A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT TO MAKE CHANGES IN THE LAWS PERTAINING TO ALIMONY.
The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. G.S. 50-16.1, 50-16.2, 50-16.3, 50-16.5, and 50-16.11 are repealed.

Sec. 2. Chapter 50 of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new sections to read:

"§ 50-16.1A. Definitions.

As used in this Chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) 'Alimony' means an order for payment for the support and maintenance of a spouse or former spouse, periodically or in a lump sum, for a specified or for an indefinite term, ordered in an action for divorce, whether absolute or from bed and board, or in an action for alimony without divorce.

(2) 'Dependent spouse' means a spouse, whether husband or wife, who is actually substantially dependent upon the other spouse for his or her maintenance and support or is substantially in need of maintenance and support from the other spouse.

- 1 (3) 'Marital misconduct' means any of the following acts that occur during 2 the marriage and prior to or on the date of separation:
- 3 a. Illicit sexual behavior. For the purpose of this section, illicit 4 sexual behavior means acts of sexual or deviate sexual
5 intercourse, deviate sexual acts, or sexual acts defined in G.S. 14-
6 27.1(4), voluntarily engaged in by a spouse with someone other
7 than the other spouse;
- 8 b. Involuntary separation of the spouses in consequence of a
9 criminal act committed prior to the proceeding in which alimony
10 is sought;
- 11 c. Abandonment of the other spouse;
- 12 d. Malicious turning out-of-doors of the other spouse;
- 13 e. Cruel or barbarous treatment endangering the life of the other 14 spouse;
- 15 f. Indignities rendering the condition of the other spouse intolerable
16 and life burdensome;
- 17 g. Reckless spending of the income of either party, or the 18 destruction, waste, diversion, or concealment of assets;
- 19 h. Excessive use of alcohol or drugs so as to render the condition of 20 the other spouse intolerable and life burdensome;
- 21 i. Willful failure to provide necessary subsistence according to 22 one's means and condition so as to render the condition of the 23 other spouse intolerable and life burdensome.
- 24 (4) 'Postseparation support' means spousal support to be paid until the 25 earlier of either the date specified in the order of postseparation support,
26 or an order awarding or denying alimony. Postseparation support may 27 be ordered in an action for divorce, whether absolute or from bed and 28 board, for annulment, or for alimony without divorce.
- 29 (5) 'Supporting spouse' means a spouse, whether husband or wife, upon 30 whom the other spouse is actually substantially dependent for 31 maintenance and support or from whom such spouse is substantially in 32 need of maintenance and support.

33 "§ 50-16.2A. Postseparation support.

34 (a) In an action brought pursuant to Chapter 50 of the General Statutes, either
35 party may move for postseparation support. The verified pleading, verified motion, or 36 affidavit of the moving party shall set forth the factual basis for the relief requested.

37 (b) In ordering postseparation support, the court shall base its award on the 38 financial needs of the parties, considering the parties' accustomed standard of living, the 39 present employment income and other recurring earnings of each party from any source, 40 their income-earning abilities, the separate and marital debt service obligations, those 41 expenses reasonably necessary to support each of the parties, and each party's respective 42 legal obligations to support any other persons.

1 (c) Except when subsection (d) of this section applies, a dependent spouse is
2 entitled to an award of postseparation support if, based on consideration of the factors
3 specified in subsection (b) of this section, the court finds that the resources of the 4 dependent spouse are not adequate to meet his or her reasonable needs and the supporting 5 spouse has the ability to pay.

6 (d) At a hearing on postseparation support, the judge shall consider marital 7 misconduct by the dependent spouse occurring prior to or on the date of separation in 8 deciding whether to award postseparation support and in deciding the amount of 9 postseparation support. When the judge considers these acts by the dependent spouse, 10 the judge shall also consider any marital misconduct by the supporting spouse in deciding 11 whether to award postseparation support and in deciding the amount of postseparation
12 support.

13 (e) Nothing herein shall prevent a court from considering incidents of post date-of-14 separation marital misconduct as corroborating evidence supporting other evidence that 15 marital misconduct occurred during the marriage and prior to date of separation.

16 "§ 50-16.3A. Alimony.

