeting moment and only what is accomplished for you will have eternal value. I pray that your will be done today. In the name of Jesus, Amen.”

Monday, April 29, 2013

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the daughter of Senator Hartsell, Captain Whitney H. Morton from The Salvation Army, Pamlico & Craven Counties, NC-Corps, as follows:

“God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, guide us even now. You bring hope to the hopeless. Lord, may the laws of this great state provide such a hope. You are peace to the restless. Lord, may our state enjoy so great a peace. Guide the votes that are yet to come here in this room. Lord, you are the light in the darkness. May the debates held here in this chamber be filled with such a guiding light. You alone know the hearts of men. Search us even now, and uproot any selfish ambition or motivation of personal gain. Fill us with a spirit of serving that by the words of our mouths and the power of our pens, greater times would be realized sooner than later. Guide our thoughts to protecting the defenseless, to providing for the resource-less, and to prospering this state and her citizens. O Lord, that we might live up to our motto and be rather than seem. May your blessings rain down upon us now and upon all who call North Carolina home. In your great name we ask these things. Amen.”

May 1, 2013
The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Gracious and loving God, we do come before you, and we thank you for a great state. We live in a great state. On this national day of prayer, we are moved to see not only that reality here, but we remember that you are a mighty fortress. As a nation and as individuals we have called upon your name, and you have placed a roof over our heads. We have been attacked time and time again, but even inside of our hearts, we all know that it is a wonderful thing to have a place where we are safe, where we can be still and have confidence in your gentle reminders of protection. Interpose upon us here gathered not only your blood, but your divine providence. Cover us under your word. May our thirsts, our cares, and our desires—which are as old as the trees, from centuries down—wind along the back roads of North Carolina to the fountain of your grace. May the prayers of our grandmothers and grandfathers down to the tenth generation be lifted up to you, Lord Jesus. May they be lifted on high, and may the thoughts of our minds and meditations of our hearts be cleansed with hyssop. We commit ourselves, again, on this day, as did George Washington commit himself and our country to pray in 1775—to fast and to cease from recreation. Lord, we do this to honor you. Lord, we thank you for our religious freedom. Lord, we thank you for bringing us together again today in this Senate. In the name of Jesus we pray. Amen.”

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Apodaca and Senator Jenkins.

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Wednesday, May 1, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

May 6, 2013
WITHDRAWAL FROM COMMITTEE

Pursuant to Rule 47(a), Senator Apodaca offers a motion that the Joint Resolution be withdrawn from the Rules and Operations of the Senate Committee, placed on the calendar for immediate consideration, and read in its entirety, which motion prevails with unanimous consent, and the Chair so orders.

CALENDAR

Bills and a resolution on tonight’s calendar are taken up and disposed of as follows:

Upon motion of Senator Brock, the words spoken about Senator Ed Jones are spread upon the Journal as follows:

SENATOR BRYANT: “Thank you, Mr. President and Members of the Senate and the family of the late Senator Ed Jones and the local government officials and friends who are here to honor his memory. I am so humbled and sad as well to be here in his place to represent the citizens of Senate District 4. He surely had shoes that will never be filled by anyone. I used to tease him that I was in his Wikipedia entry because I found that out one day when I was at a banquet and I needed to introduce him. I had left my bio somewhere that I was, so I went online in the iPad to Wikipedia and discovered that I was in there because our paths crossed in that I was on the first executive committee that was to pick the replacement for Representative John Hall, which is how I met Ed Jones who was the Mayor of Enfield. At that time, I was on the City Council of Rocky Mount, and he was seeking to replace John Hall in a competitive local race for that appointment from the Democratic Party by other leaders in the community. He surely stood out head and shoulders; I remember when he came over to Rocky Mount to visit and talk about his vision for going to the General Assembly and taking this position. He was then a very impressive man, with a background at that point of having been in law enforcement and then in local government in terms of the police chief and the mayor of a small town. You can’t beat that kind of commitment to our community. Who would have known at that point that, as he moved to the Senate years later, I would then replace him in the House and now in the Senate? So I feel like our lives and paths have been very intertwined. You heard from the resolution how amazing his life and career has been, and to be young as he was to have accomplished so much in terms of law enforcement, local government, public service, his love and commitment to his family, and to his church. If I can think about what was important to Senator Jones, I think you would all agree he had a strong commitment to education. We were in many meetings together about education, particularly in Halifax County. He was committed to eliminating poverty, and he was very proud to head up a joint study committee on poverty elimination and economic recovery, and we had some public hearings around the state and learned so much about what the keys were to poverty elimination. He really took hold of that whole idea of justice reinvestment. You all may remember that. As Chair of the Justice and Public Safety Appropriations Committee, he was really committed to that. He went to meetings around the country on that justice reinvestment issue and, finally, came around to supporting raising the juvenile justice age, which, initially, as a strong law enforcement man, was not his inclination, but he really was concerned about and committed to the best for our youth. He became convinced that ending the school to prison pipeline in whatever way we could with strong services and detention if we needed it for youth who were violating the laws and rules, but also looking at how to keep them out of that adult criminal justice system. That was important to him. So I just want to stand again in honor of him to call to your memory, and to our respect and consideration, the life and service that he gave us. I also know that he was very close to many of you and often told me great stories of things you all did together and the ways he built relationships with you. I’m sure many of you will speak to that. Mr. President, at the appropriate time, I hope you will also recognize his family, who is in the gallery, along with some of our local elected officials and many friends and loved ones of his. Thank you.”

SENATOR D. DAVIS: “Members of the Senate, I stand in support of this Joint Resolution today, recognizing and honoring the life of Senator Ed Jones who was also a friend to many of us and especially to me. We have many acquaintances in life and fewer friends, but Ed truly was a friend and a dear friend to us all. We actually knew each other way before either one of us came to the Senate; we served as mayors. He was in Enfield and [I was in] Snow Hill and [we] often traded notes, but one thing I knew in the midst of it all is he truly, truly loved serving people, and he truly loved Enfield and his district. Senator Jones, as Senator Bryant alluded to, was later appointed into the House and eventually into the Senate, and I can tell you it can be a tough time as we make these type transitions, but I was honored to actually chair the executive committee that actually appointed Ed in both cases. In both cases, that executive committee knew they had just the right person. While briefly serving a term together in the Senate, he was a friend that many of us have. We would go down to the snack shop before session or right after session, and we would talk about what was going on, and he often conveyed to me, especially those who served with him, his deep appreciation to be a part of this institution and serve with such distinguished colleagues. He said that in the private conversations. We also talked about bills, and as we spoke about our bills, Ed had a litmus test. His litmus test was this simple: How would the bill impact poor people? That’s what he often said to me, ‘What’s the impact on poor people?’ Actually, what he said was, ‘poor folk,’ and we would converse. We know the many contributions he served here in this chamber and provided as he was a very well respected and regarded voice, especially when it came to crime control and public safety. We could trust his voice. He lived by his legacy and his motto, which he would often say, ‘It’s not about the titles we possess, it’s about the job we do.’ Those who serve know that Senator Jones was first class, and he topped it off with that signature bow tie. Senator Jones is deeply missed, I miss him, truly, but his influence is still with us today. I’d like to thank Mary Anne, who is up in the gallery. Thank you, Mary Anne, for sharing Ed with us. As we talked about, he was a very adventurous person. Thank you for allowing him to venture into the General Assembly. To his daughters, Alesha, to Donzell, to Andrea and Lanier, and to those grandchildren, we know he loved you dearly and spoke about you often. Irma, Senator Jones remained grateful to you and appreciated all that you did for the residents of the district and most importantly, your loyalty. I would like to say personally to Senator Apodaca and President [Pro Tempore] Berger, thank you for all the help you lent in that transition with the office. It’s forever appreciated. Lastly, I will share a story. I was visiting with Ed—and this is just to attest to his character and the person that he was—I was visiting and we prayed together once in the hospital and afterwards he looked up to me and he said, ‘I’m fortunate’—he kinda smiled and he was very jovial, he would keep you laughing, but he looked up at me and he smiled and said ‘I’m so fortunate, I’m so blessed,’ and I said, ‘Ed, what do you mean?’ He said, ‘In the midst of my situation, I’ve been afforded an opportunity,’ he said, ‘so many people wake up every day assuming they’re going to come home, and they don’t come home. They don’t get that chance. There are car accidents, all kinds of things that take people away from their families.’ It was kinda of interesting because driving up today, I saw five accidents and two detours off of 64. How interesting. But he said, ‘I’ve been given an opportunity to get it right and to make preparations.’ Get it right and to make preparations. I say to everyone here, let’s hold on to this legacy. Let’s work every day to get it right. Let’s not take any day for granted, any breath for granted, let’s count our blessings. One of the greatest blessings that I can ever count is having known my friend Ed Jones.”

