Legal Aid of North Carolina (LANC) is a statewide, nonprofit/law firm that provides free legal services in civil matters to low-income people all one hundred counties in North Carolina, in order to ensure equal access to justice and to remove legal barriers to economic opportunity.

LANC serves households with legal issues in housing, public benefits, family integrity, consumer, employment, education, and community economic development. We also serve victims of domestic violence, seniors, and families facing foreclosure whose income qualifications are slightly different. Persons living in poverty not only lack a living wage, but many have health and literacy challenges that severely limit their economic opportunities. In turn, these factors affect the options available to them as they try to resolve legal problems, often without legal representation.

LANC serves all one hundred counties of the state. Our primary client base comprises the very poorest: generally households with incomes falling below 125% of the federal poverty guidelines (FPG); slightly more than $29,000 per year for a household of four. Our general client base comes from the roughly 3.7 million people, approximately 39% of the state's general population, falling at or below 200% of the FPG.

The poverty population in North Carolina has increased in the last ten years. The latest census statistics indicate that the state's poverty rate is 17.9% and North Carolina now has over 1.71 million people living at or below the FPG. Over 2.23 million of the state's population lives on incomes at or below 125% of the FPG. These figures include over 15.5% of all seniors, 32.1 % of all children; 24.9% of all women. About 7.9% are considered in extreme poverty and have incomes below 50% of the FPG. Over 19.6% of households are food insecure. Over 606,000 households pay more than 30% of income on housing and just over 12,000 people are homeless; yet only 136,700 households receive federal rental assistance. Contrary to conventional wisdom, only 40,905 of these many poor households in our state receive TANF, which traditionally is "welfare." The majority of the households living in poverty are headed by females. The median gross annual income of LANC clients remains approximately $12,000, significantly less than the living wage annual income of $41,920 for a four-person household and the $45,906 state median income. Poverty is not constrained by geography, and the poor live in both urban and rural areas. North Carolina is about 66.1 % urban and 33.9% rural. The major urban areas have experienced a 60% increase in population since 2000.

LANC makes every effort to provide the highest quality legal advice and representation to our clients. As a civil Legal services provider, we make every effort to ensure that our work ameliorates poverty and creates economic opportunity for those most in need.

Through our 150 staff attorneys, along with 40 paralegals and 60 support staff, each year we provide direct legal assistance to approximately 25,000 households and legal education and outreach clinics information to an additional 25,000 households. LANC focuses its legal practice on critical basic needs: housing, consumer, public benefits, family, education, employment, health care, and elder law. LANC also employs statewide, special provider units that address specific issues: The Second Chance Project focuses on reducing recidivism and creating economic opportunity for, primarily, young males who have been implicated in the criminal justice system but meet the statutory requirements for expungement of their criminal records. Advocates for Children's Services specialize in education issues and combating the School-To-Prison Pipeline. The Domestic Violence Prevention Initiative and Battered Immigrant Project focus on protecting victims of abuse and reducing the incidence of domestic violence. The Child's Advocate protects children and resolves complex, high-conflict custody matters. The Mortgage Foreclosure Project protects homes from abusive lending and loan servicing practices--the project is a multi-partner project with a thousand open cases on any given day. The Senior Law Project and its toll-free hotline focus on the needs of the 240,000 seniors in poverty in our state. The Fair Housing Project works across the state to educate renters, owners, and landlords in order to fight housing discrimination in all its forms.

LANC settles about 65% of its cases without litigation. When it goes to court however, it prevails over 90% of the time. When litigation is the best legal strategy for the client, LANC has a highly trained and experienced staff that is prepared to go to court to fight for its clients rights. LANC zealously litigates cases in every forum and at every level in the state and federal courts, including jury trials and through appeal in all jurisdictions. LANC's legal advocacy also includes community education and outreach, consultations, and negotiation before litigation. We employ an informative website that permits clients to gain knowledge about legal issues and to contact any office in the state for direct help or for local pro se information. We also employ social media tools such as Facebook, Twitter, and e-newsletters. Most of the work by our Helpline staff, our call center, specific legal advice to address important legal issues or some brief service before litigation is pursued. The average Helpline case takes 3 hours. The Helpline is set up and staffed to help thousands of clients each year.

LANC recently embarked on three new projects to help expand access to justice: In 2014, LANC began a directed expansion of its work with veterans. We trained and certified approximately 30 advocates on veterans law. We participate in veterans "Standown" outreach events all over the state. LANC is part of the Veterans Pro Bono Network, which includes the North Carolina Bar Association and the state's law schools. We focus not only on veterans' benefits, but we strive to serve comprehensive legal needs, including issues affecting veterans' abilities to obtain employment and decent housing. In the past year, LANC directly served over 1,600 veterans as clients and over 2,100 households in which a veteran was a member. The second project, mentioned above, is what we call Second Chance or "Re-entry." Re-entry advocacy helps clients clean-up arrest, conviction, and discharge records so that they again can qualify for employment and decent housing. Removing barriers to employment helps reduce the rate of recidivism for those, mostly, young men who have earned an opportunity for a second chance. The third project of note is called "Lawyer on the Line (LOL)", a project of the North Carolina Bar Association and our helpline. The LANC Helpline, the name of our toll-free call center that receives 2000 calls per month. The Helpline provides first-rate legal advice or brief service in situations where the client needs actual legal assistance but may not need to go to court right away. Lawyer on the Line is the project that recruits lawyers from the private bar to provide free consultations on poverty law issues to eligible clients. The average LOL case requires about two and one-half hours. LOL has recruited nearly two thousand lawyers from the private bar who donate their time and has served over 5,000 clients.

Other noteworthy projects: Our Mortgage Foreclosure Project continues to save homes and the credit of thousands of families. Our collaborative, multi-agency project has become the most vigorous foreclosure defense projects in the country. We continue to shape and to expand our Medical-Legal Partnership Project. MLPs place lawyers in public health clinics to give medical staff the resources they need to change the social determinants of health. MLPs can reduce unnecessary returns to clinics and ERs, reduce community healthcare costs and actually improve community health. The initial efforts in Durham have enabled LANC to obtain funding for similar projects at UNC, in Winston-Salem, Charlotte, Greensboro, and Moore County.

In an effort to improve rural delivery and outreach, the State Bar and IOLTA fund Clifton W. Everett, Sr., Fellowships, which permits LANC to serve hundreds of rural clients who would otherwise not have access to legal representation. For 2014, our Everett fellows were placed together in Richmond County, one of the poorest in the state. The results have been astonishing: In a county where we previously had little ability to serve, the IOLTA Fellows have served nearly 300 households in the last two years.

In order to combat the effects of recently reduced and anticipated federal government funding cuts, LANC is re-organizing some of its teams to keep the level of our services high as we prepare for some significant cuts in staff positions that will occur in the Third Quarter.