17 (a) Entitlement. – In an action brought pursuant to Chapter 50 of the General
18 Statutes, either party may move for alimony. The court shall award alimony to the 19 dependent spouse upon a finding that one spouse is a dependent spouse, that the other 20 spouse is a supporting spouse, and that an award of alimony is equitable after considering
21 all relevant factors, including those set out in subsection (b) of this section. If the court 22 finds that the dependent spouse participated in more than one recent act of illicit sexual 23 behavior, as defined in G.S. 50-16.1A(3)a., during the marriage and prior to or on the 24 date of separation, the court shall not award alimony.

25 The claim for alimony may be heard on the merits prior to the entry of a judgment for 26 equitable distribution, and if awarded, the issues of amount and of whether a spouse is a 27 dependent or supporting spouse may be reviewed by the court after the conclusion of the 28 equitable distribution claim.

29 (b) Amount and Duration. – The court shall exercise its discretion in determining 30 the amount, duration, and manner of payment of alimony. The duration of the award may 31 be for a specified or for an indefinite term. In determining the amount, duration, and 32 manner of payment of alimony, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including:

33 (1) The marital misconduct of either of the spouses. Nothing herein shall 34 prevent a court from considering incidents of post date-of-separation
35 marital misconduct as corroborating evidence supporting other evidence
36 that marital misconduct occurred during the marriage and prior to date
37 of separation;

38 (2) The relative earnings and earning capacities of the spouses;

39 (3) The ages and the physical, mental, and emotional conditions of the 40 spouses;

41 (4) The amount and sources of earned and unearned income of both
42 spouses, including, but not limited to, earnings, dividends, and benefits
43 such as medical, retirement, insurance, social security, or others;

- 1 (5) The duration of the marriage;
2 (6) The contribution by one spouse to the education, training, or increased
3 earning power of the other spouse;
4 (7) The extent to which the earning power, expenses, or financial 5 obligations of a spouse will be affected by reason of serving as the 6 custodian of a minor child;
7 (8) The standard of living of the spouses established during the marriage;
8 (9) The relative education of the spouses and the time necessary to acquire 9 sufficient education or training to enable the spouse seeking alimony to 10 find employment to meet his or her reasonable economic needs;
11 (10) The relative assets and liabilities of the spouses and the relative debt 12 service requirements of the spouses, including legal obligations of 13 support;
14 (11) The property brought to the marriage by either spouse;
15 (12) The contribution of a spouse as homemaker;
16 (13) The relative needs of the spouses;
17 (14) The federal, State, and local tax ramifications of the alimony award;
18 (15) Any other factor relating to the economic circumstances of the parties
19 that the court finds to be just and proper.

20 (c) Findings of Fact. – The court shall set forth the reasons for its award or denial 21 of alimony and, if making an award, the reasons for its amount, duration, and manner of 22 payment. Except where there is a motion before the court for summary judgment,
23 judgment on the pleadings, or other motion for which the Rules of Civil Procedure do not 24 require special findings of fact, the court shall make a specific finding of fact on each of 25 the factors in subsection (b) of this section if evidence is offered on that factor.

26 (d) In the claim for alimony, either spouse may request a jury trial on the issue of 27 marital misconduct as defined in G.S. 50-16.1A. If a jury trial is requested, the jury will 28 decide whether either spouse or both have established marital misconduct."

29 Sec. 3. G.S. 50-16.4 reads as rewritten:

30 "§ 50-16.4. Counsel fees in actions for ~~alimony~~-alimony, postseparation support.

31 At any time that a dependent spouse would be entitled to alimony pursuant to G.S. 50-
32 16.3A, or alimony pendente lite postseparation support pursuant to G.S. 50-16.3, 50-16.2A,
33 the court may, upon application of such spouse, enter an order for reasonable counsel fees
34 for the benefit of such spouse, to be paid and secured by the supporting spouse in the 35 same manner as alimony."

36 Sec. 4. G.S. 50-16.6 reads as rewritten:

37 "§ 50-16.6. When ~~alimony~~-alimony, postseparation support, counsel fees not 38 payable.

