Referred to: Judiciary II/Election Laws

March 8, 1995

1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2 AN ACT TO BE KNOWN AS THE NORTH CAROLINA UNIFORM CUSTODIAL 3 TRUST ACT AND TO MAKE CONFORMING AMENDMENTS TO THE POWER
4 OF ATTORNEY STATUTES, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL 5 STATUTES COMMISSION.

6 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

7 Section 1. The General Statutes are amended by adding a new Chapter to read 8 as follows:

9 "CHAPTER 33B.

10 "NORTH CAROLINA UNIFORM CUSTODIAL TRUST ACT.

11 "§ 33B-1. Definitions.

12 As used in this act:

13 (1) 'Adult' means an individual who is at least 21 years of age.

14 (2) 'Beneficiary' means an individual for whom property has been 15 transferred to or held under a declaration of trust by a custodial trustee 16 for the individual's use and benefit under this act.

17 (3) 'Guardian of the estate' means a guardian appointed for the purpose of 18 managing the property, estate, and business affairs of a ward, or a 19 person legally authorized to perform substantially the same functions.

1 As used in this act the term 'guardian of the estate' includes a general 2 guardian or guardian of the estate appointed under the provisions of 3 Chapter 35A of the General Statutes.

4 (4) 'Court' means the clerk of superior court of this State.

5 (5) 'Custodial trust property' means an interest in property transferred to or 6 held under a declaration of trust by a custodial trustee under this act and 7 the income from and proceeds of that interest.

8 (6) 'Custodial trustee' means a person designated as trustee of a custodial 9 trust under this act or a substitute or successor to the person designated.

10 (7) 'Guardian of the person' means a guardian appointed for the purpose of 11 performing duties relating to the care, custody, and control of a ward, 12 but not a person who is only a guardian ad litem. As used in this act the 13 term 'guardian of the person' includes a general guardian or guardian of 14 the person appointed under the provisions of Chapter 35A of the 15 General Statutes.

16 (8) 'Incapacitated' means lacking the ability to manage property and 17 business affairs effectively by reason of mental illness, mental 18 deficiency, physical illness or disability, chronic use of drugs, chronic 19 intoxication, confinement, detention by a foreign power, disappearance, 20 being under 21 years of age, or other disabling cause.

21 (9) 'Legal representative' means a personal representative or guardian of the 22 estate.

23 (10) 'Member of the beneficiary's family' means a beneficiary's spouse, 24 descendant, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, uncle or aunt, whether 25 of the whole or half blood or by adoption.

31 perform substantially the same function, or a successor to any of them.

32 (13) 'State' means a state, territory, or possession of the United States, the 33 District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

34 (14) 'Transferor' means a person who creates a custodial trust by transfer or 35 declaration.

36 (15) 'Trust company' means a financial institution, corporation, or other legal 37 entity, authorized to exercise general trust powers in North Carolina.

38 (16) 'General guardian' means a guardian of both the estate and the person.

39 "§ 33B-2. Custodial trust; general.

40 (a) A person may create a custodial trust of property by a written transfer of the 41 property to a trust company or an adult other than the transferor executed in any lawful 42 manner, naming as beneficiary an individual, who may be the transferor, in which the 43 transferee is designated, in substance, as custodial trustee under the North Carolina

1 Uniform Custodial Trust Act. A transfer is executed in a lawful manner if the 2 formalities, if any, of the transfer of the particular property necessary under general 3 principles of law are satisfied.

4 (b) An adult may create a custodial trust of property by a written declaration which 5 names as beneficiary an individual other than the declarant. The declaration shall be 6 evidenced by registration of the property or by other instrument of declaration executed 7 in any lawful manner, describing the property and designating the declarant, in substance, 8 as custodial trustee under the North Carolina Uniform Custodial Trust Act. A registration 9 or other declaration of trust for the sole benefit of the declarant is not a custodial trust 10 under this act. A registration or declaration is executed in a lawful manner if the 11 formalities, if any, of the transfer of the beneficial interest in the particular property under 12 general principles of law are satisfied.

13 (c) Title to custodial trust property is in the custodial trustee, and the beneficial 14 interest is in the beneficiary.

15 (d) Except as provided in subsection (e) of this section, a transferor may not 16 terminate a custodial trust.

