GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA SESSION 2007

SENATE DRS35291-MC-105 (3/13)

D

Short Title:	Circuit Breaker Property Tax Benefit.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senators Snow, Queen, Goss, Boseman, Clodfelter, and Nesbitt.
Referred to:

1	A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2	AN ACT TO CREATE A CIRCUIT BREAKER PROPERTY TAX BENEFIT.
3	The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:
4	SECTION 1. G.S. 105-277.1(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to
5	read:
6	"(b) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:
7
8	(3a) Property tax relief. – The property tax homestead exclusion provided
9	in this section or the property tax homestead circuit breaker provided
10	in G.S. 105-277.1B.
11
12	SECTION 2. G.S. 105-277.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to
13	read:
14	"§ 105-277.1. Property tax homestead exclusion.
15
16	(e) Election. – An owner who qualifies for both kinds of property tax relief may
17	elect the property tax homestead circuit breaker under G.S. 105-277.1B instead of the
18	property tax homestead exclusion provided in this section. When property is owned by
19	two or more persons, each person must qualify for both kinds of property tax relief and
20	must elect the property tax homestead circuit breaker in order for the property tax
21	homestead circuit breaker to be allowed instead of the property tax homestead
22	exclusion."
23	SECTION 3. Article 12 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended
24	by adding a new section to read:

1	transfer, unless the residence is transferred to the former owner's spouse and the spouse
2	qualifies for tax deferral under this section and occupies the property as his or her
3	permanent residence, in which case the spouse may elect to continue deferring payment
4	of the tax.
5	If the owner of a tax-deferred residence does not qualify under this section for
6	deferral as of January 1 preceding a taxable year, the owner may not defer any
7	additional property taxes that year under this section, but the deferred taxes from earlier
8	years do not become due because of the owner's failure to qualify for the current year.
9	Except as provided in subsection (f) of this section, in any year in which the owner
10	of a tax-deferred residence no longer occupies the residence as his or her permanent
11	residence, the full amount of deferred taxes, together with any interest, penalties, or
12	costs that may have accrued thereon, becomes due and is due and payable at the same
13	time the tax levied on the residence in that year is otherwise due.
14	(h) Annual Notification. – On or before September 1 of each year, the assessor
15	shall notify each residence owner to whom a tax deferral has previously been granted of
16	the accumulated sum of deferred taxes and interest.
17	(i) Prepayment. – All or part of the deferred taxes and accrued interest may be
18	paid to the tax collector at any time. Any partial payment is applied first to accrued
19	interest. A residence owner to whom a tax deferral has previously been granted may
20	revoke the application for deferral at any time by notifying the assessor in writing.
21	(j) Payment by Another. – A mortgagee or trustee that elects to pay any tax
22	deferred by the owner of a residence subject to a mortgage or deed of trust does not
23	acquire a right to foreclose as a result of the election.
24	(k) Anti-Deferral Clauses Void. – Except for requirements dictated by federal
25	law or regulation, any provision in a mortgage, deed of trust, or other agreement that
26	prohibits the owner from deferring taxes on property under this section is void.
27	(1) Construction. – This section does not affect the attachment of a lien for
28	personal property taxes against a tax-deferred residence.
29	(m) Application. – An application for property tax relief provided by this section
30	should be filed during the regular listing period, but may be filed and must be accepted
31	at any time up to and through June 1 preceding the tax year for which the relief is
32	claimed. Persons may apply for this property tax relief by entering the appropriate
33	information on a form made available by the assessor under G.S. 105-282.1.
34	(n) Multiple Ownership. – When a permanent residence is owned and occupied
35	by two or more persons other than husband and wife, no property tax homestead circuit
36	breaker is allowed unless all of the owners qualify and elect to defer taxes under this
37	section."
38	SECTION 4. G.S. $150-282.1(a)(2)$ reads as rewritten:
39	"(2) Single application required. – An owner of one or more of the
40	following properties eligible to be exempted or excluded from
41	taxation for a property tax benefit must file an application for
42	exemption or exclusion the benefit to receive it. Once the application
43	has been approved, the owner does not need to file an application in
44	subsequent years unless new or additional property is acquired or

1	improvements are added or removed, necessitating a change in the
2	valuation of the property, or there is a change in the use of the property
3	or the qualifications or eligibility of the taxpayer necessitating a
4	review of the exemption or exclusion: benefit.
