Each successor member so elected shall be a resident of the zone of the member he is elected to succeed; except, however, a successor at-large member need not be a resident of the zone of the at-large member he is elected to succeed.

Sec. 5. All candidates for election to membership on the Edgecombe County Board of Education shall be residents of the zone which they seek to represent and shall file with the Board of Elections of Edgecombe County a notice of candidacy which shall state the candidate's name, address, exact place of residence, the zone which he seeks to represent and that he is a candidate for membership on the Edgecombe County Board of Education for the zone in which he resides; except, however, all candidates for the at-large membership on the Edgecombe County Board of Education shall file with the Board of Elections of Edgecombe County a notice of candidacy which shall state the candidate's name, address, exact place of residence and that he is a candidate for the at-large membership on the Edgecombe County Board of Education. Sec. 6. The members of the Edgecombe County Board of Education shall be elected on a nonpartisan basis at the time of the primary election. For the 1984 election only, the ballot shall further provide that one membership from Zone 3, Western Attendance Zone, shall be for a two-year term of office and that one membership from said zone shall be for a four-year term of office. All candidates for membership on the Edgecombe County Board of Education shall be voted on at-large by the qualified voters of Edgecombe County and any qualified voter residing in the Edgecombe County School Administrative Unit shall be entitled to vote such ballots. The Board of Elections of Edgecombe County shall canvass and judicially determine the results of said election and declare the members so elected. The candidates receiving the highest number of votes for each particular zone and for the at-large membership shall be declared to be elected.

It is the intent and purpose of this act that the members of the Edgecombe County Board of Education shall be elected in the primary election and there shall be no further election in the general election. The members so elected shall take the oath of office on the next succeeding first Monday in December following their election. All persons so elected shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified and any vacancy occurring on the Edgecombe County Board of Education by death, resignation or otherwise shall be filled by the remaining members of the Edgecombe County Board of Education for the unexpired term, but the person appointed to fill such vacancy must be from the same zone as the person whose death, resignation or removal created said vacancy, except in the case of the at-large membership, in which case this requirement does not apply. In the event that the remaining members of the Edgecombe County Board of Education do not act regarding such a vacancy within 30 days, the vacancy shall be filled by the North Carolina State Board of Education in accordance with the heretofore stated requirements. If there is no candidate for election from a zone or zones this shall constitute a vacancy which shall be filled as hereinabove provided.

Sec. 7. The election of said members of the Edgecombe County Board of Education in the various primary elections as hereinabove provided shall be governed by Chapter 163 of the General Statutes, relating to primaries and elections insofar as the same may be applicable and not in conflict with the express terms of this act. The Board of Elections of Edgecombe County is hereby authorized and empowered to create any necessary precincts, to appoint any necessary election officials and to set up and establish all necessary books and records for the conduct of said election in said primary.

Sec. 8. The zones established by this act shall be coterminous with the respective school attendance zones as are more particularly described according to the map of same, copies of which are on file with the Edgecombe County Board of Education and the Board of Elections of Edgecombe County.
