An application for a refund must be made in accordance with this Part."

SECTION 5. Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 3E.

"Alternative Fuel Vehicles Tax Credits.

"§ 105-129.40. Credit for alternative fuel vehicles.

- Credit. A taxpayer who purchases an alternative fuel vehicle and places it in service in this State is allowed a credit against the tax imposed by Article 4 of this Chapter. The credit allowed by this section is equal to the following:
 - (1) Fifty percent (50%) of the total purchase price or the total lease payment of a dedicated vehicle.
 - (2) Thirty percent (30%) of the total purchase price or the total lease payment of a bi-fuel vehicle or hybrid vehicle.
 - (3) Ten percent (10%) of the total purchase price or the total lease payment of a flex vehicle.

"§ 105-129.41. Credit for alternative fuel vehicle fueling facilities.

- (a) Credit. A taxpayer that constructs in this State a facility for refueling or recharging alternative fuel vehicles is allowed a credit against the tax imposed by Article 4 of this Chapter. The credit allowed by this section is equal to the following:
 - (1) For publicly accessible refueling or recharging facilities, one hundred percent (100%) of the purchase and installation costs of machinery and equipment for the facility.
 - (2) For private refueling or recharging facilities, fifty percent (50%) of the purchase and installation cost of machinery and equipment for the facility.
- (b) Cap. The total amount of credit allowed to a taxpayer under subsection (a) of this section may not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000) in any taxable year.

"§ 105-129.42. Credit for residential alternative fuel vehicle fueling appliances.

- (a) Definition. For the purposes of this section, a 'residential alternative fuel vehicle fueling appliance' is equipment that is used to refuel or recharge an alternative fuel vehicle and that is suitable for use in a residential setting.
- (b) Credit. A taxpayer that purchases and places into service in this State a residential alternative fuel vehicle fueling appliance is allowed a credit against the tax imposed by Article 4 of this Chapter equal to the purchase and installation cost of the residential alternative fuel vehicle fueling appliance.
- (c) Cap. The credit allowed by this section may not exceed the applicable caps provided in this subsection:
 - (1) For residential alternative fuel vehicle fueling appliances placed in service in single-family residences, a cap of five thousand dollars ($5,000) per taxable year.
 - (2) For residential alternative fuel vehicle fueling appliances placed in service in multifamily residences, a cap equal to the lesser of the following:
 - a. Five thousand dollars ($5,000) multiplied by the lesser of the number of residential units and the number of vehicles that may be refueled or recharged by the appliance simultaneously.
 - b. Thirty thousand dollars ($30,000).

"§ 105-129.43. Credit for worker training.

- (a) Credit. A taxpayer that provides worker training for its employees during the taxable year to maintain alternative fuel vehicles or alternative fuel vehicle fueling facilities is allowed a credit against the tax imposed by Article 4 of this Chapter equal to the sum of the wages paid to the eligible employees during the training and the instructional costs of the training. Wages paid to an employee performing his or her job while being trained are not eligible for the credit.
- (b) Cap. The credit allowed under this section may not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in any taxable year.

"§ 105-129.44. Sunset; carryforward.

- (a) This Article is repealed effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2011.
- (b) The credits allowed by this Article may not exceed the amount of the tax imposed by Article 4 of this Chapter for the taxable year reduced by the sum of all credits allowable, except payments of tax made by or on behalf of the taxpayer. Any unused portion of the credit allowed under this section may be carried forward for the next succeeding 10 years."
- SECTION 6. This act does not affect the rights or liabilities of the State, a taxpayer, or another person arising under a statute amended or repealed by this act before the effective date of its amendment or repeal; nor does it affect the right to any refund or credit of a tax that accrued under the amended or repealed statute before the effective date of its amendment or repeal.
- SECTION 7. Section 2 of this act becomes effective October 1, 2001, and applies to certificates of title issued on or after that date. Section 2 of this act is repealed effective for certificates of title issued on or after October 1, 2011. Section 3 of this act 1 is effective for taxes imposed for taxable years beginning on or after October 1, 2001, 2 and is repealed effective for taxes imposed for taxable years beginning on or after 3 October 2, 2011. Section 4 of this act becomes effective July 1, 2001, and applies to fuel 4 purchased on or after that date. Section 4 of this act is repealed effective for fuel 5 purchased on or after July 1, 2011. Section 5 of this act is effective for taxable years 6 7 beginning on or after January 1, 2001. The remainder of this act is effective when it 8 becomes law.
