

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA
1985 SESSION

CHAPTER 37
HOUSE BILL 209

AN ACT TO REPEAL THE LAW CREATING THE "CITY-COUNTY RADIO AND IDENTIFICATION BUREAU COMMISSION" IN BUNCOMBE COUNTY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. Chapter 262, Public-Local Laws of 1941, is repealed.

Sec. 2. Any property currently held by the City-County Radio and Identification Bureau Commission created by Chapter 262, Public-Local Laws of 1941, may be transferred jointly to the City of Asheville and Buncombe County.

Sec. 3. This act shall become effective May 1, 1985.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the 28th day of March, 1985.