- i. Five Key Questions for Consideration
 - i. What do we see as the difference between (1) being in the process of “acquiring” a license level and (2) “demonstrating” one’s eligibility to hold a license at the different points in the pathway?
 - ii. What are components of what we currently designate as “EPP” completion that would be better situated in the “License 4” area (e.g., edTPA). In essence what should be acquired prior to License 4 v. acquired “in License 4”?
 - iii. What would we expect a person who holds “License 1” to have in terms of credentials or acquired attributes (e.g., bachelor degree) to be the teacher of record as part of holding the License?

- iv. What expectations should we have in terms of acquiring (1) content knowledge, (2) pedagogical knowledge and (3) integration of the two to hold a license?
 - v. How do we frame the acquired knowledge and skill of a person in an “EPP internship” relative to License 1 and 2? Should “intern” in EPP be its own “license”?