17 (e) The beneficiary, if not incapacitated, or the guardian of the estate of an 18 incapacitated beneficiary, may terminate a custodial trust by delivering to the custodial 19 trustee a writing signed by the beneficiary or guardian of the estate declaring the 20 termination. If not previously terminated, the custodial trust terminates on the death of 21 the beneficiary.

22 (f) Any person may augment existing custodial trust property by the addition of 23 other property pursuant to a written instrument satisfying the requirements of subsections 24 (a) or (b) of this section.

25 (g) The transferor may designate, or authorize the designation of, a successor 26 custodial trustee in the trust instrument.

27 (h) This act does not displace or restrict other means of creating trusts. A trust, the 28 terms of which do not conform to this act, may be enforceable according to its terms 29 under the law.

30 "§ 33B-3. Custodial trust to begin in the future.

31 (a) A person may create a custodial trust to begin in the future by designating the 32 transferee in substance 'as custodial trustee for (name of beneficiary) under 33 the North Carolina Uniform Custodial Trust Act'. A designation under this section may 34 be made in:

35 (1) A will;

36 (2) A trust;

37 (3) An insurance policy;

38 (4) A deed;

39 (5) A payable-on-death account;

40 (6) An instrument exercising a power of appointment, provided that the 41 donor of the power has not expressly prohibited the exercise of the 42 power in favor of a custodial trustee, and provided further that the 43 beneficiary of the custodial trust is a permissible object of the power,

1 although the custodial trustee need not be a permissible object of the 2 power; or

3 (7) A writing designating a beneficiary of contractual rights, including but 4 not limited to rights under a pension or profit sharing plan, which is 5 registered with or delivered to the fiduciary, payor, issuer, or obligor of 6 the contractual right.

7 (b) Persons may be designated as substitute or successor custodial trustees to 8 whom the property must be paid or transferred in the order named if the preceding 9 designated custodial trustee is unable or unwilling to serve.

10 "§ 33B-4. Form and effect of receipt and acceptance by custodial trustee; 11 jurisdiction.

12 (a) Obligations of a custodial trustee, including the obligation to follow directions 13 of the beneficiary, arise under this act upon the custodial trustee's acceptance, express or 14 implied, of the custodial trust property.

15 (b) The custodial trustee's acceptance may be evidenced by a writing stating in 16 substance:

17 'CUSTODIAL TRUSTEE'S RECEIPT AND ACCEPTANCE

18 I,, (name of custodial trustee) acknowledge receipt of the custodial trust 19 property described below or in the attached instrument and accept the custodial trust as 20 custodial trustee for (name of beneficiary) under the North Carolina 21 Uniform Custodial Trust Act. I undertake to administer and distribute the custodial trust 22 property pursuant to the North Carolina Uniform Custodial Trust Act. My obligations as 23 custodial trustee are subject to the directions of the beneficiary unless the beneficiary is 24 designated as, is, or becomes incapacitated. The custodial trust property consists of 28 (Signature of Custodial Trustee)'

29 (c) Upon accepting custodial trust property, a person designated as custodial 30 trustee under this act is subject to personal jurisdiction in this State with respect to any 31 matter relating to the custodial trust.

32 "§ 33B-5. Transfer to custodial trustee by fiduciary or obligor; facility of payment.

33 (a) A person, including a fiduciary other than a custodial trustee, who holds 34 property of or owes a debt to an incapacitated individual not having a guardian of the 35 estate may make a transfer to an adult member of the beneficiary's family or to a trust 36 company as custodial trustee for the use and benefit of the incapacitated individual. If the 37 value of the property or the debt exceeds twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), the transfer 38 is not effective unless authorized by the court.

39 (b) A written acknowledgment of delivery, signed by a custodial trustee, is a 40 sufficient receipt and discharge for property transferred to the custodial trustee pursuant 41 to this section.

42 (c) This section shall not apply when the disposition of the property has been 43 directed by an instrument designating a custodial trustee pursuant to G.S. 33B-3.

1 "§ 33B-6. Single beneficiaries; separate custodial trusts.

2 (a) Beneficial interests in a custodial trust may not be created for multiple 3 beneficiaries.