SENATOR BROWN: “I don’t know if I can add a whole lot more than Senator Bryant and Senator Davis have added, but I just thought I’d speak briefly on what I think about Ed the most. Ed was kind of a soft spoken guy. He never seemed to get real excited either way and about very much. He was pretty much a pretty even-keeled guy is the way I can remember him most. One thing I will say is I don’t think there was anybody in this chamber that didn’t respect Ed Jones. He had the utmost respect from all of us just because of the way he carried himself each and every day. Ed never got up and spoke very much on the floor, but one thing I always remembered most about Ed is when he got up to speak, everybody listened, because he always had a message when he spoke. I think that was because of that true respect that we all had for Ed Jones. I had the opportunity to go to his office several times to talk about issues important to eastern North Carolina and to his district, and he was always gracious. He loved his district, and he loved his family. We talked about that several times in his office as well. Ed was just—he became a pretty good friend of mine, and I’m going to miss Ed Jones. He was just a special guy.”

SENATOR McKISSICK: “Well, as my colleagues have indicated, Ed really was that very special member—somebody whose friendship I personally cherish and someone who I enjoyed many days and occasions with. Whether speaking to him about the political issues of the day or sitting back and just enjoying humor at that snack bar or wherever we found ourselves, he was a person of great compassion, somebody who understood the needs of everyday people, somebody who, as a former police chief, a former state trooper, former mayor, understood the needs of small towns, understood the needs of individuals. When there were floods that impacted his district, he was the first to come forward and ask us to pull together the resources to help those people that were hurt. When there were tornados that impacted his district, he was among the first who went out there helping those people in need and coming back here to rally for resources to help those who had been impacted in a way that was profound in affecting their lives. He was certainly someone who understood that when it came to poverty that whatever we could do as a state to uplift those individuals was something that we should accept as a charge and as a mission and serve with him on that poverty commission that he established years ago. I will greatly miss Ed for all that he did and for all that he contributed. Nobody was probably more knowledgeable of the issues about law enforcement when they came before us. We all listened to Ed’s perspective. He served with dignity, he served with honor, he served with class, and he served with integrity. We will all miss Ed for his tremendous and significant contributions, but we thank his family for allowing them the opportunity to let him serve time here in this chamber with us because it was certainly a major sacrifice, and he never realized that he was cheating himself of that time. I know on his final day, I spent a number of occasions visiting with him over at Chapel Hill, in the hospital, and even in those final hours he wanted to continue serving. There was never a time when he did not know what we were discussing here. There was never a time that he was not aware, and while the time was running out, he still shared that concern and that commitment about the direction that we were taking. I know one day when I was there, I was talking to his wife and she said, ‘Well, it looks like he’s going to be going home. We’re going back home to really rest.’ I thought at the time perhaps that was a good sign that perhaps things had taken a turn for the better, but I realized in speaking with her that day that what it really meant was that there was nothing further that anyone could do, and it was time for him to go back home and to be with his family in his final hours. We thank Ed for giving so much of his life and so much of his time to his state and to his community, and we thank his family for allowing us the privilege and honor of having served with him.”

May 6, 2013
SENATOR BERGER: “I don’t think I can add anything to what’s already been said other than Ed Jones is probably one of the finest men that I’ve ever met and I think to a person, everyone in this chamber would agree with that. His legacy, I think, is the memory that we all have of him and how he carried himself as was referred to, but it’s just a pleasure to have known him, and it’s a pleasure to know that people like that serve in this body, so I commend the resolution to you.”

The Joint Resolution passes its second reading (47-0) and, without objection, is read a third time and passes its third reading and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

Help us to be grateful for your peace that you offer that makes us lay down even though death crouches in the corner. Thank you, Lord, for this day where we come and these lawmakers are agents of your peace. I think of how the laws they pass can be agents of peace, and we pray for them. We thank you for police officers, for fire fighters that are agents of peace that go out to rescue. We thank you, Lord, for the servants and their families around this state. We thank you for their protection, and we thank you for your protection over us and how you keep us at peace. Bless us today as a state, as a city, in communities, and in families, with your peace. In Christ’s name we pray, Amen.”

Prayer is offered by Pastor Noah Crowe from First Baptist Church of Robbinsville in Robbinsville, North Carolina, as follows:

“Most Gracious Heavenly Father, Creator God, based upon your command that petitions, prayers, intercession, and thanksgiving be made for all people, especially those in authority, I lift up this session of our North Carolina State Senate. Father, based on your great love for us, shown through your Son, Jesus Christ, I ask that you would grant these senators the wisdom needed and necessary to carry out the task to which these, my fellow North Carolinians, have been duly elected and constitutionally appointed. Father, grant them the willingness to seek and accept wise counsel. Give them discretion, foresight, and understanding in making decisions on behalf of our great state. Father, hear and answer the prayers of their heart. Grant, I ask, favor to their leadership and above all, help them to lead us by example. Father, bless them with strength, endurance, and stamina to do thy will. Enable them to carry out their duties with humility toward you and toward others. Grant them, Father, courage to do the right thing. Guard them and keep them from the power and persuasion of the evil one. Father, while these, our senators, are here in Raleigh about the business of governing, protect and provide for their families back at their respective homes. Father, I thank you that you have seen fit to allow these men and women the authority under which they operate. Now, give them, I pray, your compassion and concern for their fellow citizens. Grant them, I ask, grace and mercy for their past, their present, and their futures. I commend them to your great grace, and I commit them into your hands. Guide, guard, and go before us all. The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, as we gather ourselves and pause, we give thanks for a completed and full week of legislation. We come to you specifically today on behalf of these blessed brothers and sisters to my left and right. I come to you, Lord, because you are the fountain of every blessing, because in you there is no variation or shadow; there is no change. Your love for us, your people, is relentless and it is unchanging. You chose us before we could even respond to your gift. Lord, your love intends to help re-wire our entire life, our entire culture. We try to bring ourselves before you as if we had everything together. We try to come before you ‘fit’ and ‘in shape,’ but you remind us with Jesus that all the fitness you require is to feel our need for thee. In Jesus’ unending name I pray. Amen.”

