A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

TO THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE LAWS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 96-4(q), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

"(q) The ~~Division~~ Board of Review after due notice shall have the right and power to hold and conduct hearings for the purpose of determining the rights, status and liabilities of an employer. The Board of Review shall have the power and authority to determine any and all questions and issues of fact or questions of law that may arise under the Employment Security Law that may affect the rights, liabilities and status of an employer including the right to determine the amount of contributions, if any, which may be due the Division by any employer. Hearings may be before the Board of Review and shall be held in the central office of the Board of Review or at any other designated place within the State. They shall be open to the public and shall consist of a review of the evidence taken by a hearing officer designated by the Board of Review and a determination of the law applicable to that evidence. The Board of Review shall provide for the taking of evidence by a hearing officer employed in the capacity of an attorney by the Department. Such hearing officer shall have the same power to issue subpoenas, administer oaths, conduct hearings and take evidence as is possessed by the Board of Review and such hearings shall be recorded, and he shall transmit all testimony and records of such hearings to the Board for its determination. All such hearings conducted by such hearing officer shall be scheduled and held in any county in this State in which the employer resides, maintains a place of business, or conducts business; however, the Board of Review may require additional testimony at any hearings held by it at its office. From all decisions or determinations made by the Board of Review, any party affected thereby shall be entitled to an appeal to the superior court. Before a party shall be allowed to appeal, the party shall within 10 days after notice of such decision or determination, file with the Board of Review exceptions to the decision or the determination, which exceptions will state the grounds of objection to the decision or determination. If any one of the exceptions shall be overruled then the party may appeal from the order overruling the exceptions, and shall, within 10 days after the decision overruling the exceptions, give notice of his appeal. When an exception is made to the facts as found by the Board of Review, the appeal shall be to the superior court in term time but the decision or determination of the Board of Review upon such review in the superior court shall be conclusive and binding as to all questions of fact supported by any competent evidence. When an exception is made to any rulings of law, as determined by the Board of Review, the

1 appeal shall be to the judge of the superior court at chambers. The party appealing shall, within 2 10 days after the notice of appeal has been served, file with the Board of Review exceptions to 3 the decision or determination overruling the exception which statement shall assign the errors 4 complained of and the grounds of the appeal. Upon the filing of such statement the Board of 5 Review shall, within 30 days, transmit all the papers and evidence considered by it, together 6 with the assignments of errors filed by the appellant to a judge of the superior court holding 7 court or residing in some district in which such appellant either resides, maintains a place of 8 business or conducts business, or, unless the appellant objects after being given reasonable 9 opportunity to object, to a judge of the Superior Court of Wake County: Provided, however, the 10 30-day period specified herein may be extended by agreement of parties."

15 to the hearing date and shall contain notification of the place, date, hour, and purpose of the 16 hearing. Subpoenas for witnesses to appear at any hearing shall be issued by the Division or its 17 authorized representative and shall order the witness to appear at the time, date and place 18 shown thereon. Any bond or other undertaking required to be given in order to suspend or stay

23 is created as a special revenue fund. The fund consists of all interest and penalties paid under 24 this Chapter by employers on overdue contributions and any appropriations made to the fund

34 "(b) Standard Beginning Rate. – The standard beginning rate applies to an employer 35 until the employer's account has been chargeable with benefits for at least 12 calendar months 36 ending July 31 immediately preceding the computation date. An employer's account has been 37 chargeable with benefits for at least 12 calendar months if the employer has reported wages 38 paid in four completed calendar quarters and ~~these quarters are in its~~ liability extends over all or 39 part of two consecutive calendar years."

40 SECTION 6. G.S. 96-9.6(e), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

41 "(e) Annual Reconciliation. – A reimbursing employer must maintain an account 42 balance equal to one percent (1%) of its taxable wages. The Division must determine the 43 balance of each employer's account on the computation date. If there is a deficit in the account, 44 the Division must bill the employer for the amount necessary to bring its account to one percent 45 (1%) of its taxable wages for the ~~preceding calendar year~~ immediate four quarters preceding 46 July 1. Any amount in the account in excess of the one percent (1%) of taxable wages will be 47 retained in the employer's account as a credit and will not be refunded to the employer. The 48 Division must send a bill as soon as practical. Payment is due within 30 days from the date a 49 bill is mailed. Amounts unpaid by the due date accrue interest and penalties in the same manner 50 as past-due contributions and are subject to the same collection remedies provided under 51 G.S. 96-10 for past-due contributions."

1 SECTION 7. G.S. 96-9.6(i), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

6 (1) Governmental entities. – An employer that is a State or local governmental 7 unit must reimburse the Division in the amount required by subsection (c) of 8 this section for benefits paid on its behalf, as determined on the computation 9 date in 2013, but it does not have to reconcile its account balance, as 10 required under subsection (e) of this section, until 2014. If the employer's 11 account balance on the computation date in 2014 does not equal one percent 12 (1%) of its taxable wages reported for the ~~2013 calendar year~~, preceding 13 fiscal year, the Division will bill the employer for the deficiency.

