March 17, 2005

H 714. STATE AGENCIES MAY WITHHOLD CERTAIN INFO. ALLOWING STATE AGENCIES UNDER CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES TO WITHHOLD INFORMATION THAT WOULD OTHERWISE BE OPEN TO INSPECTION BY THE PUBLIC. Amends GS 126-23 (making certain employment records available to public inspection) to clarify that it applies to State universities. Adds new subsection to this provision allowing the head of a State dep't, agency, institution, comm'n, university, or bureau to withhold any information if it is in the best interests of the health, safety, or security of the employee or dep't. Makes conforming changes.

Intro. by Coleman.

Ref. to State Personnel GS 126

May 2, 2005

H 714. STATE AGENCIES MAY WITHHOLD CERTAIN INFO. Intro. 3/17/05. House committee substitute makes the following changes to 1st edition. Requires person withholding information about an employee's individual record to prepare a memorandum setting forth the circumstances leading to the withholding and provides that the memorandum is a public record.