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Barringer and Senator Robinson.

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Wednesday, May 8, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

SIXTIETH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, May 13, 2013

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Dear gracious and all loving God, O Lord, every week we return to this place, and you are waiting like a father to embrace us and turn our hearts back to the service of our fellow citizens. It is a tremendous blessing that we have to serve our state in this refined capacity. Let us begin this week as you tell us to in the words of Psalm 40, ‘I waited patiently for the Lord; he inclined to hear me—to hear my cry. He drew me out from the pit of destruction, out of my miry bog, set my feet upon a rock, making my steps secure. Blessed is the man who makes the Lord his trust, who does not turn to the proud, to those who go astray after a lie.’ So we do come to you tentatively tonight—frail tonight—and we ask you to place us upon that rock that is higher than I. Build this house, Lord, we plead, by putting a new hymn of praise in our mouths. Praise you, God, for what you have done here and what you are doing here. You have multiplied, O Lord, my God, you have multiplied your deeds and they are wondrous. Your thoughts towards us—none can compare with you. It is in Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.”

May 13, 2013

We thank you for the privilege of living in a free country where we have the right to assemble and represent the will of our people and invoke the laws of this great land. We pray now for your divine direction, wisdom, and guidance in all the issues that will come before this body of legislators today. We ask, too, for your special blessings upon our military: Active Duty, Reserves, and Veterans alike. We know that many of them have fought, bled, and died for the right that we have to be here today. ‘Yes, all gave some, but some gave all,’* and ‘freedom isn’t free,’* but has come to us at hardships and sacrifices made by our military members and their families. May we never take it for granted. And, now, O

Lord, as we convene this Legislative Assembly, ‘Grant us wisdom, grant us courage, for the facing of this hour.’+ May we continue to be strong in our commitment. Temper our pride with humility. Provide us with the dedication, driven by determination, to be the best, to ‘stand in the gap,’ and to be all that you would have us to be, to protect, preserve, and defend those freedoms that you have intended for all people. May we persevere until that day when ‘we shall beat our spears into pruning hooks, our swords into plowshares, and study war no more.’ For we ask it all, O Lord, in your name. Amen.”

“Dear God, I thank you for the United States of America and this great state of North Carolina. I realize that while there are a lot of things wrong in this great country, there is also more things that are right. May our elected leaders work together to strive to do what is best for all citizens. While this great task may seem impossible, with divine help all things are possible. I believe that even with the problems we have in this country, the United States of America is still the best place in the world in which to live, and many of us would agree that North Carolina is the best state. For our state and country to be a better place to live, not only must our leaders work together, but the citizens must work with our leaders. We must build up, caring for others and trying to do our best at home and at work in order for North Carolina and our country to be all it can be. Lord, help us in that area. Lord, be with those in this Senate Chamber. They must make hard decisions during this session, and as they reason together, may they make them with integrity and the assurance that they have made the best decision they could considering the problems at hand. Even though everyone will not agree with the laws they make, may they have peace of mind they did the best that they could. In the day in which we live, we all must make sacrifices to keep America strong. May we as citizens be willing to do our part. God bless America. In Christ’s name we pray. Amen.”

REPORT OF COMMITTEE

S.B. 402, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO MAKE BASE BUDGET APPROPRIATIONS FOR CURRENT OPERATIONS OF STATE DEPARTMENTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND AGENCIES, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES, with an unfavorable report as to bill, but favorable as to Committee Substitute bill as amended.

Upon recommendation of Senator Brunstetter, the Committee Substitute bill, with attached Amendments Nos. 1-5, is re-referred to the Finance Committee.

The Senate meets pursuant to recess and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Ashcraft from Port City Community Church in Wilmington, North Carolina, as follows:

“Father God, I thank you for the opportunity to come before you. Right now there are those gathered whose futures are very uncertain through the destruction that happened in Oklahoma, and we ask your presence be with them. Father, I am so grateful and humbled by the opportunity to come before you on behalf of the men and women gathered in this room. I come to you, not only on behalf of their great work, but on behalf of the men and women themselves. For you know every part of every person. You know the hidden insecurities and secret struggles that are common to us all. In those, Father, may we find your peace and your grace sufficient to provide the foundation that is sure enough to bear the weight of the burden that is so deeply felt. Father, I pray that you would help us to balance the tension of the call to such prominent positions that we hold. The trusted responsibility to serve humbly and the temptation to seize power both pull with great force, one from within and the other from without. So, Father, we ask your help to guard our hearts. As the situations and issues of our day overwhelm and push us to the end of our wisdom and our strength, there may we find yours. It is my joy to stand here with full assurance and hope in you. I pray these things in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.”

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Pastor Ray Warren from White Plains Methodist Church in Cary, North Carolina, as follows:

“God, you created all people from every race, tribe, tongue, and ethnic community. God, you call us to live in community marked by love, peace, justice, respect, mercy, and mutual support. God, let it be so in me. God forgive us, for we draw lines between us and therefore you. We raise barriers. We draw lines. We create parties. We treat one another with prejudice and judgmental pride. Have mercy on us. Help us rise to a greater good. God, let it be so in me. God, in every generation you raise up prophets who speak your desires for your people everywhere to live together in mercy, graciousness, and love. You call on the educated, the uneducated, the wealthy, the less resourced, the single dad, and divorced mom to do all we can to care for one another—support one another as is your will. God, let it be so in me. Today, may you lead this body gathered to live into the high calling you model for us, for all people. May this body, too, be above egos, judgment, and self-interest so they may hear your voice, heed your call, be quick to forgive, eager to listen, and desire to govern as you desire for all. God, let it be so in me! Amen and Amen.”

“Lord, as we gather today, we want to respond to you by saying, thank you. Thank you. We thank you for the opportunity to bring our voices forward, for the opportunity to represent the people of this great state, for the positions that you have given each man and woman in this chamber to have great authority. We pray that they use that authority as a blessing and with meekness and with gentleness and with poverty of spirit. Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God. I know, Lord, that it gets hard. But, Lord, sometimes that heat drives us to our knees, and it is in that place where you most like to meet us. So season each senator today as you season with salt. Shine your light upon them that they might be the ‘light of the world,’ which you have called each of them to be in their own unique ways. It is in the name of Jesus that I make these prayers. June 4, 2013
SEVENTY-FOURTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, June 5, 2013

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, you are a fortress—not just for one, but for a people. Our thoughts are often singular, but you are a God that has revealed himself in community. Lord, you are the only thing that can buffer us. So we, before you, bow here today re-affirm our dependence upon you, as expressed best by the authors of this state’s constitution written back in 1789. It was these writers that suggested that ‘we are a people,’ that must be thankful to ‘Almighty God.’ It was these writers that said that we must acknowledge our dependence upon Thee for the continuance of these blessings. Let us put our hope in you, the mighty fortress that is our God, as we continue to be your people of this great state. It is in Christ’s name we pray. Amen.”

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Allran, Senator Rucho, and Senator Woodard.

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Tuesday, June 4, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“This is Psalm 46, ‘God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with swelling. There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High. God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her… The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: He uttered His voice, the earth melted. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.’* Thank you, Lord, for being our refuge here. It is in Christ’s name we pray. Amen.”