16 "(a) Surtax Imposed. – A surtax is imposed on an employer who is required to make a 17 contribution to the Unemployment Insurance Fund equal to twenty percent (20%) of the 18 contribution due under G.S. 96-9.2. Except as provided in this section, the surtax is collected 19 and administered in the same manner as contributions. Surtaxes collected under this section 20 must be credited to the Unemployment Insurance Reserve Fund established under ~~G.S. 96-6.~~ 21 G.S. 96-6.1. Interest and penalties collected on unpaid surtaxes imposed by this section must be 22 credited to the Supplemental Employment Security Administration Fund. Penalties collected on 23 unpaid surtaxes imposed by this section must be transferred ~~credited~~ to the Civil Penalty and 24 Forfeiture Fund established in G.S. 115C-457.1."

25 SECTION 9. G.S. 96-10(g) reads as rewritten:

26 "(g) Upon the motion of the Division, any employer refusing to submit any report 27 required under this Chapter, after 10 days' written notice sent by the Division by registered or 28 certified mail to the employer's last known address, may be enjoined by any court of competent 29 jurisdiction from hiring and continuing in employment any employees until such report is 30 properly submitted. When an execution has been returned to the Division unsatisfied, and the 31 employer, after 10 days' written notice sent by the Division by registered or certified mail to the 32 employer's last known address, refuses to pay the contributions covered by the execution, such 33 employer shall upon the motion of the Division be enjoined by any court of competent 34 jurisdiction from hiring and continuing in employment any employees until such contributions 35 have been paid.

36 An employer who fails to file a report within the required time shall be assessed a late filing 37 penalty of five percent (5%) of the amount of contributions due with the report for each month
38 or fraction of a month the failure continues. The penalty may not exceed twenty-five percent 39 (25%) of the amount of contributions due. An employer who fails to file a report within the 40 required time but owes no contributions shall not be assessed a penalty unless the employer's 41 failure to file continues for more than 30 days."

42 SECTION 10. G.S. 96-11.2, as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

43 "§ 96-11.2. Allocation of charges to base period employers.

44 Benefits paid to an individual are charged to an employer's account when the individual's 45 benefit year has expired. Benefits paid to an individual must be allocated to the account of each 46 base period employer in the proportion that the base period wages paid to the individual in a 47 calendar quarter by each base period employer bears to the total wages paid to the individual in 48 ~~that quarter~~ the base period by all base period employers. The amount allocated to an employer 49 that pays contributions is multiplied by one hundred twenty percent (120%) and charged to that 50 employer's account. The amount allocated to an employer that elects to reimburse the

1 Unemployment Insurance Fund in lieu of paying contributions is the amount of benefits 2 charged to that employer's account."

3 SECTION 11. G.S. 96-11.4(a), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

4 "(a) ...

5 (2) The employer or agent has a pattern of failing to respond timely or 6 adequately to requests from the Division for information relating to claims 7 for unemployment compensation. In determining whether the employer or 8 agent has a pattern of failing to respond timely or adequately, the Division 9 must consider the number of documented instances of that employer's or 10 agent's failures to respond in relation to the total requests made to that 11 employer or agent. An employer or agent may not be determined to have a 12 pattern of failing to respond if the number of failures during the year prior to 13 the request is ~~less~~ fewer than two or less than two percent (2%) of the total 14 requests made to that employer or agent, whichever is greater."

15 SECTION 12. G.S. 96-14.1(e), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

16 "(e) Federal Restrictions. – Benefits are not payable for services performed by the 17 following individuals, to the extent prohibited by section 3304 of the Code:

18 (1) Instructional, research, or principal administrative employees of educational 19 institutions.

20 (2) Services in any other capacity for an educational institution.

21 ~~(2)~~(3) Professional athletes.

22 ~~(3)~~(4) Aliens."

23 SECTION 13. G.S. 96-14.3, as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

24 "§ 96-14.3. Minimum and maximum duration of benefits.

25 The minimum and maximum number of weeks an individual is allowed to receive 26 unemployment benefits depends on the seasonal adjusted statewide unemployment rate that 27 applies to the six-month base period in which the claim is filed. One six-month base period 28 begins on January 1 and one six-month base period begins on July 1. For the base period that 29 begins January 1, the average of the seasonal adjusted unemployment rate-rates for the State for 30 the preceding ~~month~~ months of October–July, August, and September applies. For the base 31 period that begins July 1, the average of the seasonal adjusted unemployment rate-rates for the 32 State for the preceding ~~month~~ months of April–January, February, and March applies. The 33 Division must use the most recent seasonal adjusted unemployment rate determined by the U.S.
34 Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, and not the rate as revised in the annual 35 benchmark. The number of weeks allowed for an individual is determined in accordance with 36 G.S. 96-14.4.

