

§ 28A-22-2. Shares of after-born and after-adopted children.

The share of an after-born or after-adopted child, as provided by G.S. 29-9 and 31-5.5, shall be allotted to the after-born or after-adopted child out of any undevisee real or personal property, or out of both, if there is enough such undevisee property for that purpose. If there is no undevisee real or personal property, or if there is not enough, then the whole of the child's share, or the deficiency, shall be made up from the devisee real or personal property, or from both. The portion contributed by a devisee shall bear the same ratio to the devisee's devise as the after-born or after-adopted child's share bears to the net estate.