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Almighty God, thank you for this place to come in a week of unrest. Amidst the arguments about right and wrong, sometimes it’s easiest to abandon our calling. I know, Lord, that I am tempted to run away like Jonah. In fact, this is one of the greatest differences between me and you, Lord. We run away, but you run to embrace us with love and to bless us. Lord, there is a great work to be done here. Democracy is worth the nastiness, and truth is worth the suffering. Alleviate our fears, turn our attention to you, the God that allows us to make mistakes and never gives up on us. I make this prayer in the name of Christ. Amen.”

The Chair grants a leave of absence for tonight to Senator Woodard.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, “He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.” Surely he will save you. He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge. His faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.”* Once again we ask, Lord, for you to cover us. Lord, we especially pray for the family of former Governor Holshouser, who served this great state with dignity and truth. Give us pause, and redirect us, and redirect our paths because we still have time. Stir these current leaders to serve as previous great leaders have—men and women who have served their people. It’s in Christ’s name we pray. Amen.”

CALENDAR

Bills and a resolution on today’s calendar are taken up and disposed of as follows:

Upon motion of Senator Apodaca, the Joint Resolution is read in its entirety.

Upon motion of Senator Randleman, the words spoken on the Joint Resolution are spread upon the Journal as follows:

SENATOR RANDLEMAN: “Mr. President, senators, and special guests, each of us is the author of our life’s book, and at the end of each day we decide the content on each page. Senator East also wrote his life’s book, which began when a baby boy was born to Ralph and Viola East. There would have been a chapter, probably a lengthy chapter, describing the occasion when Senator East met and later married the love of his life, Connie. No doubt there would have been many entries about his beloved little girl, Gina, conversations and events with his son-in-law, Mickey, and how proud he was of his grandsons, Matthew and Jacob. Senator Don East was a proud public servant serving with the Winston-Salem Police Department, the Surry County Board of Commissioners, and the North Carolina General Assembly. He was devoted to his constituents, his community, and to the State of North Carolina. It has been my honor to bring this resolution forward. I commend it to you and ask for your support. Mr. President, I move that the words of the resolution be spread upon the pages of the Journal.”

SENATOR BROWN: “I think all of us that served with Don really saw Don as a unique individual whose personality was just unique in so many ways. When you really got to know Don, you had to love him because he was just maybe a little rough on the outside at times, but inside he was probably the most tenderhearted guy I think we all had ever met. He didn’t say much on the floor, but he was one of those guys that when he stood up to speak on the floor you normally had to pay attention because he was very, very passionate about that thing that he was going to talk about. There are several events we can think about. A couple that just jump out at me was the Barber bill, where he was trying to help his local barber in his local community, and that bill kind-of worked its way through the Senate and went over to the House. It got amended over in the House, and it came back here, and somehow that bill got changed, and his little piece about the barber got taken out. He told Senator Basnight exactly how he felt about that. That was one of those shining moments that I’ll never forget. It was just kind-of Don. Of course, Senator Bingham is tied to Don with his Charger that he bought from me, and I’ll let Senator Bingham maybe talk about that a little more. At the end, Don became my roommate, and that’s where I really got to know Don East. Don talked to me a whole lot about certain things, and one of the things he talked to me about was how he helped individuals back in his district. One of them was a young lady who had a problem with her eye, and she was from a poor family, and that family just never had the money to help that young lady. Don convinced the family to have her have some surgery on that eye, and Don paid for it right out of his pocket. I think it was about a $10,000 surgery. I’m one of the few he probably ever told that to because that’s just the kind of guy he was. He really talked to me about his family. He truly, truly loved his family. Every night when we’d be sitting after session, we’d always spend time talking about his grandkids and his daughter, just how much he enjoyed being around them. They were really, really special to him, I think, later in his life. I think the real key thing for Don is, he had a couple of loves, and one of them is he wanted to travel. He bought a motor home, I guess a couple of years ago, and he finally got a chance to travel in that motor home, and he did a lot of it. He covered most of the United States in that motor home. I think Nashville might have been his best stop because he talked about going to Nashville and spending days going in and out of the bars listening to different people play in those bars and how much he enjoyed that. His other passion was old cars. He had a couple of old ‘40 Fords that he was trying to restore, and he talked to me about that, how he spent most of his weekends working on those old vehicles. That’s just kind-of those passions he had. But Don, he became a very good friend of mine. I’m going to surely miss him.”

SENATOR TILLMAN: “Senator East sat right here where you sit now. This incident about the hair braiding deal—he was going to have his local barber to go over to the rest homes and cut their hair without getting all this certification mess, and that got took out. That day we were sitting back there on the back row. It was a lot of fun back then, we could do about anything. But, Harry, he was sitting beside me, he was shaking like this while this debate was going on with Senator Garrou and others, and I said, ‘Are you going to say anything?’ He said, ‘You wait just a damn minute!’ Well, his blood pressure had to be 200. When he did speak, I won’t even say what he said, but he told them to take that bill and to you know what with it where the sun don’t shine. That made national news. I’ve never seen as fast a time out as Marc Basnight and Tony and them huddled around Garrou, and that bill got fixed in two or three minutes right on the floor. Now that was action. I accused Don, and some of y’all have known Don longer than me, but I doubt if you’ve known him any better than me. I went in that motor home two or three times with him. We went to the Outer Banks for a week. His grandsons, I know, I see one or two of them up there, right in front of Zeb Alley, who knew him well. He loved their picking and singing, and he had them down here one time to do a little, and he would talk about that a lot. Harry, you’re right. I called him a man with a sawmill personality and a Philadelphia lawyer’s mind. If you knew Don, he didn’t miss out, unless we were telling a joke or something. Stan, he didn’t miss out on anything. I’ll tell you about one incident that Senator Berger stole from me at the funeral. It’s a true story, but I think I own this one so I’m going to tell it. He kept bugging me to see Richard Petty. I said, all right, you’re going to get a ‘sit down’ with Richard Petty and his wife, too. We have a fish fry every year with the party, but I planned a different one over at this local restaurant that Richard eats most of the time on Thursday nights. So we got him over there, and we had 200-300 people there, and we saved this big table for Linda and Richard, Marian and myself, and Don and his friend at that time. We chit-chatted about cars and everything, and Don had bought this Charger that you all were riding down the road in at a high rate of speed. He had that parked right in the front door. Now there were 200 people trying to get in around that thing. Well, Richard comes in and sees that super bird there—it was like one of those Dodges he used to drive. He looked it over, and he came in, and we got him over there at the table, and we got our food and [Don] said, ‘Richard, come outside, I want to show you something.’ We went out there, and he said, ‘Look here, how do you like this light baby blue Dodge Charger?’ Harry, you sold it to him, didn’t you? Richard said, ‘Man, I like that.’ [Don] said, ‘How about, you got your grease pen?’ and Richard always has his grease pen. He said, ‘Oh, yeah.’ [Don] said, ‘How about signing right up over the door here.’ He did. Richard’s big black Dodge was sitting over here. [Don] said, ‘Let me see your grease pen.’ He walks over to Richard’s car and writes ‘Don East,’ true story. Richard didn’t know what to say. I said, ‘What are you going to do with that?’ He said, ‘I’m going to leave it, I’ve never had a fool put his name on my car!’ About a month later it was still on there. I don’t know if it’s on there today or not, but that is a true story. I’ve got many others that we can’t tell, but I do know that when Connie was sick and I would call and talk to Don, this was a very low point in his life, and it took him a long time to get over that. He loved his family, as we all say, and he loved Connie, and I talked to Don about every day, and we do miss him.”

