Crowell v. North Carolina, et al	1:17-cv-00515	M.D.N.C.	$0.00		X	violation of 14th and 1st amendments	Plaintiff brought this declaratory judgment action in June 2017 against the State of NC, Roy Cooper, the Bipartisan State Board of Elections and Ethics Enforcement (State Board), and the Chair and members of the State Board, in their official capacities. The suit alleges that certain NC election laws are unconstitutional under the 14th and 1st amendments because they only allow for appointment to the State and local boards of election of persons from the two major political parties, thus denying equal protection, freedom of speech, and freedom of association to unaffiliated voters. All defendants were originally represented by the Special Litigation Section. However, because of the relationship to the litigation in Cooper v. Berger et al., and the need for the Governor to take a consistent position with that litigation, CLG has been assigned to separately represent the Governor in this action. Senate President Pro Tem Phil Berger and Speaker of the House Tim Moore have intervened, in their official capacities.

McCollum and Brown v. Town of Red Springs, et al.	5:15-cv-00451-BO	E.D.N.C.	$1,000,000.00		X	violation of 4th Amendment	In the early 1980s, Plaintiff's McCollum and Brown confessed to and were convicted of the rape and murder of an 11 year old girl. In 2014, Plaintiffs' convictions were overturned based on the discovery of DNA evidence from the crime scene that did not belong to either Plaintiff. Subsequently, both Plaintiffs received pardons of innocence from the Governor. On August 31, 2015, Plaintiffs initiated a § 1983 action against Robeson County, the Town of Red Springs, Kenneth Sealy, both individually and in his official capacity as Sheriff of Robeson County, and against several individual SBI and local law enforcement officers who were involved in the original criminal investigation. Plaintiffs' primary substantive allegation is that Plaintiffs confessions were coerced. The AGO was assigned to represent Kenneth Snead and Leroy Allen, who are both former SBI agents who were involved in the criminal investigation. Plaintiffs' complaint states § 1983 causes of action against these Defendants for (1) false imprisonment, (2) due process violations for fabricating evidence and concealing exculpatory evidence, and (3) malicious prosecution

Oates v. LGC et al.	5:16-cv-00623	E.D.N.C.	$7,000,000.00		X	§§ 1983, 1985 and 1986	Former mayor of Princeville and her husband have sued numerous state agencies and individuals, claiming that they have collectively conspired to have her prosecuted for financial irregularities while she was the town's mayor. Numerous §§ 1983, 1985 and 1986 claims have been made, as well as a claim under the State Tort Claims Act. The section originally represented the State Treasurer, LGC, and three individual employees of those respective entities. Motion to dismiss was granted without prejudice, and Plaintiffs have amended their complaint and moved to allow amended complaint. Court granted motion to amend, but only as to individual defendants. The only remaining claim against the individual employees represented by CLG is civil conspiracy to violate § 1983. MTD and motion to strike portions of the amended complaint have been filed and motions referred to Judge Flanagan for ruling.

Wright v. Southern Health Partners, et al.	18-cv-63	M.D.N.C.	$0.00		X	42 U.S.C. § 1983	DHHS and Secretary Mandy Cohen were served with a Summons and Complaint on February 20, 2018. Plaintiff, the Administratrix of the estate of a decedent who was incarcerated in the Randolph County Jail from February 6, 2015, to March 8, 2015, purports to state claims against DHHS and Secretary Mandy Cohen (in both her official and individual capacities), among other defendants, for damages the decedent allegedly sustained during his period of incarceration. Plaintiff alleges DHHS and Cohen violated their statutory duty to establish statewide minimum standards for the inspection and operation of local confinement facilities (county jails) and to provide for the humane treatment of prisoners pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. § 153A-216 et seq., which resulted in the decedent being deprived of adequate medical care. Decedent passed away on July 26, 2016, more than sixteen (16) months after his release from the Randolph County Jail. As a result of the alleged statutory violations, Plaintiff purports to state claims against DHHS and Cohen for injunctive relief, negligence, negligent supervision, a violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and claims for punitive damages.
