

NORTH CAROLINA GENERAL ASSEMBLY
1981 SESSION

CHAPTER 1076
HOUSE BILL 612

AN ACT TO APPROPRIATE FUNDS FOR PLANNING AN ANDREW JACKSON MEMORIAL.

Whereas, the State of North Carolina and its citizens have long noted and recognized the origins and early life of Andrew Jackson, the nation's seventh president, in the Waxhaws region along the North Carolina-South Carolina border; and

Whereas, Andrew Jackson, one of the nation's most important military leaders and statesmen, had his historic roots and early experiences in the Waxhaws, was wounded in the American Revolution while only 13 years of age, was schooled in the Waxhaws region, had his legal training in Salisbury from 1784 to 1787, practiced law in Western North Carolina during 1787 and 1788, and then participated in the creation of the State of Tennessee while that land was a part of North Carolina; and

Whereas, it is important that the State of North Carolina recognize the origins and early life of this outstanding national leader in North Carolina; and

Whereas, in 1980 the Governor did appoint by Executive Order 46 the Andrew Jackson Memorial Committee to plan an appropriate memorial in present day Union County, North Carolina; and

Whereas, the Andrew Jackson Memorial Committee did conclude that further archaeology and research are needed for historic sites in Union County related to the life of Andrew Jackson, and that further study needs to be given to the Waxhaw amphitheatre and to the drama presented there; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. There is appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Cultural Resources, Division of Archives and History, the sum of sixty-one thousand fifty dollars ($61,050) for the fiscal year 1981-82 for the necessary research, archaeological investigations, and theatrical consultant services.

Sec. 2. This act is effective upon ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the 10th day of October, 1981.