SENATOR KINNAIRD: “As many of you who are here know, for a long time Don and I used to have vigorous debates about guns, but we were good friends. We enjoyed each other’s company, we liked the banter, and we respected each other, worked on bills together. He was a great friend. I remember how he suffered at the loss of his beloved wife. It was one of the very difficult parts of his life, but he had another difficult part that he didn’t share with anybody. When he told the story, it was such a shock—especially to me because we had talked about guns and debated about guns. He never revealed to anybody that his own father had been killed, had been murdered, by a gun. It was so moving, and I felt so strongly about it, but that was the type of person that Don was. He would not bring anything out of his private life that would change any of the dynamics and the relationships, and I miss Don very much.”

SENATOR BINGHAM: “Thank you, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. The last time I stood up I got in a lot of trouble talking about Don East. This time I’m a little wiser, but I did find out one valuable thing: I can’t be prosecuted for what I say whether it be the truth or not. So I’m going to try to continue to tell the truth. After the last time I spoke concerning Don—of course, Don and I go back a long ways. I didn’t realize it when I came down here, but there was a gentleman named Ralph Johnson, who I know the family knows well. He lived in the area I was from. Ralph and I—he was a little older than I, but we got in as much trouble as Don and I did but in a different era. Don was riding motorcycles with Ralph years ago and was in an accident, and Ralph was one of the first ones there to aid Don, and, of course, you noticed he walked with a limp. Don—when we got to know each other, we had a lot of similar interests. I had a ‘66 Ford pickup that I’d restored, drive in parades, and he also has one. He likes fast cars and motorcycles. I know after the last episode that I spoke of, I think Don was interviewed by the New York Times or somebody, I don’t know who, and I think he told them, he said, ‘That Bingham exaggerates. He said we were going 145 mph. If you only knew him, you would realize that he does exaggerate quite a bit. We wasn’t going one bit over 144.’ But, anyway, there’s a lot of other things I could talk about Don, but he was a dear friend, loved by everyone here and will forever be remembered. I certainly appreciate the family sharing him with us here. He was very special, and I’ll have many memories of Don East from things we did here and things that I’m not going to say anything else about, especially on this floor because Senator Hartsell told me that felonies are—they don’t go away, or whatever that terminology is, but anyway, thank you very much. We appreciated and loved Don East, and thank you for your family being here.”

June 18, 2013
SENATOR NESBITT: “Thank you, Mr. President, members of the Senate. When you listen to these speeches today, you pick up a common theme. Don East was a very good listener. If you’d just spend five minutes with him, he’d know what you cared about. I felt like, in our case, it’s fairly well known that I participate in crew-chiefing my son’s race car so I’m around cars all the time, and my granddaughter races. He latched right onto that, and I felt like I helped him build that ‘44 a fender at a time. Every time I’d see him I’d get an update on how we were coming and how well everything was going. It’s very seldom in here that you can remember a role model in a current time. Usually, we’re talking about great people from the past and how good they were, and if you knew Don East, he was a man of his word. Period. You didn’t have to ask him twice. I will not forget when we were in here arguing over some of our deregulation. We did a bill that was, in my opinion, the most important piece of deregulation that we did—making final decision-making of administrative law judges final. It gives everybody a fair hearing. It will force settlement of cases. Well, we put that bill together, and somehow it got muddled up in conference or somewhere, and half a bill came back, and Don East stood up over there and said, ‘Uh-uh, that wasn’t the deal we made, and we’re going to go back and put this all back together,’ and we did. For those of you who are new to the back row, we unanimously overrode a gubernatorial veto on that bill. Don East is the one that stood up and said, ‘No, we’re going to do what we said we were going to do.’ Just thought I’d bring that up. It’s something we can all learn from.”

SENATOR ALLRAN: “Whenever Don was around, you always knew it, and when he wasn’t around, you also knew he wasn’t around. That’s because he was straightforward and colorful and outspoken and even cantankerous. He never hedged on what his views were politically or otherwise, and I think we all knew that. One thing I wanted to follow up on was one more little story about how he would—the other aspect of Don, was the way he’d go out of his way to be helpful to people, and this is right before he died, which, of course, was a shock to all of us. In his travels, he had gotten to know the Outer Banks, and he was out on Manteo where he was hanging around with a lot of new friends, including—he became close to Marc Basnight, actually. But he was out there, and he ran into a gentlemen whose son was involved in a real estate transaction with me, and it had become a real sticky real estate transaction with a lot of glitches, and the father of the son was concerned that it wasn’t going to go through, and Don took the time to call me and talk to me about it. We worked it out, and the gentlemen got assured that the real estate transaction would work out, and, as a matter of fact, it did. The point being, he didn’t have to get involved in that private business, but he did do that type of thing. He would go to the trouble just to help people. That really impressed me. Don is a person that is very hard not to miss, and, of course, we do miss him.”

June 18, 2013
SENATOR BERGER: “Members of the Senate, you know we do a number of these resolutions, and over the years I’ve heard a number of them, and it’s always—especially if you knew the person that was being talked about—it brings back some memories, it puts a smile on your face, but it also reminds you in many respects about how fragile life is. In this instance, what we’re doing and who we’re talking about is somebody, and I think you get a feel for the fact that Don East was a real person. He was somebody that you wanted to have on your side because if he was on your side, you had somebody, no matter what, was going to look after you and was going to look after what was important. We’ve heard the stories, really, the night, I think it was in the evening, that his Barber bill got sideways, and he explained to the Senate and to the world what could happen to that bill was something that was just vintage Don East, it really was, because that was the person that we all knew because he was straightforward, he didn’t mince words, he didn’t try to shape things in any way. He was who he was, and who he was is someone that a lot of people cared a lot about. Gina, I know that you and your boys miss him. We all miss him, and the only thing I can say is we appreciate the time that we were allowed to spend with him because it was special to us. I urge your support for the resolution.”

SENATOR APODACA: “I’d just like to add a couple of quick comments before we vote. There’s been no one greater in this body and meant more to me than Don East. The days Don East and John Garwood and Ed Jones and all of those who have gone on before us had together were days we should never forget, and we should try to imitate and emulate those folks because they set an example. Don was a true advocate. If he got something that he wanted to get done, you knew it, and he would get it done.”

EIGHTY-SECOND DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, June 19, 2013

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Philip E. Berger, President Pro Tempore.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“God, you are a God of even Jacob. We come to you, and we have to admit that we are deceptive in our ways, each of us, and yet you want to give us a blessing. You say in scripture, ‘If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land.’* So we pray today, Lord, in this company of people assembled, and in this land, that it will begin, now, to meet the conditions that will enable you, Lord, to fulfill your promises. Teach us how to live life rightly, how to follow in the footsteps of Moses and the prophets. Change us to look more like a redeemed Jacob and a liberated Jacob who is now Israel. For Christ’s sake we pray. Amen.”

S.J.R. 15, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF JEAN ROUSE PRESTON, FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, with an unfavorable report as to Joint Resolution, but favorable as to Committee Substitute Joint Resolution.

Pursuant to Rule 45.1, the proposed Committee Substitute Joint Resolution, 75350, is adopted and engrossed.

Upon motion of Senator Apodaca, the Committee Substitute Joint Resolution is placed on today’s calendar for immediate consideration.