4 (b) All custodial trust property held under this act by the same custodial trustee for 5 the use and benefit of a single beneficiary may be administered as a single custodial trust.

6 "§ 33B-7. General duties of custodial trustee.

7 (a) If appropriate, a custodial trustee shall register or record the instrument vesting 8 title to custodial trust property.

9 (b) If the beneficiary is not incapacitated, a custodial trustee shall follow the 10 directions of the beneficiary in the management, control, investment, or retention of the 11 custodial trust property.

12 If the beneficiary is incapacitated or the beneficiary has capacity but has not given 13 direction, the custodial trustee shall observe the standard of care that would be observed 14 by a prudent person dealing with property of another and is not limited by any other law 15 restricting investments by fiduciaries. However, a custodial trustee, in the custodial 16 trustee's discretion, may retain any custodial trust property received from the transferor.

17 If a custodial trustee has a special skill or expertise or is named custodial trustee on 18 the basis of representation of a special skill or expertise, the custodial trustee shall 19 observe the standard of care expected of one with that skill or expertise.

20 (c) Subject to subsection (b) of this section, a custodial trustee shall take control of 21 and collect, hold, manage, invest, and reinvest custodial trust property.

22 (d) A custodial trustee at all times shall keep custodial trust property of which the 23 custodial trustee has control, separate from all other property in a manner sufficient to 24 identify it clearly as custodial trust property of the beneficiary. Custodial trust property, 25 the title to which is subject to recordation, is adequately identified as such if an 26 appropriate instrument so identifying the property is recorded in the name of the custodial 27 trustee, designated in substance 'as custodial trustee for (name of beneficiary) 28 under the North Carolina Uniform Custodial Trust Act'. Custodial trust property subject 29 to registration is so identified if it is registered, or held in an account in the name of the 30 custodial trustee, designated in substance 'as custodial trustee for (name 31 of beneficiary) under the North Carolina Uniform Custodial Trust Act'.

32 (e) A custodial trustee shall keep records of all transactions with respect to 33 custodial trust property, including information necessary for the preparation of tax 34 returns, and shall make the records and information available at reasonable times to the 35 beneficiary or legal representative of the beneficiary.

36 (f) Unless the durable power of attorney specifically provides otherwise, the 37 exercise of the durable power of attorney for an incapacitated beneficiary is not effective 38 to terminate or direct the administration or distribution of a custodial trust.

39 "§ 33B-8. General powers of custodial trustee.

40 (a) A custodial trustee, acting in a fiduciary capacity, has all the rights and powers 41 over custodial trust property which an unmarried adult owner has over individually 42 owned property, but a custodial trustee may exercise those rights and powers in a 43 fiduciary capacity only.

1 (b) This section does not relieve a custodial trustee from liability for a violation of 2 G.S. 33B-7.

3 "§ 33B-9. Use of custodial trust property.

4 (a) A custodial trustee shall pay to the beneficiary or expend for the beneficiary's 5 use and benefit so much or all of the custodial trust property as the beneficiary while not 6 incapacitated may direct from time to time.

7 (b) If the beneficiary is incapacitated, the custodial trustee shall expend so much or 8 all of the custodial trust property as the custodial trustee considers advisable for the use 9 and benefit of the beneficiary and the spouse and children, and other dependents of the 10 beneficiary. Expenditures may be made in the manner, when, and to the extent that the 11 custodial trustee determines suitable and proper, without court order and without regard 12 to other support, income, or property of the beneficiary.

13 (c) A custodial trustee may establish checking, savings, or other similar accounts 14 of reasonable amounts from which either the custodial trustee or the beneficiary may 15 withdraw funds or against which either may draw checks. Funds withdrawn from, or 16 checks written against, the account of the beneficiary are distributions of custodial trust 17 property by the custodial trustee to the beneficiary.

18 "§ 33B-10. Determination of incapacity; effect.

19 (a) The custodial trustee shall administer the custodial trust as for an incapacitated 20 beneficiary if (i) the custodial trust was created under G.S. 33B-5, (ii) the transferor has 21 so directed in the instrument creating the custodial trust, (iii) a determination that a 22 beneficiary is an incompetent adult has been made under the provisions of Chapter 35A, 23 including a determination of limited incompetence under the provisions of G.S. 35A-24 1112(d), unless the court provided otherwise, or (iv) the custodial trustee has determined 25 that the beneficiary is incapacitated under subsection (b) of this section.