39 (a) ~~Alimony or alimony pendente lite shall not be payable when adultery is~~ 40 ~~pleaded in bar of demand for alimony or alimony pendente lite, made in an action or~~ 41 ~~cross action, and the issue of adultery is found against the spouse seeking alimony, but~~
42 ~~this shall not be a bar to reasonable counsel fees.~~

1 (b) Alimony, ~~alimony pendente lite, postseparation support,~~ and counsel fees may be
2 barred by an express provision of a valid separation agreement or premarital agreement
3 so long as the agreement is ~~performed, performed,~~ by Chapter 31A of the General
4 Statutes, or by a judgment pursuant to G.S. 50-11 or G.S. 50-19."

5 Sec. 5. G.S. 50-16.7 reads as rewritten:

6 "§ 50-16.7. How alimony and ~~alimony pendente lite~~ postseparation support paid;
7 enforcement of decree.

8 (a) Alimony or ~~alimony pendente lite~~ postseparation support shall be paid by lump
9 sum payment, periodic payments, or by transfer of title or possession of personal property
10 or any interest therein, or a security interest in or possession of real property, as the court
11 may order. In every case in which either alimony or ~~alimony pendente lite~~ postseparation
12 support is allowed and provision is also made for support of minor children, the order
13 shall separately state and identify each allowance.

14 (b) The court may require the supporting spouse to secure the payment of alimony
15 or ~~alimony pendente lite~~ postseparation support so ordered by means of a bond, mortgage,
16 or deed of trust, or any other means ordinarily used to secure an obligation to pay money
17 or transfer property, or by requiring the supporting spouse to execute an assignment of 18 wages, salary, or other income due or to become due.

19 (c) If the court requires the transfer of real or personal property or an interest
20 therein as a part of an order for alimony or ~~alimony pendente lite~~ postseparation support as 21 provided in subsection (a) or for the securing thereof, the court may also enter an order
22 which shall transfer title, as provided in G.S. 1A-1, Rule 70 and G.S. 1-228.

23 (d) The remedy of arrest and bail, as provided in Article 34 of Chapter 1 of the 24 General Statutes, shall be available in actions for alimony or ~~alimony pendente lite~~
25 postseparation support as in other cases.

26 (e) The remedies of attachment and garnishment, as provided in Article 35 of 27 Chapter 1 and Article 9 of Chapter 110 of the General Statutes, shall be available in 28 actions for alimony or ~~alimony pendente lite~~ postseparation support as in other cases, and 29 for such purposes the dependent spouse shall be deemed a creditor of the supporting 30 spouse.

31 (f) The remedy of injunction, as provided in Article 37 of Chapter 1 of the 32 General Statutes and G.S. 1A-1, Rule 65, shall be available in actions for alimony or 33 ~~alimony pendente lite~~ postseparation support as in other cases.

34 (g) Receivers, as provided in Article 38 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes, may 35 be appointed in actions for alimony or ~~alimony pendente lite~~ postseparation support as in 36 other cases.

37 (h) A dependent spouse for whose benefit an order for the payment of alimony or 38 ~~alimony pendente lite~~ postseparation support has been entered shall be a creditor within the 39 meaning of Article 3 of Chapter 39 of the General Statutes pertaining to fraudulent 40 conveyances.

41 (i) A judgment for alimony or ~~alimony pendente lite~~ postseparation support
42 obtained in an action therefor shall not be a lien against real property unless the judgment
43 expressly so provides, sets out the amount of the lien in a sum certain, and adequately

1 describes the real property affected; but past-due periodic payments may by motion in the 2 cause or by a separate action be reduced to judgment which shall be a lien as other
3 judgments.

4 (j) Any order for the payment of alimony or ~~alimony pendente lite postseparation~~
5 support is enforceable by proceedings for civil contempt, and its disobedience may be
6 punished by proceedings for criminal contempt, as provided in Chapter 5A of the General
7 Statutes.

8 Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 1-294 or G.S. 1-289, an order for the periodic 9 payment of alimony that has been appealed to the appellate division is enforceable in the 10 trial court by proceedings for civil contempt during the pendency of the appeal. Upon 11 motion of an aggrieved party, the court of the appellate division in which the appeal is 12 pending may stay any order for civil contempt entered for alimony until the appeal is 13 decided if justice requires.

