Section 1. G.S. 126-7 reads as rewritten:

"§ 126-7. Compensation of State employees. Comprehensive Compensation System.

- (a) It is the policy of the State to compensate its employees at a level sufficient to encourage excellence of performance and to maintain the labor market competitiveness necessary to recruit and retain a competent work force. To this end, salary increases to State employees may be based, in part, on each individual employee's job performance and, in part, on general increases given to all State employees. shall be implemented through the Comprehensive Compensation System based upon the individual performance of each State employee. The Comprehensive Compensation System shall combine salary increases and awards into an interrelated system of compensation that furthers the recruitment, retention, career service, and outstanding performance of State employees.
- (a1) General salary increases for State employees shall precede any consideration of a performance pay allocation. Performance pay shall be allocated only when the total allocation for increases equals or exceeds two percent (2%).
 - (a2) For the purpose of this section, unless the context indicates otherwise:
 - (1) 'Career growth recognition award' means an annual salary increase awarded to a State employee whose final annual performance appraisal

- 1 indicates job performance that meets or exceeds management's 2 expectations and performance requirements;
 - (2) 'Cost-of-living adjustment' means a general salary increase given to State employees in response to inflation and labor market factors;
 - (3) 'Midpoint' means that amount of compensation that represents the mean of the lowest and highest amounts in a State employment salary grade as determined by the State Personnel Commission;
 - (4) 'Performance bonus' means a salary increase that is awarded in a lump sum to a State employee whose final annual performance appraisal indicates job performance that exceeds management's expectations and performance requirements.
 - (b) To guide the Governor and the General Assembly in making appropriations to further the compensation policy of the State, fund the Comprehensive Compensation System, the State Personnel Commission shall conduct annual compensation surveys. The Commission shall present the results of the compensation survey to the Appropriations Committees of the House and Senate no later than two weeks after the convening of the legislature in odd years and May 1st of even years.
 - (b1) The Comprehensive Compensation System shall consist of the following components: (1) the career growth recognition award, (2) the performance bonus, and (3) the cost-of-living adjustment. The career growth recognition award shall be the primary method by which an employee progresses through his or her salary range and shall be awarded annually to employees who qualify for the award. An employee may receive, within a 12-month period, the career growth recognition award, performance bonus, and cost-of-living adjustment if the employee's job performance equals or exceeds the level of performance set forth in subdivisions (4), (4a), and (4b) of subsection (c). No employee shall be eligible to receive during a 12-month period a performance bonus greater than the maximum amount or less than the minimum amount established by the Commission. Nothing in this section shall affect the system of longevity payments established by the Commission.
 - (c) Performance increases, if awarded, Career growth recognition awards, performance bonuses, and cost-of-living adjustments shall be based on annual performance appraisals of all employees conducted by each department, agency, and institution. The State Personnel Commission, under the authority of G.S. 126-4(8), shall adopt policy and regulations for performance appraisal. The policy and regulations shall include the following:
 - (1) The performance appraisal system of each department, agency, or institution shall be designed and administered to ensure that performance increases are distributed fairly and reward only performance that exceeds performance requirements. career growth recognition awards, performance bonuses, and cost-of-living adjustments are distributed fairly.
 - (2) To be eligible to distribute its share of the performance increase allocation, career growth recognition awards, performance bonuses, and cost-of-living adjustments, a department, agency, or institution shall have an operative performance appraisal system which has been approved by the State Personnel Director—Commission. The performance appraisal system adopted shall use a rating scale of five levels, with level four or better qualifying for performance bonuses, level three or better qualifying for career growth recognition awards, and level two or better qualifying for cost-of-living adjustments. The performance appraisal system adopted shall adhere to modern personnel management techniques and practices in common use in the public and private sectors. The performance appraisal system adopted shall use a rating scale of:

- a. Five levels, with the top two levels qualifying for performance increases or
- b. Other than five levels, with the levels qualifying for performance increases to be designated by the State Personnel Commission, for those job classifications in those employing units where a department, agency, or institution demonstrates to the State Personnel Commission that some number of levels other than five would be appropriate, and the State Personnel Commission, after conducting a public hearing, determines that a rating scale of other than five levels is more appropriate than five levels for a particular job classification within a particular employing unit.

