

NORTH CAROLINA GENERAL ASSEMBLY
1969 SESSION

CHAPTER 161
HOUSE BILL 376

AN ACT RELATING TO THE FAIRMONT CITY SCHOOL ADMINISTRATIVE UNIT IN ROBESON COUNTY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. The territory described below is herewith annexed to and shall become a part of the Fairmont City School Administrative Unit, or School District, in Robeson County:

Beginning at a point on Ashpole Swamp where Indian Swamp and Hog Swamp join; thence, north and east along Indian Swamp to a point just south of Robeson County Road Number 2269, which is the Orrum and Sterlings Township line, thence west along Sterlings and Orrum Township to Hog Swamp, thence south along Hog Swamp to the beginning point, said area being all of Sterlings Township lying west of Indian Swamp.

Sec. 2. All laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. This Act shall become effective upon its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the 31st day of March, 1969.