14 (k) The remedies provided by Chapter 1 of the General Statutes Article 28, 15 Execution; Article 29B, Execution Sales; and Article 31, Supplemental Proceedings, shall 16 be available for the enforcement of judgments for alimony and ~~alimony pendente lite~~
17 postseparation support as in other cases, but amounts so payable shall not constitute a
18 debt as to which property is exempt from execution as provided in Article 16 of Chapter
19 1C of the General Statutes.

20 (l) The specific enumeration of remedies in this section shall not constitute a bar
21 to remedies otherwise available."

22 Sec. 6. G.S. 50-16.8 reads as rewritten:

23 "§ 50-16.8. Procedure in actions for alimony and ~~alimony pendente lite. postseparation~~
24 support.

25 (a) ~~The procedure in actions for alimony and actions for alimony pendente lite~~
26 ~~shall be as in other civil actions except as provided in this section and in G.S. 50-19.~~

27 (b) ~~Payment of alimony may be ordered:~~

28 (1) ~~Upon application of the dependent spouse in an action by such spouse~~
29 ~~for divorce, either absolute or from bed and board; or~~

30 (2) ~~Upon application of the dependent spouse in a separate action instituted~~
31 ~~for the purpose of securing an order for alimony without divorce; or~~

32 (3) ~~Upon application of the dependent spouse as a cross action in a suit for~~ 33 ~~divorce, whether absolute or from bed and board, or a proceeding for~~
34 ~~alimony without divorce, instituted by the other spouse.~~

35 (e) ~~A cross action for divorce, either absolute or from bed and board, shall be~~
36 ~~allowable in an action for alimony without divorce.~~

37 (d) ~~Payment of alimony pendente lite may be ordered:~~

38 (1) ~~Upon application of the dependent spouse in an action by such spouse~~
39 ~~for absolute divorce, divorce from bed and board, annulment, or for~~ 40 ~~alimony without divorce; or~~

41 (2) ~~Upon application of the dependent spouse as a cross action in a suit for~~ 42 ~~divorce, whether absolute or from bed and board, annulment, or for~~
43 ~~alimony without divorce, instituted by the other spouse.~~

1 (e) ~~No order for alimony pendente lite shall be made unless the supporting spouse~~
2 ~~shall have had five days' notice thereof; but if the supporting spouse shall have~~
3 ~~abandoned the dependent spouse and left the State, or shall be in parts unknown, or is~~
4 ~~about to remove or dispose of his or her property for the purpose of defeating the claim~~
5 ~~of the dependent spouse, no notice is necessary.~~

6 (f) ~~When an application is made for alimony pendente lite, the party shall be heard~~
7 ~~orally, upon affidavit, verified pleading, or other proof, and the judge shall find the facts~~
8 ~~from the evidence so presented.~~

9 (g) ~~When a district court having jurisdiction of the matter shall have been~~ 10 ~~established, application for alimony pendente lite shall be made to such district court, and~~
11 ~~may be heard without a jury by a judge of said court at any time.~~

12 (h) ~~In any case where a claim is made for alimony without divorce, when there is~~
13 ~~a minor child, the pleading shall set forth the name and age of each such child; and if~~
14 ~~there be no minor child, the pleading shall so state. When an application is made for~~ 15 ~~postseparation support, the court may base its award on a verified pleading, affidavit, or~~ 16 ~~other competent evidence. The court shall set forth the reasons for its award or denial of~~ 17 ~~postseparation support, and if making an award, the reasons for its amount, duration, and~~ 18 ~~manner of payment.~~"

19 Sec. 7. G.S. 50-16.9 reads as rewritten:

20 "§ 50-16.9. Modification of order.

21 (a) An order of a court of this State for alimony or ~~alimony pendente lite,~~
22 ~~postseparation support,~~ whether contested or entered by consent, may be modified or 23 vacated at any time, upon motion in the cause and a showing of changed circumstances
24 by either party or anyone interested. This section shall not apply to orders entered by 25 consent before October 1, 1967.

26 Any motion to modify or terminate alimony or ~~alimony pendente lite~~ ~~postseparation~~ 27 ~~support~~ based on a resumption of marital relations between parties who remain married to 28 each other shall be determined pursuant to G.S. 52-10.2.