CALENDAR

Bills and a resolution on today’s calendar are taken up and disposed of as follows:

S.J.R. 15 (Committee Substitute), A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF JEAN ROUSE PRESTON, FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, upon second reading.

Upon motion of Senator Apodaca, the Committee Substitute Joint Resolution is read in its entirety.

Upon motion of Senator Brock, the words spoken on the Committee Substitute Joint Resolution are spread upon the Journal as follows:

SENATOR BROWN: “All of us who served with Jean, I think, had to say that she became a dear friend to all of us. One thing I’ll say about Jean Preston is the term ‘lady’ was definitely Jean Preston. She was as genuine as they come; you just couldn’t find a person any more genuine than Jean. When I think about Jean, and I remember when she decided to run for the House—it was a dual district back then, including part of Onslow County, so she came over to Onslow County to campaign for that seat—she was running against a couple of incumbents. Of the three running, she was definitely the underdog, and I remember somebody in Richlands telling Jean that they didn’t know why she was over there because she wouldn’t get a single vote out of Richlands. Well, naturally, she carried the precinct when the election came around, and Jean won one of those seats, and she served representing Onslow County for a while. Then through redistricting, Jean’s House District became Carteret and Jones Counties. Well, I grew up in Jones County, so I felt like it would be great to have Jean representing Jones County with me. What I didn’t realize is when it comes election time, Jean gets more votes than I do, and I grew up over there, so that will just tell you how tough Jean was. You couldn’t go to an event that Jean Preston wasn’t at. She was the hardest worker I’ve ever seen in my entire life, and that’s why her constituents just loved her, because she didn’t miss any event. You could not outwork that lady. She was just relentless, and when it came to constituent work, she was the absolute best. Of course, when she came over to the Senate, our districts were beside each other, and we spent many, many hours working together on coastal issues and then, as far as education, on career tech and, of course, her special needs were near to her heart, those issues as well, but she and I just became very good friends. There were very few weekends that we weren’t at the same event or talking on the phone about some legislation. We just spent a lot of time together. Jean talked about—I remember the last time she ran we kind of had to talk her into running. She was kind of ready to retire, and, of course, we talked her into running, and she got her 60 percent of the vote like she always did, and she served those two years, and then she was ready to retire and spend more time with Suzanne and the grandkids. In particular, Cameron was getting ready to go to UNC and play soccer, and Parker, he was in baseball, and she talked about wanting to spend a whole lot more time with them. It was tragic the way Jean left us because I just know she was really looking forward to her future spending time with her family. She was really just a great lady, and I do truly miss her, especially on some education and coastal issues that we worked so close together, and I know everybody in this body misses her too. I have a picture of her and myself in my office, and I look at that picture quite often and just think about how good a lady she really was.”

SENATOR TILLMAN: “Senator Preston—we’re honoring her today in this resolution, and I’m proud to speak briefly to it. I certainly treasure the time that I spent with Jean. I knew her when she was in the House. When there were education issues that I was working on when I was in the school system, I would talk to Jean. She was the voice of education over there in the House for six or seven terms, and then she was a trusted colleague here as we worked on education things, and I’ll always remember that. We’re honoring and saying goodbye to two of our great friends. We did Don East’s yesterday and Jean Preston, and their memories will remain with me a long time. I am honored to have Jean’s daughter, Suzanne, as my legislative assistant, a sweet, gentle person through and through, and sincere through and through, just like Jean. One of the great joys of Jean’s life was Suzanne, her daughter, and Cameron and Parker, her two grandchildren, who are also here somewhere today. Mr. President, with your indulgence, I would ask them—maybe we’ll do that later, we’ll have them stand later. They’re here and proud for them to be here. I know Jean is looking and smiling down, Suzanne and Cameron and Parker, and so proud of you all. I just ask you to support this resolution.”

SENATOR BLUE: “I can’t let the opportunity go by to say something about Jean Preston. I first met her when she came to the legislature after she was elected in 1992, and I served with her in the House ten years. The first meeting I had with her, she came by my office and told me the kinds of things she was interested in, and she kept emphasizing her background in education, and I said—then I called her Representative Preston, later started calling her Jean—’If you really are committed to this education stuff, you tell me where you want to be and what you want to do so that you can enhance that.’ She was put on the Education Committee, and she played a major role on educational issues, it didn’t matter whether the House was under Democratic control or Republican control. She had a sense of dedication and commitment that is probably unequalled by anybody that I’ve seen in this place on those issues. She really had a compassion for them. Over the course of time, those who serve here tend to establish a bond between each other, and it’s almost like a family bond in many ways, and I just felt so proud to be associated with Jean both in the House and over here in the Senate. Her advocacy for young people and for the kind of quality education that she felt that she had received in North Carolina is unequalled. I knew a lot about her, but I didn’t realize that she spent time down in Robeson County at Flora MacDonald College at the time, and I’ve got to believe that’s part of what made her so special that she carried away some of the good attributes that Robeson County has to offer. I’m honored to have known her, I’m honored to have served with her, and I’m honored to commend this resolution to you because we really do celebrate the life of a very wonderful, special individual.”

SENATOR D. DAVIS: “Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, I stand before you today to reflect and say farewell to a person I actually considered a friend. Jean was a native of Greene County. Greene County is a small community; it is tight-knit, and you tend to know everyone, and I can tell you that she was very well known and highly regarded in our community. Growing up there and made my way to the Senate, so often residents across the community would always ask about her, and when I would go back and often find myself sitting down, often sometimes with administrators with the school system, they would always bring her up and something she had done to help students in our community. It was a tremendous loss to us at the time when she left to go to the coast, but we understand why she had to go, but one of the greatest gains then was when she returned to the General Assembly. I remember so often, again, people conveying messages to send back and forth, and what I miss so often now having had an opportunity to come back, is we would often meet right in the corner at nearly every session and talk about Greene County. She would say, ‘Well, Don, how’s everybody doing back home?’ When I’d go back home, people would ask me, and they were given reports on how I was doing here, but she always checked on me and even asked how I was doing when I first came. She reached out, and I appreciated that more than ever, and I would simply say a couple of things. When we come here, in many ways we come with a charge. We have interests in many issues, but there are probably a few things we really stake our ground in. She staked her ground in education. Not only did she stake her ground in education, but she had a long track record of making a difference in education, especially with special needs children. For me that was important, as my interest has been in education. She taught me. The second thing I would say about her, as we heard earlier, a first class lady, and I would better characterize her as truly just a sweet, sweet spirit and the epitome of grace the way she carried herself. On behalf of not only the Senate today, but all of the residents in Greene County, not only do I say that we miss Senator Preston, but I end by saying that we miss, as we called her in Greene County, ‘Pookie.’”

June 19, 2013
SENATOR PARMON: “I just will tell you that when I first came to the General Assembly, I met Senator Preston because of my interest in education and got involved with the wrong group of people in trying to get something done. Senator Preston said to me, ‘Little Lady, that’s not the way to get that done.’ She proceeded to take me under her wing and to help me, and because of that we were able to get scholarships to recruit African American males into the teaching profession. Senator Preston and I continued to work in her years in the House on education, and I never met a finer person nor a person more committed to education than Senator Preston. She indeed was a lady, and she was committed to teaching young people across this state. I will never forget her for what she did to help me in trying to help education and help educate our students. I do honor her and had the pleasure of working with her. Thank you.”