26 (b) A custodial trustee may determine that the beneficiary is incapacitated in 27 reliance upon (i) previous direction or authority given by the beneficiary while not 28 incapacitated, including direction or authority pursuant to a durable power of attorney, 29 (ii) the certificate of the beneficiary's physician, (iii) authority given to the custodial 30 trustee in the instrument creating the trust to determine the incapacity of the beneficiary 31 after the creation of the custodial trust, or (iv) other reasonable evidence.

32 (c) If a custodial trustee for an incapacitated beneficiary determines that the 33 beneficiary's incapacity has ceased, or that circumstances concerning the beneficiary's 34 ability to manage property and business affairs have changed since the creation of a 35 custodial trust directing administration as for an incapacitated beneficiary, the custodial 36 trustee may administer the trust as for a beneficiary who is not incapacitated.

37 (d) Regardless of whether any determination of incapacity under subsection (b) of 38 this section has or has not been made, the beneficiary, the custodial trustee, or other 39 person interested in the custodial trust property or the welfare of the beneficiary, may 40 petition under the procedures of Chapter 35A for a determination by the court whether 41 the beneficiary is or continues to be incapacitated as defined in G.S. 33B-1(8). A 42 determination of incapacity does not require appointment of a guardian of the estate 43 unless in the discretion of the court such appointment is otherwise warranted.

1 (e) Incapacity of a beneficiary does not terminate (i) the custodial trust, (ii) any 2 designation of a successor custodial trustee, (iii) rights or powers of the custodial trustee, 3 or (iv) any immunities of third persons acting on instructions of the custodial trustee.

4 (f) A custodial trustee shall not be liable for any determinations authorized by this 5 section regarding the capacity or incapacity of the beneficiary made in good faith.

6 "§ 33B-11. Third-party transactions.

7 A third person in good faith and without a court order may act on instructions of, or 8 otherwise deal with, a person purporting to make a transfer as, or to act in the capacity of, 9 a custodial trustee. In the absence of actual knowledge to the contrary, the third person is 10 not responsible for determining:

11 (1) The validity of the purported custodial trustee's designation;

12 (2) The propriety of, or the authority under this act for, any action of the 13 purported custodial trustee;

14 (3) The validity or propriety of an instrument executed or instruction given 15 pursuant to this act either by the person purporting to make a transfer or 16 declaration or by the purported custodial trustee; or

17 (4) The propriety of the application of property vested in the purported 18 custodial trustee.

19 "§ 33B-12. Liability to the third person.

20 (a) A claim based on (i) a contract entered into by a custodial trustee acting in a 21 fiduciary capacity, (ii) an obligation arising from the ownership or control of custodial 22 trust property, (iii) a tort committed in the course of administering the custodial trust, 23 may be asserted by a third person against the custodial trust property by proceeding 24 against the custodial trustee in a fiduciary capacity, whether or not the custodial trustee or 25 the beneficiary is personally liable.

26 (b) A custodial trustee may be held personally liable to a third person:

27 (1) On a contract entered into in a fiduciary capacity if the custodial trustee 28 fails to reveal that capacity or to identify the custodial trust in the 29 contract; or

30 (2) For an obligation arising from control of custodial trust property or for a 31 tort committed in the course of the administration of the custodial trust 32 if the custodial trustee is personally at fault.

33 (c) A beneficiary is not personally liable to a third person for an obligation arising 34 from beneficial ownership of custodial trust property or for a tort committed in the course 35 of administration of the custodial trust unless the beneficiary is personally in possession 36 of the custodial trust property giving rise to the liability or is personally at fault.

37 (d) Subsections (b) and (c) of this section do not preclude actions or proceedings 38 to establish liability of the custodial trustee or beneficiary as owner or possessor of the 39 custodial trust property to the extent that person is protected as the insured by liability 40 insurance.

41 "§ 33B-13. Declination, resignation, incapacity, death, or removal of custodial 42 trustee; designation of successor custodial trustee.

