

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA
SESSION 2007

H

D

HOUSE DRH80300-LR-74 (02/28)

Short Title: Public Safety Employer/Employee Coop. Act. (Public)

Sponsors: Representative Blue.

Referred to:

1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2 AN ACT TO ESTABLISH A PUBLIC SAFETY EMPLOYER-EMPLOYEE
3 COOPERATION ACT.

4 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

5 SECTION 1. The General Statutes are amended by adding a new Chapter to
6 read:

7 Chapter 17F.

8 "Public Safety Employer-Employee Cooperation Act.

9 "§ 17F-1. Definitions.

10 The following definitions apply in this Chapter:

- 11 (1) Emergency medical services personnel. – An individual who provides 12 out-of-hospital emergency medical care, including an emergency
13 medical technician, paramedic, or first responder.
- 14 (2) Employer or public safety employer. – Any city, town, county, or other
15 municipality or political subdivision of the State that employs public
16 safety officers.
- 17 (3) Firefighter. – An individual employed by a fire department who (i)
18 primarily performs work directly related to the control and
19 extinguishment of fires; (ii) is responsible for the maintenance and use
20 of firefighting apparatus and equipment, fire prevention, and
21 investigation, or communications and dispatch; or (iii) provides
22 emergency medical care.
- 23 (4) Public safety officer. – An employee of a city, town, county, or other 24 municipal entity or agency, who is a firefighter, or emergency medical 25 services personnel. Public safety officer includes an individual who is 26 temporarily transferred to a supervisory or administrative position , but
27 does not include a permanent management or supervisory employee.

1 (5) Public safety officer association. – An association or labor
2 organization of public safety officers composed of (i) public safety
3 officers employed by a fire department; (ii) public safety officers
4 employed by an emergency medical or ambulance service.

5 (6) Supervisory employee. – An individual employed by a public safety
6 employer who (i) has the authority in the interest of the employer to
7 hire, direct, assign, promote, reward, transfer, furlough, lay off, recall,
8 suspend, discipline, or remove public safety officers, or to adjust their
9 grievances or effectively recommend such adjustment, provided that
10 the exercise of the authority is not merely routine or clerical in nature
11 but requires the consistent exercise of independent judgment; and (ii)
12 devotes a majority of time at work exercising that authority.

13 "§ 17F-2. Rights of public safety officers.

14 Public safety officers have the following rights:

15 (1) To form and join an association or labor organization that does not
16 include management or supervisory employees.

17 (2) To be free from reprisal or discrimination in the terms or conditions of 18 their employment for joining or supporting an association or labor
19 organization.

20 "§ 17F-3. Rights of public safety officer associations.

21 Public safety officer associations that have demonstrated through petitions,
22 authorization cards, or other reliable methods that they represent more than half of the 23 public safety officers in an agency or department have the following rights:

24 (1) To advocate on behalf of and represent their members concerning the 25 terms and conditions of their members' employment.

26 (2) Upon the request of one of their members, to have a representative
27 present during any questioning of a member by management or 28 supervisory employees during any investigation that could lead to 29 discipline against the member.

30 (3) To meet with officials of a public safety employer to discuss matters
31 affecting the terms and conditions of employment of public safety
32 officers, including matters pertaining to wages and hours of work.

33 (4) To have any agreements reached with a public safety employer as a
34 result of discussions reduced to writing in the form of a memorandum
35 of understanding.

36 (5) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 95-98, to enforce a
37 memorandum of understanding with a public safety employer by
38 bringing an action in court.

39 "§ 17F-4. Enforcement.

40 (a) A public safety officer who believes that his or her rights under G.S. 17F-2
41 have been violated, or a public safety officer association that believes its rights under 42 G.S. 17F-3 have been violated, may bring a civil action in the superior court of the 43 county where the violation occurred or where the employer resides. In any such action,
44 the officer or association may seek, and the court may award, such relief and damages

1 as will make the officer or association whole and correct the effects of any violations.

2 Relief may include any or all of the following:

- 3 (1) An injunction to prevent future or continued violations of this Chapter.
4 (2) Removal from an officer's personnel file or record any records of 5 discipline or other unfavorable actions taken by an employer in
6 violation of G.S. 17F-2.
7 (3) Promotion or reassignment of any officer denied a promotion or
8 assignment in violation of G.S. 17F-2.
9 (4) Reassignment of the officer to the same position held before the
10 retaliatory action or discrimination to an equivalent position, or to a 11 position of higher classification if it is shown that the officer would
12 have been eligible for promotion during the period of the retaliatory
13 discharge.
14 (5) Reinstatement of an officer's full fringe benefits and seniority.
15 (6) Compensation to an officer for the consequences of the discrimination
16 or retaliation, including lost wages, lost benefits, and other economic
17 losses proximately caused by the retaliatory or discriminatory action.
18 (7) Compensation to an association for the consequences of the violations
19 of its rights.

20 (b) In an action under this section, if the court finds that a public safety officer
21 was injured by a willful violation of the rights granted under G.S. 17F-2, the court shall 22 treble the amount of damages it awards for loss of wages and benefits.

23 (c) The court may award to a plaintiff who obtains relief in an action to enforce
24 the rights granted by this Chapter and assess against the defendant the reasonable costs
25 and expenses less attorneys' fees, of bringing the action. If the court determines that the 26 plaintiff's action was frivolous, it may award to the defendant and assess against the 27 plaintiff the reasonable costs and expenses, less attorneys' fees, of defending the action.

28 (d) Parties to a civil action brought pursuant to this section shall have the right to 29 a jury trial as provided under G.S. 1A-1, Rules of Civil Procedure.

30 "§ 17F-5. Effect of Chapter on other rights.

31 Nothing in this Chapter shall be deemed to diminish any other rights or remedies of 32 public safety officers or associations under other statutes, the State or federal 33 constitution, or at common law."

34 SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to 35 actions taken on or after that date.