SENATOR HUNT: “We’ve talked about what a wonderful lady Senator Preston was—and she really was. She was gentle, she was sweet, but she was also no shrinking violet, y’all. One time I was walking—we were walking to the elevator together, and I said, ‘Jean, how you doing?’ She said, ‘I’m doing pretty good, but we need to get rid of the leadership!’ Now, I need to point out that we were in charge then. I said, ‘OK.’ But I do commend this resolution to you.”

SENATOR APODACA: “We’ve talked about Senator Preston. She truly was a lady in every sense of the word, but there’s another word—Senator Hunt almost was talking about it. She was tenacious as much as any lady I’ve ever met in my life. The grandchildren, I think, got that tenacity from their grandmother and they’re excelling in athletics, probably due to their grandmother. I can think about when she was running, and—Mr. President, you’ve lived this memory with me—I’d go to bed about 10:30, and my phone would ring about quarter to eleven. It would be Jean Preston. Somebody had said something, ‘Oh, my God,’ we were ‘going to lose that election.’ This went on for a good three or four months, and Lisa said, finally, ‘I’m a little worried about you and this Jean Preston!’ I said, ‘If you look as good at 70 as she does, you better worry!’ With that being said, Suzanne, one of the main things internally here we regret that happened to you by the loss of your mother is having to work with Senator Tillman, so we want you to know, you’re in our prayers every day, but we miss your mother every day. She was one of the finest ladies I’ve ever known in my life.”

SENATOR MCKISSICK: “I would feel very remiss if I didn’t say some very kind, thoughtful words about Senator Preston. I really had not gotten to know her well until Senator Basnight’s wife passed away, and the Senate took a bus down to her funeral. Senator Preston and I were seated close to each other during that trip, so we spent about four hours down talking, and after the funeral having lunch together as well as the trip back up. I got to really learn who Jean Preston was, her background, her history, her connections to the community, but, most importantly, just the intrinsic values that she had as a person and her passion for issues related to education. I used her consistently as a tool when it came to seeking input on legislation that came before us in the Education Committee. One of those persons I could go to and say, ‘Jean, I’m not feeling quite right. What do you think, what are your thoughts? Give me an additional perspective on this.’ She was always thoughtful, she was always insightful, she always took the time to communicate, but most importantly, she was very principled in what she said, and she was one of those people who approached issues with a sense of bipartisanship. I know there were issues which I felt strongly about as a member on the other side of the aisle. I’d speak to her about it, and if she felt she could lend me her support, she would. Likewise, she’d come to me, and we would discuss things that might go the other direction. But she was always open, she was always receptive, she was always warm and friendly and connected to everyone and somebody who I had the deepest admiration for and someone who will be sorely missed in this chamber.”

SENATOR ALLRAN: “What has already been said has been done so well, and I can’t add too much to it because the comments have been so good, but I would feel remiss if I did not stand up and just acknowledge how very much I liked this individual. She sat behind me here in the chamber, and I got to talk to her. I got to talk to her in caucuses and visit with her in her office sometimes, and I just really appreciated her quiet dignity. She didn’t say all that much, but when she did, people listened to her. She had beautiful Southern manners, she was a pleasure to be around, and—as people have already said, but which is so true—she was just the epitome of what we call a great lady. Quite frankly, I feel privileged and honored that I was able to serve with Jean Preston.”

SENATOR PATE: “I got to know Jean Preston when I was elected to the House. She and I served over there several terms together, and then she came over here to the Senate prior to me coming. When I got recruited to run for the Senate seat, I went to Jean right off the bat to see if she could help me because the Senate District included Greene County. Although Jean has been brought out today to live down in Carteret lately, but prior to that time she was a Greene County native, and, luckily for me, she had a large family that still lived in Greene County. She made sure that I got to meet all those people, and was sort of, took me under her wing—or I’d say she put a noose around my neck to be sure that I was led to meet the various people in Greene County, ‘Because,’ she said, ‘it’s going to be tough.’ Thanks to her help, I was able to join her in the Senate. Our time together was much too short over here, but I certainly appreciate all the help that Jean Preston and her family gave me during those campaigns. Thank you very much.”

SENATOR NEWTON: “I won’t belabor what’s been said, but I didn’t have the benefit of knowing Jean as long as so many of you all did, but I felt like I did. The reason I felt like I did was because of this connection that I had with Jean that has already been talked about, and that’s Greene County. You see, I married a Greene County girl. I married a girl that’s a lot like Senator Preston, and I knew a lot about Senator Preston before I got here because one of her dear friends was a very close friend of my wife’s family, and I had known her since I was about 16 years old. So when Ms. Patricia Sugg found out that I was running, she kept telling me, ‘Oh, you’re going to enjoy my friend Jean Preston so much.’ When I got here, Jean really did what everybody else has talked about. She took me under her wing. She was always looking out for me, and every time I saw her, ‘How’re you doing, Buck, are they treating you OK? If they’re not treating you OK, you let me know, and we’ll figure it out, we’ll take care of it.’ One of the education ties, one of the ways she helped me the most was in our difficult budget session in the last session. She let me know that the Eastern School for the Deaf was on the chopping block, and she told me she didn’t feel like that was right that I didn’t know that. So I talked with her about it and kind of came up with a little plan of action, and in the end, we were able to show that that was not the right choice for the state to close that school. So the folks back home really can credit Jean for helping me figure out a way to skin that cat. But she was always looking out for me. She was a great lady, and I’m really sorry that I didn’t get to serve more time with her, and I’ll miss her, so I commend the resolution to you.”

SENATOR SANDERSON: “Out of everyone in this chamber, I want to take the definition—I think Senator Brown said it first when he gave us Jean Preston as the lady that she was—I want to carry it one step further. She is the epitome of what I call a Southern Lady. I think that everyone in this chamber knows exactly what I’m saying. I had the unique opportunity to learn about Jean Preston in three ways that most of you probably never did, in fact, I know you didn’t. The first way that I learned about her was running head to head against her in a primary campaign. Now, when I look in retrospect at that it might have been a very foolish decision on my part, but the reason I did that was a story all of its own. I met this lady—the very first time I ever saw her, she and I were standing, I was standing behind her, and we were in a line getting ready to speak in front of about four or five hundred voters in Craven County, and she turned around to me and she said, ‘Norm, we need to get together and talk.’ That expression became so familiar to me in the next three or four years because that’s what she would say when we had a problem that we wanted to solve together. For the next six months on the campaign trail, Jean Preston and I, a lot of times, were campaigning in front of groups, two or three or four or five, in outlying areas of our district, and I just began to get such an appreciation for this lady because I never heard her say anything that didn’t come straight from her heart, and never did she say anything that she totally didn’t mean. Jean Preston never said anything to gain a vote. She said it because she believed it. When we went through this primary election—and I’m not even going to tell you the results because I don’t want to embarrass myself—but I had become so impressed with her a few weeks after that when I was offered the chairmanship of our county party, I took it. I took it primarily so that I could get our county organized and help this lady win this seat because I knew that she would be a tremendous asset to our county, to Pamlico County, which was the new county in her district. The second way that I got to know Jean Preston was by serving with her. Three of the counties that she had—because I did go back later and win the House seat when she was running for the Senate or when she won the Senate seat, and I was able to serve her representing two of the three counties that she had. To my great delight, when I first came into the House, I was able to serve with her on the Appropriations/Education Committee, her from the Senate and me from the House. I do not want to even tell you some of the conversations that she and I had about some of our senior appropriations chairmen after the lights were turned down and the halls were empty and the chambers were empty, because we really gave you guys and ladies a hard time about what we thought needed to be done in our district for education. She was such a lady who—somebody said tenacious. What an appropriate word, because she really was. Just to know her under those circumstances, to be able to serve with her and to represent a portion of the same folks that she was representing, I learned so very much after that two years serving with her in the House while she was in the Senate. The third way that I got to know Jean Preston, more than anyone in this room, was by stepping into the position that she had held in this chamber. When I was campaigning for this Senate seat, when I would go into places and present myself and ask for peoples' votes and tell them what I was going to do, I knew without any doubt whatsoever, especially to people over in Carteret County, when I stood up to speak they were not measuring me by what I was saying or what I looked like or how I said it, they were measuring me by how I would compare to Senator Jean Preston. I am so thrilled to say that evidently somehow, just a little bit, I was able to live up to what she meant to those people, because when you go time after time after time, and you hear folks talk about what a marvelous person she was, you begin to understand. Without even soliciting it, you began to realize that that's the truth because people don't say that just to impress you. They say things like that because they really mean it, and so I count myself blessed to have known her in those three ways. I, too, miss her, I will always miss her, I will always hold her up as a standard as long as I'm serving the people in that district. It's just a delight to be able to see Suzanne and the children and her husband and just to see them every day because every day I walk in my office, I pass Suzanne in Senator Tillman's office, and I see her, and it just brings me back in to remembrance of why I truly am here, and that's to serve the people of the State of North Carolina in my district. I commend this resolution to you.”