37"

38 SECTION 14. G.S. 96-14.9(d), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

39 "(d) ...

40 (4) The individual is on disciplinary suspension for ~~more than 30~~ or fewer days 41 based on acts or omissions that constitute fault on the part of the employee 42 and are connected with the work."

43 SECTION 15. G.S. 96-14.10, as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

44 "§ 96-14.10. Disciplinary suspension.

45 The disciplinary suspension of an employee for 30 or fewer consecutive calendar days does 46 not constitute good cause for leaving work. An individual who is on suspension is not available 47 for work and is not eligible for benefits for any week during any part of the disciplinary 48 suspension. If the disciplinary suspension exceeds 30 days, the individual is considered to have 49 been discharged from work because of the acts or omissions that caused the suspension and the 50 issue is whether the discharge was for disqualifying reasons. During the period of suspension of 51 ~~up to 30~~ or fewer days, the individual is considered to be attached to the employer's payroll,

1 and the issue of separation from work is held in abeyance until a claim is filed for a week to 2 which this section does not apply."

3 SECTION 16. G.S. 96-15(a1), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

4 "(a1) Attached Claims. – An employer may file claims for employees through the use of 5 automation in the case of partial unemployment. An employer may file an attached claim for an 6 employee only once during a ~~calendar year~~, benefit year, and the period of partial 7 unemployment for which the claim is filed may not exceed six weeks. To file an attached 8 claim, an employer must pay the Division an amount equal to the full cost of unemployment 9 benefits payable to the employee under the attached claim at the time the attached claim is 10 filed. The Division must credit the amounts paid to the Unemployment Insurance Fund.

11 An employer may file an attached claim under this subsection only if the employer has a 12 positive credit balance in its account as determined under Article 2B of this Chapter. If an 13 employer does not have a positive credit balance in its account, the employer must remit to the 14 Division an amount equal to the amount necessary to bring the employer's negative credit 15 balance to at least zero at the time the employer files the attached claim."

16 SECTION 17. G.S. 96-15(b), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

17 "(b) ...

18 (2) Adjudication. – When a protest is made by the claimant to the initial or 19 monetary determination, or a question or issue is raised or presented as to the 20 eligibility of a claimant, or whether any disqualification should be imposed, 21 or benefits denied or adjusted pursuant to G.S. 96-18, the matter shall be 22 referred to an adjudicator. The adjudicator may consider any matter, 23 document or statement deemed to be pertinent to the issues, including 24 telephone conversations, and after such consideration shall render a 25 conclusion as to the claimant's benefit entitlements. The adjudicator shall 26 notify the claimant and all other interested parties of the conclusion reached.
27 The conclusion of the adjudicator shall be deemed the final decision of the 28 Division unless within 30 days after the date of notification or mailing of the 29 conclusion, whichever is earlier, a written appeal is filed pursuant to rules 30 adopted by the Division. The Division shall be deemed an interested party 31 for such purposes and may remove to itself or transfer to an appeals referee 32 the proceedings involving any claim pending before an adjudicator.

33 Provided, any interested employer shall be allowed ~~40~~14 days from the 34 mailing or delivery of the notice of the filing of a claim against the 35 employer's account, whichever first occurs, to file with the Division its 36 account to protest of the claim in order to and have the claim referred to an 37 adjudicator for a decision on the question or issue raised. Any protest filed 38 must contain a basis for the protest and supporting statement of facts, and the 39 protest may not be amended after the 14-day period from the mailing or 40 delivery of the notice of filing of a claim has expired. A copy of the notice of 41 the filing shall be sent contemporaneously to the employer by telefacsimile 42 transmission if a fax number is on file. No payment of benefits shall be made 43 by the Division to a claimant until one of the following occurs:

44 a. The employer has filed a timely protest to the claim.

45 b. The 14-day period for the filing of a protest by the employer has 46 expired.

47 c. A determination under this subdivision has been made.

48 Provided further, no question or issue may be raised or presented by the 49 Division as to the eligibility of a claimant, or whether any disqualification 50 should be imposed, after 45 days from the first day of the first week after the 51 question or issue occurs with respect to which week an individual filed a

1 claim for benefits. None of the provisions of this subsection shall have the 2 force and effect nor shall the same be construed or interested as repealing 3 any other provisions of G.S. 96-18.

4 An employer shall receive written notice of the employer's appeal rights 5 and any forms that are required to allow the employer to protest the claim.
6 The forms shall include a section referencing the appropriate rules pertaining 7 to appeals and the instructions on how to appeal."

