5 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

6 SECTION 1. Section 121 of the Charter of the City of Durham, being 7 Chapter 671 of the 1975 Session Laws, as amended by Chapter 373 of the 1983 Session
8 Laws, Chapter 715 of the 1985 Session Laws, Chapter 379 of the 1991 Session Laws, 9 and Chapter 658 of the 1993 Session Laws, reads as rewritten:

10 "Sec. 121. Equal Housing. (a) The City Council may adopt ordinances prohibiting 11 discrimination on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, familial 12 status, or handicap in real estate transactions. Such ordinances may regulate or prohibit 13 any act, practice, activity or procedure related, directly or indirectly to the sale or rental 14 of public or private housing, which affects or may tend to affect the availability or 15 desirability of housing on an equal basis to all persons; may provide that violations 16 constitute a misdemeanor, and shall be punishable under G.S. 14-4; may subject the 17 offender to civil penalties; and may provide that the City may enforce the ordinances by 18 application to the General Court of Justice, Superior Court Division, for appropriate 19 legal and equitable remedies, including but not limited to, mandatory and prohibitory 20 injunctions and orders of abatement, attorney's fees and punitive damages, and the court 21 shall have jurisdiction to grant such remedies.

22 (b) A fair housing enforcement organization, as defined in regulations adopted 23 under 42 U.S.C. § 3602 (1968), may file a complaint with a committee established or 24 designated by the City Council under Section 123 of this charter on behalf of a person
25 who claims to have been injured by or reasonably believes he or she will be irrevocably 26 injured by an unlawful discriminatory housing practice."

27 SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.