Senator Berger: “Members of the Senate, I'm just going to take a moment before we vote, and I just want to echo what has already been said. I think the thing about Jean Preston that struck me as much as anything—I think Senator Apodaca alluded to it and a couple of others have said something about it—she was one tough lady. She was someone, however, that if she told you what she was going to do, you could count on it. We have now—two consecutive days this body has taken the time to honor former members, and I would just like for you, the members of the Senate, to reflect on that fact, and June 19, 2013 reflect on the comments that have been made about both Senator Preston and Senator East and how those comments have come from members of both parties and have been, I think, in very obvious terms, straight from the heart and an indication of the relationships that are developed on this floor and in the halls of this building and the legislative office building over the years. It is one of the grand things, in my view, of serving in the Senate. Suzanne, we are continued to be blessed by your presence, and we thank you for the willingness of you and your family to share Jean with us for all those years. It is a treasured memory for all of us, and it’s something that we will continue to keep in our hearts and minds.”

The Committee Substitute Joint Resolution passes its second reading (46-0) and, without objection, is read a third time and passes its third reading, with all present members standing, and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

SENATOR BERGER: “Upon the motion of Senator Tillman and Senator Apodaca, the Chair is happy to extend courtesies to Senator Jean Preston’s daughter, Suzanne Castleberry, her grandchildren, Cameron and Parker, and friends from Greene County. Suzanne, if you all would please stand to be recognized.”

Wednesday, June 26, 2013

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord Jesus, would you come and visit us and relieve our burdens? Would that you would shift the sand beneath our feet. O Lord, we sure do need your help today, here. We need your gentle pricking and your pressing love to quicken us. Let your ears, Heavenly Father, hear us. Be attentive to our pleas for mercy. If you, O Lord, could mark inequities, who could stand before you? But with you there is forgiveness, and with you there is relief. With you there are headwaters of refreshment. With you there is everlasting refreshment to each of us during this time. Teach us how to press on. I pray in the name of Jesus. Amen.”

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator D. Davis and Senator Hartsell.

EIGHTY-SEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, June 27, 2013

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Gracious God, thanks for last night’s rain. Boy, did we ever need it. You supply all things. I am astonished at how little we realize in life how famished we are, how dry we are, how much of a valley of dry bones that we are. Sometimes a fresh rain can recalibrate us and bring us hope. So help us to lean on that hope today, Lord, that there is a better day coming. There is a day when every tear will be wiped clean, but for today we know that there is a job to be done for each of us. May we work at our jobs knowing that there is sanctity in all of our work. Bless the legislative assistants. Bless the interns—the wonderful high school students that visit us from across the state, like Garrett and Jacob—our visitors in the gallery, our governor, our House. Let our work be unto you, Lord. Let our work be unto you, always remembering that there is fresh hope with the morning. In Jesus’ name, Amen.”

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Blue, Senator Clodfelter, Senator Hartsell, and Senator Jenkins.

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Wednesday, June 26, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

EIGHTY-NINTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, July 2, 2013

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Heavenly Father, we come before you, and you know what is on this calendar today, Lord, way before we did. Lord, wide is the gate that leads to destruction and narrow is the path that leads to life. Lord, what is our path? We seek your wisdom for walking on that path. None of us know that path. There are so many people here with so many opinions—so many great ideas—that it’s hard to hear what is actually the right path sometimes. You actually are that path, Jesus, you are that narrow little road. You have a love for us that shines like ten thousand suns—a love of God that is the hymn of this road. The crippled can come, and they can sing this hymn. So let the needy join this throng. Let the widow hear and hope, and bring everyone around this table that will come. You will not send us away empty handed. Amen.”

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator D. Davis, Senator Jenkins, and Senator Robinson.

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Monday, July 1, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. Patricia B. Crane from Asheboro, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

A SENATORIAL STATEMENT
Submitted by Senator Dan Blue and Senator Chad Barefoot

Recognizing Garner as an All-America City

WHEREAS, on June 16, 2013, Garner, North Carolina, was recognized as a 2013 All-America City by the National Civic League and was one of 10 communities across the country to win the Award. Garner is the first locality in the Triangle to win the award since Durham in 1982-1983 and the first Wake County municipality to earn the award since Raleigh in 1974-1975. The Award is often called the Nobel Prize of civic accomplishment; and

WHEREAS, the All-America City Award program was founded in 1949 to recognize cities for civic achievements. To be named an All-America City, the community must demonstrate innovation, inclusiveness, civic engagement, and cross-sector collaboration by describing successful efforts to address pressing local challenges. In their applications, All-America City finalists briefly tell their community stories, listing two of their most pressing challenges and three outstanding community projects; and

WHEREAS, in a video presentation, the 2011 American Idol winner, Scotty McCreery of Garner, described Garner’s three best projects that have resulted in significant local impact and action planning within the past five years. The three projects included the Garner Veterans Memorial at Lake Benson Park, Community of Hope Charity operating out of First Baptist Church of Garner, and the Garner Performing Arts Center. The video also highlighted this year’s community-wide initiatives to honor and benefit veterans and military families; and

July 2, 2013
WHEREAS, Garner’s application for the Award and the video presentation also cited other citizen-led efforts in Garner, such as the Meals on Wheels program at the Garner Senior Center, the Town’s annual Relay For Life event at Lake Benson Park, and the grassroots efforts to save Garner from the “red route” of the Triangle Expressway and to block the closure of the Wake County Library Southeast Regional Branch in Garner;

NOW, THEREFORE, Garner deserves recognition for being named a 2013 All-America City and the Town’s citizens deserve acknowledgement for their community spirit in helping the Town achieve this Award.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned certifies that the foregoing statement was read in the Senate and placed upon the Journal on the second day July, 2013.

S/Senator Dan Blue S/Sarah Lang
S/Senator Chad Barefoot Senate Principal Clerk