29 (b) ~~If a dependent spouse who is receiving alimony under a judgment or order of a~~
30 ~~court of this State shall remarry, said alimony shall terminate. If a dependent spouse who~~ 31 ~~is receiving postseparation support or alimony from a supporting spouse under a~~
32 ~~judgment or order of a court of this State remarries or engages in cohabitation, the~~ 33 ~~postseparation support or alimony shall terminate. Postseparation support or alimony~~
34 ~~shall terminate upon the death of either the supporting or the dependent spouse.~~

35 As used in this subsection, cohabitation means the act of two adults dwelling together
36 continuously and habitually in a private heterosexual relationship, even if this 37 relationship is not solemnized by marriage, or a private homosexual relationship.
38 Cohabitation is evidenced by the voluntary mutual assumption of those marital rights, 39 duties, and obligations which are usually manifested by married people, and which 40 include, but are not necessarily dependent on, sexual relations. Nothing in this section
41 shall be construed to make lawful conduct which is made unlawful by other statutes.

42 (c) When an order for alimony has been entered by a court of another jurisdiction,
43 a court of this State may, upon gaining jurisdiction over the person of both parties in a

1 civil action instituted for that purpose, and upon a showing of changed circumstances,
2 enter a new order for alimony which modifies or supersedes such order for alimony to the 3 extent that it could have been so modified in the jurisdiction where granted."

4 Sec. 8. G.S. 50-11(c) reads as rewritten:

5 "(c) A divorce obtained pursuant to G.S. 50-5.1 or G.S. 50-6 shall not affect the 6 rights of either spouse with respect to any action for alimony or ~~alimony pendente lite~~
7 postseparation support pending at the time the judgment for divorce is granted.
8 Furthermore, a judgment of absolute divorce shall not impair or destroy the right of a 9 spouse to receive alimony or ~~alimony pendente lite~~ postseparation support or affect any 10 other rights provided for such spouse under any judgment or decree of a court rendered
11 before or at the time of the judgment of absolute divorce."

12 Sec. 9. G.S. 50-13.4(e) reads as rewritten:

13 "(e) Payment for the support of a minor child shall be paid by lump sum payment, 14 periodic payments, or by transfer of title or possession of personal property of any 15 interest therein, or a security interest in or possession of real property, as the court may 16 order. In every case in which payment for the support of a minor child is ordered and 17 alimony or ~~alimony pendente lite~~ postseparation support is also ordered, the order shall 18 separately state and identify each allowance."

19 Sec. 10. G.S. 50-19 reads as rewritten:

20 "§ 50-19. Maintenance of certain actions as independent actions permissible.

21 (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 13(a), any action for 22 divorce under the provisions of G.S. 50-5.1 or G.S. 50-6 that is filed as an independent, 23 separate action may be prosecuted during the pendency of an action for:

24 (1) Alimony;

25 (2) ~~Alimony pendente lite~~; Postseparation support;

26 (3) Custody and support of minor children;

27 (4) Custody and support of a person incapable of self-support upon 28 reaching majority; or

29 (5) Divorce pursuant to G.S. 50-5.1 or G.S. 50-6.

30 (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 13(a), any action described 31 in subdivision (a)(1) through (a)(5) of this section that is filed as an independent, separate
32 action may be prosecuted during the pendency of an action for divorce under G.S. 50-5.1
33 or G.S. 50-6."

34 Sec. 11. G.S. 52B-7(b) reads as rewritten:

35 "(b) If a provision of a premarital agreement modifies or eliminates spousal support 36 and that modification or elimination causes one party to the agreement to be eligible for 37 support under a program of public assistance at the time of separation or marital 38 dissolution, a court, notwithstanding the terms of the agreement, may require the other
39 party to provide support to the extent necessary to avoid that eligibility. Before the court
40 orders support under this subsection, the court must find that the party for whom support
41 is ordered is a dependent spouse, as defined by G.S. ~~50-16.1, 50-16.1A~~, and that ~~there are~~ 42 grounds for alimony under G.S. 50-16.2 or alimony pendente lite under G.S. 50-16.3. ~~the~~

1 requirements of G.S. 50-16.2A regarding postseparation support or G.S. 50-16.3A
2 regarding alimony have been met."

3 Sec. 12. This act becomes effective October 1, 1995, and applies to civil 4 actions filed on or after that date. This act shall not apply to pending litigation.
