

NORTH CAROLINA GENERAL ASSEMBLY
1961 SESSION

CHAPTER 1029
HOUSE BILL 1169

AN ACT TO EXTEND THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF THE TOWN OF AYDEN IN PITT COUNTY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. The corporate limits of the Town of Ayden, Pitt County, North Carolina, as set forth in Chapter 482, Session Laws of 1955, are hereby extended to include the following additional territory, to wit:

"BEGINNING at a point in the middle of the canal, which point is in the southern edge of that street now designated as Colonial Street and which point is approximately 683 feet South of the center of Boulevard Street; running thence South 18 degrees East 788 feet, more or less, to the eastern edge of a street designated as New Road; running thence with the eastern edge of New Road in a northerly direction to Boulevard Street; and thence with Boulevard Street in a westerly direction to the previous Ayden city limits; thence with the previous Ayden city limits in a southerly direction and in a westerly direction to a point in the center of the canal; thence with the center of the canal in a southerly direction to the BEGINNING, including all that development of the Sunrise Park as shown on that map made by W. B. Duke in April, 1961, except the part that was already included in Ayden city limits."

Sec. 2. The property included within the extended corporate limits of the Town of Ayden, above described, shall be subject to taxation as other property in the Town of Ayden for the next fiscal year beginning July 1, 1961, and the citizens residing in said territory shall be entitled to all the privileges and benefits of other citizens of the said town.

Sec. 3. All laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. This Act shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the 17th day of June, 1961.
