July 10, 2006

1 A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF HAMILTON
2 COWLES HORTON, JR., FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

3 Whereas, Hamilton Cowles Horton, Jr. was born in Winston-Salem on 4 August 6, 1931, to Hamilton Cowles Horton and Virginia Lee Wiggins Horton; and

5 Whereas, Ham Horton was a devoted member of the Calvary Moravian
6 Church. He began playing the trumpet in the Moravian Band at age seven and continued 7 playing at Easter Sunrise Services for 68 years; and

8 Whereas, Ham Horton graduated from R.J. Reynolds High School in 1949
9 and, ever mindful of the lessons to be derived from the past, earned an A.B. in History 10 from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1953 and an L.L.B. from the 11 School of Law at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1956; and

12 Whereas, Ham Horton served in the United States Navy from 1956 to 1960, 13 achieving the rank of Lieutenant; and

14 Whereas, Ham Horton practiced law and proudly served his profession as a 15 member of the North Carolina Bar Association and as President of both the Forsyth 16 County Bar Association and the 21st District Bar Association from 1989 to 1990; and

17 Whereas, Ham Horton harbored a noble devotion to public service, serving 18 with honor and distinction as a member of the North Carolina House of Representatives
19 from 1969 to 1970 and the North Carolina Senate from 1971 to 1974 and 1995 to 2005; 20 and

21 Whereas, Senator Horton was a true preservationist in matters of architecture, 22 history, culture, and the environment; and

23 Whereas, Senator Horton was a man of both classical sensibility and a touch
24 of whimsy who translated the Capital Press Corps' motto into Latin – Usquam Alius 25 Insolens, or "Anywhere else, we'd just be considered rude"; and

1 Whereas, Senator Horton regaled and delighted listeners with his lyrical 2 soliloquies, rhapsodizing about the sacrament of country ham amid "the pantheon of 3 North Carolina foods"; the "forbidden fruit" of fireworks smuggled into the State by 4 adolescents; how a move to settle an election in the legislature was "as inappropriate as 5 wearing brogans to a white-tie wedding;" the "oleaginous" nature of a State budget; and 6 the importance of retaining naked Native Americans on the Senate Coat of Arms, which 7 he traced to a grant of arms to Sir Walter Raleigh's colony on Roanoke Island in 1586;
8 and

9 Whereas, Ham Horton received numerous awards, including the Carraway
10 Award from Preservation North Carolina in 1997 and the Outdoor Recreation 11 Achievement Award from the United States Department of the Interior in 1976; and 12 Whereas, Ham Horton remained ever the optimist, resolutely planting his 13 mustard and turnip greens during his final months and teaching his daughter the fine art 14 of biscuit-making; and

15 Whereas, Ham Horton died on January 31, 2006, at the age of 74; and

16 Whereas, Ham Horton is survived by his wife, Evelyn Hanes Moore Horton, 17 and a daughter, Rosalie Horton; Now, therefore,

18 Be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring:

19 SECTION 1. The General Assembly designates Hamilton Cowles Horton, 20 Jr. a North Carolina Institution and honors his life and memory in appreciation for his 21 service.

22 SECTION 2. The General Assembly extends its deepest sympathy to the 23 family and friends of Hamilton Cowles Horton, Jr. and mourns the loss of the 24 Renaissance man, a devoted and humble public servant.

25 SECTION 3. The Secretary of State shall send a certified copy of this 26 resolution to the family of Hamilton Cowles Horton, Jr.

27 SECTION 4. This resolution is effective upon ratification.
