9 of the taxpayer's eligible dependent children who is a resident of this State and who, for one or 10 two semesters during the taxable year, is enrolled in a home school that meets the requirements 11 of G.S. 115C-564. As used in this section, the term "eligible dependent child" means a child for 12 whom the taxpayer is entitled to deduct a personal exemption under section 151(c) of the Code

14 (b) Amount. – The credit is equal to twelve hundred fifty dollars ($1,250) per semester.

15 (c) Semesters. – For the purposes of this section, there are two semesters during each 16 taxable year. The spring semester is the first six months of the taxable year, and the fall 17 semester is the second six months of the taxable year. An eligible dependent child is enrolled in 18 a home school for a semester if the eligible dependent child is enrolled in that home school for 19 more than 70 days during that semester.

20 (d) Disqualification. – A taxpayer may not qualify for a credit for any semester during 21 which the taxpayer's eligible dependent child for whom the credit would otherwise be claimed 22 met any of the following conditions:

31 required by G.S. 115C-564, of each eligible dependent child for whom the 32 credit is claimed.

33 (2) The taxpayer's certification that the eligible dependent child did not meet 34 any of the disqualifying conditions set out in this section.

- 1 (3) The name of the local school administrative unit in which the eligible 2 dependent child resides.
- 3 (4) A copy of the Notice of Intent to Operate a Home School filed with the 4 Division of Nonpublic Education, Department of Administration.

5 (f) Carryforward. – The credit allowed under this section may not exceed the amount of 6 tax imposed by this Part reduced by the sum of all credits allowed against the tax, except 7 payments of tax made by or on behalf of the taxpayer. Any unused portion of the credit may be 8 carried forward for the succeeding three years.

9 (g) No Other Requirements. – A home school attended by an eligible dependent child 10 of the taxpayer who claims a credit under this section shall not be subject to any requirements
