"§ 7A-38.3B. Mediation in matters within the jurisdiction of the clerk of superior court.

(a) Purpose. – The General Assembly finds that the clerk of superior court in the General Court of Justice should have the discretion and authority to order that mediation be conducted in matters within the clerk's jurisdiction in order to facilitate a more economical, efficient, and satisfactory resolution of those matters.

(b) Enabling Authority. – The clerk of superior court may order that mediation be conducted in any matter in which the clerk has exclusive or original jurisdiction, except for matters under Chapters 45 and 48 of the General Statutes and except in matters in which the jurisdiction of the clerk is ancillary. The Supreme Court may adopt rules to implement this section. Such mediations shall be conducted pursuant to this section and the Supreme Court rules as adopted.

(c) Attendance. – In those matters ordered to mediation pursuant to this section, the following persons or entities, along with their attorneys, may be ordered by the clerk to attend the mediation:

(1) Named parties.

(2) Interested persons, meaning persons or entities who have a right, interest, or claim in the matter; heirs or devisees in matters under Chapter 28A of the General Statutes, next of kin under Chapter 35A of the General Statutes, and other persons or entities as the clerk deems necessary for the adjudication of the matter. The meaning of

1 "interested person" may vary according to the issues involved in the 2 matter.

3 (3) Nonparty participants, meaning any other person or entity identified by 4 the clerk as possessing useful information about the matter and whose 5 attendance would be beneficial to the mediation.

6 (4) Fiduciaries, meaning persons or entities who serve as fiduciaries, as 7 that term is defined by G.S. 36A-22.1, of named parties, interested 8 persons, or nonparty participants.

9 Any person or entity ordered to attend a mediation shall be notified of its date, time,
10 and location and shall attend unless excused by rules of the Supreme Court or by order
11 of the clerk. No one attending the mediation shall be required to make a settlement offer 12 or demand that it deems contrary to its best interests.

13 (d) Selection of Mediator. – Persons ordered to mediation pursuant to this section 14 have the right to designate a mediator in accordance with rules promulgated by the 15 Supreme Court implementing this section. Upon failure of those persons to agree upon a 16 designation within the time established by rules of the Supreme Court, a mediator 17 certified by the Dispute Resolution Commission pursuant to those rules shall be 18 appointed by the clerk.

19 (e) Immunity. – Mediators acting pursuant to this section shall have judicial 20 immunity in the same manner and to the same extent as a judge of the General Court of 21 Justice, except that mediators may be disciplined in accordance with procedures adopted 22 by the Supreme Court pursuant to G.S. 7A-38.2.

23 (f) Costs of Mediation. – Costs of mediation under this section shall be borne by 24 the named parties, interested persons, and fiduciaries ordered to attend the mediation.
25 The rules adopted by the Supreme Court implementing this section shall set out the 26 manner in which costs shall be paid and a method by which an opportunity to 27 participate without cost shall be afforded to persons found by the clerk to be unable to 28 pay their share of the costs of mediation. Costs may only be assessed against the estate 29 of a decedent, the estate of an adjudicated or alleged incompetent, a trust corpus, or 30 against a fiduciary upon the entry of a written order making specific findings of fact 31 justifying the taxing of costs.

32 (g) Inadmissibility of Negotiations. – Evidence of statements made or conduct 33 occurring during a mediation conducted pursuant to this section, whether attributable to 34 any participant, mediator, expert, or neutral observer, shall not be subject to discovery 35 and shall be inadmissible in any proceeding in the matter or other civil actions on the

3 report under G.S. 7B-301 and Article 6 of Chapter 108A of the 4 General Statutes, respectively.

5 No evidence otherwise discoverable shall be inadmissible merely because it is 6 presented or discussed in mediation.

7 As used in this section, the term "neutral observer" includes persons seeking 8 mediator certification, persons studying dispute resolution processes, and persons acting 9 as interpreters.

10 (h) Testimony. – No mediator or neutral observer shall be compelled to testify or 11 produce evidence concerning statements made and conduct occurring in anticipation of, 12 during, or as a follow-up to the mediation in any civil proceeding for any purpose,

14 the signing of any agreements reached in mediation, and except in:

21 report under G.S. 7B-301 and Article 6 of Chapter 108A of the 22 General Statutes, respectively.

23 (i) Agreements. – In matters before the clerk in which agreements are reached in 24 a mediation conducted pursuant to this section, or during one of its recesses, those 25 agreements shall be treated as follows:

26 (1) Where as a matter of law, a matter may be resolved by agreement of 27 the parties, a settlement is enforceable only if it has been reduced to 28 writing and signed by the parties.

29 (2) In all other matters before the clerk, including guardianship and estate 30 matters, all agreements shall be delivered to the clerk for consideration 31 in deciding the matter.

34 cause, fails to attend the mediation, by imposing an appropriate monetary sanction, 35 including the payment of attorneys' fees, mediator fees, and expenses incurred in 36 attending the conference. If the clerk imposes sanctions, the clerk shall do so, after 37 notice and a hearing, in a written order, making findings of fact and conclusions of law.
38 An order imposing sanctions is reviewable by the superior court in accordance with 39 G.S. 1-301.2 and G.S. 1-301.3, as applicable, and thereafter by the appellate courts in 40 accordance with G.S. 7A-38.1(g).

41 (k) Authority to Supplement Procedural Details. – The clerk of superior court