1 (a) Before accepting the custodial trust property, a person designated as custodial 2 trustee may decline to serve by notifying the person who made the designation, the 3 transferor, or the transferor's legal representative. In such case, the transferor or the 4 transferor's legal representative may designate a substitute custodial trustee. If the 5 custodial trust is being created under G.S. 33B-3, the substitute custodial trustee 6 designated under G.S. 33B-3 becomes the custodial trustee, or, if a substitute custodial 7 trustee has not been designated, the person who made the designation may designate a 8 substitute custodial trustee pursuant to G.S. 33B-3.

9 (b) A custodial trustee who has accepted the custodial trust property may resign by 10 (i) delivering written notice to a successor custodial trustee, if any, the beneficiary, and, if 11 the beneficiary is incapacitated, to the beneficiary's guardian of the estate, if any, and (ii) 12 transferring and, where appropriate, registering or recording an instrument relating to the 13 custodial trust property in the name of the successor custodial trustee identified under 14 subsection (c) of this section.

15 (c) If a custodial trustee or successor custodial trustee is ineligible, resigns, dies, or 16 becomes incapacitated, the successor designated under G.S. 33B-2 or G.S. 33B-3 17 becomes custodial trustee. If there is no effective provision for a successor, the 18 beneficiary, if not incapacitated, may designate a successor custodial trustee; if the 19 beneficiary fails to act within 90 days, the resigning custodial trustee may designate a 20 successor custodial trustee. If there is no effective provision for a successor custodial 21 trustee and if the beneficiary is incapacitated, the beneficiary's guardian of the estate 22 becomes successor custodial trustee. If the beneficiary does not have a guardian of the 23 estate or the guardian of the estate fails to act as custodial trustee, the resigning custodial 24 trustee may designate a successor custodial trustee.

25 (d) If a successor custodial trustee is not designated pursuant to subsection (c) of 26 this section, the following persons may in the order listed petition the court to designate a 27 successor custodial trustee: the transferor, the legal representative of the transferor, the 28 legal representative of the custodial trustee, the general guardian of the beneficiary, the 29 guardian of the estate of the beneficiary, an adult member of the beneficiary's family, a 30 person interested in the custodial trust property, or a person interested in the welfare of 31 the beneficiary.

32 (e) A custodial trustee who declines to serve or resigns, or the legal representative 33 of a deceased or incapacitated custodial trustee shall put the custodial trust property and 34 records in the possession and control of the successor custodial trustee as soon as 35 practical. The successor custodial trustee shall enforce the obligation to deliver custodial 36 trust property and records.

37 (f) A beneficiary, the beneficiary's guardian of the estate, an adult member of the 38 beneficiary's family, a guardian of the person of the beneficiary, a person interested in the 39 custodial trust property, or a person interested in the welfare of the beneficiary, may 40 petition the court (i) to remove the custodial trustee for cause and to designate a successor 41 custodial trustee, (ii) to require the custodial trustee to furnish a bond or other security for 42 the faithful performance of fiduciary duties, or (iii) for other appropriate relief.

43 § 33B-14. Expenses, compensation, and bond of custodial trustee.

1 Except as otherwise provided in the instrument creating the custodial trust, in an 2 agreement with the beneficiary, or by court order, a custodial trustee:

- 3 (1) Is entitled to reimbursement from custodial trust property for reasonable 4 expenses incurred in the performance of fiduciary services;
5 (2) May charge, no later than six months after the end of each calendar 6 year, a reasonable compensation for fiduciary services performed during 7 that year; and 8 (3) Need not furnish a bond or other security for the faithful performance of 9 fiduciary duties.

10 "§ 33B-15. Reporting and accounting by custodial trustee; determination of liability 11 of custodial trustee.

12 (a) Upon the acceptance of custodial trust property, the custodial trustee shall 13 provide a written statement that the custodial trust property is held pursuant to this act 14 and describing the custodial trust property. The custodial trustee shall thereafter provide 15 a written statement of the administration of the custodial trust property (i) once each year, 16 (ii) upon request at reasonable times by the beneficiary or the beneficiary's legal 17 representative, (iii) upon resignation or removal of the custodial trustee, and (iv) upon 18 termination of the custodial trust. The statements must be provided to the beneficiary or 19 to the beneficiary's legal representative. Upon termination of the beneficiary's interest, 20 the custodial trustee shall furnish a statement to the person to whom the custodial trust 21 property is to be delivered.

