

NORTH CAROLINA GENERAL ASSEMBLY
1981 SESSION

CHAPTER 711
SENATE BILL 673

AN ACT TO INCREASE THE ALLOWABLE NUMBER OF TRUSTEES OF REX
HOSPITAL AND TO ALTER THE METHOD OF APPOINTMENT OF SAID TRUSTEES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. Chapter 6, Private Laws of North Carolina 1840-1841, as amended by Chapter 98, Public-Local Laws of North Carolina 1939, as amended by Chapter 361 of Session Laws of 1973, is further amended by rewriting Section II to read:

"The number of trustees constituting the 'Trustees of Rex Hospital' shall be at least seven and no more than 11. If the Board of Trustees of Rex Hospital shall determine that more than seven but no more than 11 trustees are needed, the additional trustees shall be appointed in the same manner as herein provided for the filling of vacancies. When any vacancy or vacancies may happen by death, resignation, or failure to remain a resident of the County of Wake, of any trustee or trustees or from any other cause, his or their places shall be filled from a nomination or nominations by the Board of Trustees of Rex Hospital submitted to the City Council of the City of Raleigh which shall appoint the trustee or trustees with the approval of the Senior Resident Judge of the Superior Court of Wake County."

Sec. 2. This act is effective upon ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the 26th day of June, 1981.
