9 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

10 Section 1. The General Statutes of North Carolina are amended by adding a 11 new Chapter to read:

12 "CHAPTER 40B.

13 "PRIVATE PROPERTY RIGHTS RESTORATION ACT.

14 "§ 40B-1. Short title.

15 This Chapter may be cited as the Private Property Rights Restoration Act.

16 "§ 40B-2. Cause of action.

17 (a) An owner of real property shall have a cause of action against the State or a 18 local political subdivision of the State if:

19 (1) The application of a land-use regulation, ruling, statute, ordinance, or 20 dedication, or the baseless or arbitrary denial of a permit, license, or

1 authorization, restricts, limits, or infringes a right to said real property
2 that would otherwise exist in the absence of the application or denial;
3 and

4 (2) The application or denial described in subdivision (1) of this subsection
5 would result in a nonnegligible reduction in the fair market value of the 6 affected portion of real property.

7 (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of this 8 section, a prima facie case against the State or a political subdivision of the State shall be 9 established if the government action described in subdivision (a)(1) of this section results
10 in a temporary or permanent diminution of fair market value of the affected portion of 11 real property in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) ten percent (10%) or more, or (ii) five 12 thousand dollars ($5,000) or more.

13 "§ 40B-3. Applicability; limitation period.

14 (a) This Chapter shall apply to the application of any statute, regulation, or 15 ordinance to real property, if such application occurred or occurs after October 1, 1985.

16 (b) The statute of limitation for actions brought under this Chapter shall be seven 17 years from the application of any statute, regulation, or ordinance of the State or a local 18 political subdivision of the State to any affected property under this Chapter, except that 19 in a case in which damages by regulation occurred prior to October 1, 1995, the statute of 20 limitation shall be March 31, 1996.

21 "§ 40B-4. Recovery by owner; interest on compensation.

22 (a) In any action filed pursuant to this Chapter, the owner of property regulated
23 after October 1, 1995, may elect to recover:

24 (1) A sum equal to the diminution in the fair market value of the portion of 25 the property affected by the application of a statute, regulation, or 26 ordinance as described in G.S. 40B-1 and retain title;

27 (2) The fair market value of the affected portion of the regulated property
28 prior to the government action and relinquish title to the portion of the 29 property regulated; or

30 (3) Voidance of the regulation as to the property and payment of interest on 31 the full amount the property was diminished in value for the period the 32 regulation was in effect.

33 (b) In any action filed pursuant to this Chapter, the owner of property regulated
34 prior to October 1, 1995, and after October 1, 1985, may elect to recover by voidance of 35 the application of the statute, regulation, or ordinance as to the property. If the statute,
36 regulation, or ordinance was applied unlawfully or without due process, the owner may 37 also elect to recover compounded interest on the amount of the property's diminution of 38 value for the time period beginning with the date of the application of the regulation and 39 ending on the date the regulating entity tenders payment. In the case of a pre-October 40 1995 regulation, the government will not be liable for double damages as provided for in 41 G.S. 40B-7.

42 "§ 40B-5. Jurisdiction; compensation request proceeding.

1       (a) An owner may apply for compensation from the State or a local political
2 subdivision of the State for regulation of the owner's property as described in G.S. 40B-
3 2(a). If the owner's claim for compensation is denied by the regulating entity or if the 4 regulating entity provides less compensation than the amount claimed or fails to act on 5 the claim within 90 days of submission, the owner may seek compensation by filing a
6 civil action in the superior court of the county in which the affected real property lies. In 7 the alternative, the property owner and the regulating entity may engage in a binding
8 arbitration proceeding.

9       (b) In any civil action for compensation pursuant to this Chapter, the owner upon 10 demand shall have the right to a jury trial.

11       (c) If more than one regulating entity may be liable for payment of compensation,
12 the court award shall determine the amount of compensation to be paid by each
13 regulating entity.

14       (d) Compensation shall include compounded interest calculated from the date of 15 the devaluation of the property by the application of the regulation until the date the 16 regulating entity tenders payment.

17 "§ 40B-6. Constitutional or statutory rights not restricted.

18       The provisions of this Chapter are in addition to and not in lieu of compensation
19 required under the North Carolina Constitution or the Constitution of the United States.
20 Nothing in this Chapter shall limit any right or remedy which any person or class of 21 persons may have under the Constitution of the United States or the North Carolina
22 Constitution.

23 "§ 40B-7. Provision for double damages.

24       (a) If the challenged statute, regulation, or ordinance is applied to the property
25 damaged thereby without due process of law or due local procedure, the governmental 26 entity responsible shall be liable for damages double the actual damage provided in G.S.
27 40B-4.

28       (b) Upon the affected owner's presenting a prima facie showing that the regulation,
29 statute, or ordinance was applied without due and lawful procedures, the burden is upon 30 the regulating entity to rebut the presumption of illegality by clear and convincing 31 evidence.

32       (c) Upon an establishment of a prima facie case of governmental violation of due
33 process in applying the regulation, the subject regulation or statute shall be declared void
34 and the affected property owner awarded double damages.

35 "§ 40B-8. Award of costs; attorneys' fees.

36       (a) Reasonable attorneys' fees and all reasonable expenses, including appraisal
37 fees, at trial and on appeal, shall be awarded to the property owner if the amount of 38 compensation assessed by the verdict exceeds the regulating entity's provision for 39 compensation.

40       (b) All awards of judgment for plaintiff, including recovery for damages and costs
41 of litigation, shall be paid out of funds of the government entity responsible for applying 42 the statute, regulation, or ordinance effecting the diminution in the fair market value of

1 the affected portion of the real property. Payment shall not be made from a judgment
2 fund.

3 "§ 40B-9. Public nuisance exception.

4 (a) No compensation shall be required by this Chapter if (i) the owner's use or 5 proposed use or proposed use of the property amounts to a public nuisance as commonly
6 understood and defined by common law or statutory law but shall be limited to those uses
7 whose prohibition inheres in the title to the property, and (ii) the challenged regulation
8 was applied due process.

9 (b) To bar an award of damages under this section, the State or the local political 10 subdivision of the State applying the challenged statute, regulation, or ordinance shall 11 have the burden of proof to establish that the use or proposed use of the property is a 12 public nuisance, as defined in subsection (a) of this section.

13 "§ 40B-10. Requirement of notice to owner prior to regulation by zoning.

14 Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 18 of Chapter 153A of the General Statutes
15 or Article 16 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes, before any person, including the 16 State or a local political subdivision of the State, files a zoning petition against the 17 property of another person, at least 45 days prior to the filing date, the filing party shall 18 notify the affected owner by certified mail of the person's intention to file the petition and 19 enclose in the notice a copy of the petition."

20 Sec. 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 1995.