22 (b) A beneficiary, the beneficiary's legal representative, an adult member of the 23 beneficiary's family, a person interested in the custodial trust property, or a person 24 interested in the welfare of the beneficiary may petition the court for an accounting by the 25 custodial trustee or the custodial trustee's legal representative.

26 (c) A successor custodial trustee may petition the court for an accounting by a 27 predecessor custodial trustee or the legal representative of a predecessor custodial trustee.

28 (d) In an action or proceeding under this act or in any other proceeding, the court 29 may require or permit the custodial trustee or the custodial trustee's legal representative to 30 account. The custodial trustee or the custodial trustee's legal representative may petition 31 the court for approval of annual or final accounts.

32 (e) If a custodial trustee is removed, the court shall require an accounting and 33 order delivery of the custodial trust property and records to the successor custodial trustee 34 and the execution of all instruments required for transfer of the custodial trust property.

35 (f) On petition of the custodial trustee or any person who could petition for an 36 accounting, the court, after notice to interested persons, may issue instructions to the 37 custodial trustee or review the propriety of the acts of a custodial trustee or the 38 reasonableness of compensation determined by the custodial trustee or others.

39 "§ 33B-16. Limitations of action against custodial trustee.

40 (a) Except as provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, a claim for relief 41 against a custodial trustee for accounting or breach of duty is barred as to a beneficiary, a 42 person to whom custodial trust property is to be paid or delivered, or the legal 43 representative of an incapacitated or deceased beneficiary or payee:

1 (1) Who has received a final account or statement fully disclosing the 2 matter unless an action or proceeding to assert the claim is commenced 3 within two years after receipt of the final account or statement; or 4 (2) Who has not received a final account or statement fully disclosing the 5 matter unless an action or proceeding to assert the claim is commenced 6 within three years after the termination of the custodial trust.

7 (b) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, a claim for relief to 8 recover from a custodial trustee for fraud, misrepresentation, or concealment is barred 9 unless an action or proceeding to assert the claim is commenced within five years after 10 the termination of the custodial trust.

11 (c) A claim for relief is not barred by this section if the claimant:

12 (1) Is a minor, until the earlier of two years after the claimant becomes an 13 adult or dies;

14 (2) Is an incapacitated adult, until the earliest of two years after (i) the 15 appointment of a guardian of the estate, (ii) the removal of the 16 incapacity, or (iii) the death of the claimant; or

17 (3) Was an adult, now deceased, who was not incapacitated, until two years 18 after the claimant's death if the claim was not barred by adjudication, 19 consent, or limitation prior to the claimant's death.

20 "§ 33B-17. Distribution on termination.

21 (a) Upon termination of a custodial trust, the custodial trustee shall transfer the 22 unexpended custodial trust property:

23 (1) To the beneficiary, if not incapacitated or deceased;

24 (2) To the guardian of the estate or other recipient designated by the court 25 for an incapacitated beneficiary; or

26 (3) Upon the beneficiary's death, in the following order:

27 a. As last directed in a writing signed by the deceased beneficiary 28 while not incapacitated, witnessed by at least two witnesses who 29 are not the custodial trustee or the distributee of the custodial 30 trust property and received by the custodial trustee during the life 31 of the deceased beneficiary;

32 b. As designated in the instrument creating the custodial trust, 33 provided that the instrument is witnessed by at least two 34 witnesses who are not the custodial trustee or the distributee of 35 the custodial trust property; or

36 c. To the estate of the deceased beneficiary.

37 (b) If, when the custodial trust would otherwise terminate, the distributee is 38 incapacitated, the custodial trust continues for the use and benefit of the distributee as 39 beneficiary until the incapacity is removed or the custodial trust is otherwise terminated.

40 (c) Death of a beneficiary does not terminate the power of the custodial trustee to 41 discharge obligations of the custodial trustee or beneficiary incurred before the 42 termination of the custodial trust.

43 "§ 33B-18. Methods and forms of creating custodial trusts.

(a) If a transaction (including a declaration with respect to or a transfer of specific property) otherwise satisfies applicable law, the criteria of G.S. 33B-2 are satisfied by:

(1) The execution and either delivery to the custodial trustee or recording of an instrument in substantially the following form:
