§ 15A-404. Detention of offenders by private persons.

- (a) No Arrest; Detention Permitted. No private person may arrest another person except as provided in G.S. 15A-405. A private person may detain another person as provided in this section.
- (b) When Detention Permitted. A private person may detain another person when he has probable cause to believe that the person detained has committed in his presence:
 - (1) A felony,
 - (2) A breach of the peace,
 - (3) A crime involving physical injury to another person, or
 - (4) A crime involving theft or destruction of property.
- (c) Manner of Detention. The detention must be in a reasonable manner considering the offense involved and the circumstances of the detention.
- (d) Period of Detention. The detention may be no longer than the time required for the earliest of the following:
 - (1) The determination that no offense has been committed.
 - (2) Surrender of the person detained to a law-enforcement officer as provided in subsection (e).
- (e) Surrender to Officer. A private person who detains another must immediately notify a law-enforcement officer and must, unless he releases the person earlier as required by subsection (d), surrender the person detained to the law-enforcement officer. (1973, c. 1286, s. 1.)