There shall be a presumption that a five-level system is the most appropriate system, and the department, agency, or institution must demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that a different system is more appropriate. The performance appraisal system adopted shall adhere to modern personnel management techniques and practices in common use in the public and private sectors. Departments, agencies, and institutions with existing performance appraisal systems which use a rating scale which is not consistent with the system described above shall have until July 1, 1991, to bring their systems into compliance with this subsection.

- (3) The State Personnel Director shall help departments, agencies, and institutions to establish and administer their performance appraisal systems and shall provide initial and ongoing training in performance appraisal and performance system administration.
- (4) An employee whose performance exceeds performance requirements shall receive a performance increase unless the employee's supervisor justifies in writing to the employee the decision not to award the performance increase. An employee whose performance does not exceed performance requirements shall not receive a performance increase. Standards for performance and standards for performance pay increases may be established for each department, agency, or institution. These standards may not set limits so as to preclude an

- employee whose performance exceeds performance requirements from consideration for an increase. An employee whose performance is rated at or above level four of the rating scale shall be eligible to receive, subject to the rules and regulations of the Commission, a performance bonus unless the employee's supervisor justifies in writing to the employee the decision not to award the performance bonus. Other than the Commission, no department, agency, or institution shall set limits so as to preclude an employee whose performance exceeds management's expectations and performance requirements from consideration for a performance bonus.
- An employee whose performance is rated at or above level three of the (4a) rating scale shall receive a career growth recognition award unless the employee's superviser justifies in writing to the employee the decision not to give the career growth recognition award. If an employee's salary is below the midpoint of the salary range, the employee shall receive a career growth recognition award equal to three percent (3%) of the midpoint of the salary range. If an employee's salary is above the midpoint of the salary range, the employee shall receive a career growth recognition award equal to two percent (2%) of the midpoint of the salary range. In no event shall any award increase an employee's compensation above the maximum of the range. The Commission may provide for fair treatment of employees whose salaries are near the midpoint of their salary ranges. Other than the Commission, no agency, department, or institution shall set limits so as to preclude an employee whose performance meets or exceeds management's expectations and performance requirements from receiving a career growth recognition award.
- (4b) An employee whose performance is rated at or above level two of the rating scale and who is not involved in the final written stage of the disciplinary procedure shall receive a cost-of-living increase. Other than the Commission, no agency, department, or institution shall set limits or initiate written disciplinary procedures for the purpose of precluding an eligible employee from receiving a cost-of-living adjustment.
 - (5) The State Personnel Director shall set the performance increase ranges allowable for levels of performance that exceed performance requirements. An employee whose performance exceeds expectations shall receive a percentage increase equal to the midrange value for his rating, unless the superviser can justify an increase above or below the midrange value within the allowable range. The superviser shall give an employee written justification of his decision to award an increase above or below the midrange value when the employee requests written justification. A supervisor's performance appraisal plan, evaluation standards for each employee, increase amounts, with justification, shall be reviewed and approved by that supervisor's next higher level supervisor. If an employee is otherwise eligible for a performance increase and is at the top of (but does not exceed) a pay scale, the employee shall receive a performance increase in the form of a performance bonus.

If an employee is otherwise eligible for a performance increase and is at the top of (but does not exceed) a pay seale, the employee shalls receive a performance increase in the form of a performance bonus. This performance bonus shall be a one time, lump sum award paid separately from any other payment to the employee for the year. Such award shall not serve to increase the base pay of such employee. An award of this bonus pursuant to this subdivision does not affect: a. The value of the top of any pay seale; and b. The employee's current salary, which will remain at the top of the pay seale. Except as provided in this subdivision, all other provisions of this subsection shall apply to an employee at the top of a pay seale. (6) The State Personnel Director may suspend—rescind any performance increase-bonus or career growth recognition award that does not appear to meet the intent of the provisions of the performance pay—appraisal system and require the originating department, agency, or institution to reconsider or justify the increase. An employee who disputes the fairness of his or her performance evaluation—appraisal or the sufficiency—amount of a performance bonus increase—awarded or who believes that he or she was unfairly denied a performance increase—bonus or career growth recognition award shall first discuss the problem with his or her supervisor. Appeals of the supervisor's decision shall be made only to the grievance committee or internal performance review board of the department, agency, or institution which shall make a recommendation to the head of the department, agency, or institution which shall make a recommendation to the head of the department, agency, or institution which shall make a recommendation to the head of the department, agency, or institution which shall make a recommendation to the head of the department, agency, or institution with a performance review board or, if it includes employee members, to use its existing griev	1		and individual employee ratings and recommended performance
