The present councilmen from electoral districts (wards) two and four shall continue to hold office and serve as councilmen under this charter until the organizational meeting following the regular election in 1981, at which election their successors shall be elected.

"Sec. 305. Time, procedure for elections.

A general city election shall be held in each odd-numbered year at the time and in the manner provided by Chapter 163 of the General Statutes. Said elections shall be nonpartisan and shall be decided by a simple plurality in accordance with G.S. 163-292. All city elections shall be conducted by the Davidson County Board of Elections; provided that the city may, in its discretion of the council, elect to conduct its own elections as provided by G.S. 163-285.

"Sec. 306. Qualifications of electors.

All persons entitled to vote for members of the General Assembly, and who are residents of the city, and who have registered and qualified as provided in Subchapter IX of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes shall be allowed to vote for mayor and city councilmen.

"Sec. 307. Removal from office of mayor or councilman for misconduct.

The city council by vote of four-fifths of its members in meeting assembled, shall have power to remove from office the mayor or any councilman for misfeasance, malfeasance, corruption, neglect of duty or other misconduct in office, but the person to be proceeded against shall have at least ten days' notice in writing of the motion to remove him, accompanied by a copy of the charges alleged as the grounds for his proposed removal. He shall have the right to be heard in person or by counsel in his defense. In case of the removal of the mayor or any councilman, the vacancy shall be filled by the city council or the remaining members thereof in the manner provided by G.S. 160A-63.

"Sec. 308. Mayor's powers and duties.

The mayor shall exercise those powers and perform those duties provided or authorized by this charter or general law, and no others. He shall have power to administer oaths as provided by general law.

"Sec. 309. Failure to serve constitutes vacancy.

The failure or refusal of a person elected to the position of mayor or councilman to qualify or assume the duties of said office shall create a vacancy in the office which shall be filled in the same manner that other vacancies are filled under general law.

"ARTICLE IV.

"Administration.

"Sec. 401. Administration to be as provided by general law.

Except as otherwise provided in this charter, the administration of city affairs shall be as is provided by Part 2 of Article 7 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes for the administration of council-manager cities.

"Sec. 402. Conflict of interest of manager.

The city manager shall not be personally interested in any contract in which the city is a party for supplying the city materials or services of any kind.

"Sec. 403. Turning over effects of office to successor.

Any officer of the city shall, on demand, turn over to his successor in office the property, records, books, moneys, scales or effects of the city.

"ARTICLE V.

"Powers and Limitations Thereon.

"Sec. 501. Powers to be broadly construed.

The city shall have all of the municipal powers provided by law. The fact that any power or jurisdiction is specifically conferred by this charter, or that any power or jurisdiction may have been specifically conferred by the former charter or other local act and is not specifically mentioned herein, shall not be construed as evidencing any legislative intent to deprive the city of any power or jurisdiction it would otherwise have under general law.

"Sec. 502. Control over public-service corporations, etc.

The council shall have power to require all public-service corporations, and all people doing public-service business in the city, to make such reports as it may require, and shall have a right to inspect such books and papers as the State Utilities Commission has the right to inspect under the laws enacted or which may be enacted with reference to public-service corporations doing business in the city. The council is hereby authorized and empowered to require all public-service corporations, and all persons engaged in public-service business in the city to construct their lines and erect such poles and towers as may be required or used in their business at such places and along such routes as in the opinion of the council is best and most suitable, and the council is further authorized and empowered to cause such poles, towers and lines to be removed or torn down, when in the opinion of the council the public good or safety so require, and the good faith decision of the council in such matters shall be conclusive.

"Sec. 503. Forfeiture of franchises.

The council shall have full power to declare forfeited and terminate franchises granted persons or corporations for street railway, electric light, telephone, telegraph, gas, power, or public-service purposes, whenever the conditions upon which such franchise or franchises were granted have been broken, or whenever, for any other reason, such franchise or franchises have been lost, surrendered or forfeited.

"Sec. 504. Appointment of board of education.

The council shall continue to appoint the Thomasville Board of Education, as provided by Chapter 88, Session Laws of 1965.

"Sec. 505. Powers, duties with regard to schools.

The council shall do and perform in relation to the Thomasville school district or the school of said city all things now done and performed by the city council of the City of Thomasville, and nothing in this charter shall be construed to change the law affecting the schools of said city or district, and the boundaries of said Thomasville school district are to be as provided in Chapter 305, Session Laws of 1959.

"Sec. 506. Destruction of buildings to stop progress of fire.

In case of fire, the mayor, city manager, or any two members of the council, may order the blowing up, tearing down or destruction in any other way that may seem best, of any building, when it is deemed necessary to stop the progress of the fire; and no person shall be held liable, civilly or criminally, for giving or acting in obedience to the orders thus given."

Sec. 2. All ordinances, resolutions, rules and regulations in force at the time of taking effect of this charter, not inconsistent with its provisions, shall continue in full force and effect until amended or repealed.

Sec. 3. The following local acts, are hereby expressly repealed, provided that such repeal shall not affect any action taken or proceeding commenced prior to the effective date of this act:

(1) Private Laws of 1927, Chapter 224, insofar as it relates to the City of Thomasville.

(2) Private Laws of 1929, Chapter 196.

(3) Session Laws of 1963, Chapter 4.

Sec. 4. This act is effective upon ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the 13th day of April, 1981.