8 SECTION 18. G.S. 96-9.15(d), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

9 "(d) Form of Report. – An employer must complete the tax form prescribed by the 10 Division. An employer or an agent of an employer that reports wages for at least 25 employees 11 must file the portion of the "Employer's Quarterly Tax and Wage Report" that contains the 12 name, social security number, and gross wages of each employee in ~~a~~an electronic format 13 prescribed by the Division. For failure of an employer to comply with this subsection, the 14 Division must assess a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25.00). For failure of an agent of an 15 employer to comply with this subsection, the Division may deny the agent the right to report 16 wages and file reports for that employer for a period of one year following the calendar quarter 17 in which the agent filed the improper report. The Division may reduce or waive a penalty for 18 good cause shown."

19 SECTION 19. Section 11 of S.L. 2013-2 reads as rewritten:

20 "SECTION 11. This act becomes effective July 1, 2013. Changes made by this act to 21 unemployment benefits apply to claims for benefits filed on or after ~~July 1, 2013.~~ June 30, 22 2013. The requirements of G.S. 96-15(a1) apply to any week of an attached claim filed on or 23 after June 30, 2013. Changes made by this act to require an account balance by an employer 24 that is a governmental entity or a nonprofit organization and that elects to finance benefits by 25 making reimbursable payments in lieu of contributions apply to advance payments payable for 26 calendar quarters beginning on or after July 1, 2013. Changes made by this act to the 27 determination and application of the contribution rate apply to contributions payable for 28 calendar quarters beginning on or after January 1, 2014."

29 SECTION 20.(a) G.S. 96-4(x)(6), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

30 "(6) Nothing in this subsection ~~(x)(6)~~ shall operate to relieve any claimant or 31 employer from disclosing any information required by this Chapter or by 32 regulations promulgated thereunder."

33 SECTION 20.(b) G.S. 96-4(x)(7) reads as rewritten:

34 "(7) Nothing in this subsection ~~(x)(7)~~ shall be construed to prevent the Division 35 from allowing any individual or entity to examine and copy any report, 36 return, or any other written communication made by that individual or entity 37 to the Division, its agents, or its employees."

38 SECTION 20.(c) G.S. 96-9.5(4)(c.), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

39 "c. The employer has elected coverage in this State in accordance with 40 ~~G.S. 96-9.9.~~ G.S. 96-9.8."

41 SECTION 20.(d) G.S. 96-10(d) reads as rewritten:

42 "(d) Collections of Contributions upon Transfer or Cessation of Business. – The 43 contribution or tax imposed by ~~G.S. 96-9.2, G.S. 96-9,~~ and subsections thereunder, of this 44 Chapter shall be a lien upon the assets of the business of any employer subject to the provisions 45 hereof who shall lease, transfer or sell out his business, or shall cease to do business and such 46 employer shall be required, by the next reporting date as prescribed by the Division, to file with 47 the Division all reports and pay all contributions due with respect to wages payable for 48 employment up to the date of such lease, transfer, sale or cessation of the business and such 49 employer's successor in business shall be required to withhold sufficient of the purchase money 50 to cover the amount of said contributions due and unpaid until such time as the former owner or 51 employer shall produce a receipt from the Division showing that the contributions have been

1 paid, or a certificate that no contributions are due. If the purchaser of a business or a successor 2 of such employer shall fail to withhold purchase money or any money due to such employer in 3 consideration of a lease or other transfer and the contributions shall be due and unpaid after the 4 next reporting date, as above set forth, such successor shall be personally liable to the extent of 5 the assets of the business so acquired for the payment of the contributions accrued and unpaid 6 on account of the operation of the business by the former owner or employer."

7 SECTION 20.(e) G.S. 96-14.11(c)(2), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as 8 rewritten:

9 "(2) The individual was recalled in a week in which the work search 10 requirements were satisfied under ~~G.S. 96-14.7(g)~~ G.S. 96-14.9(g) due to job 11 attachment."

12 SECTION 20.(f) G.S. 96-14.14(c)(2), as recodified by S.L. 2013-2, reads as 13 rewritten:

14 "(2) The individual has satisfied the requirements of this Chapter for the receipt 15 of regular benefits that are applicable to individuals claiming extended 16 benefits, including not being subject to a disqualification for the receipt of 17 benefits. Provided, however, that for purposes of disqualification for 18 extended benefits for weeks of unemployment beginning after March 31, 19 1981, the term "suitable work" means any work which is within the 20 individual's capabilities to perform if: (i) The gross average weekly 21 remuneration payable for the work exceeds the sum of the individual's 22 weekly extended benefit amount plus the amount, if any, of supplemental 23 unemployment benefits (as defined in section 501(C)(17)(D) of the Internal 24 Revenue Code of 1954) payable to such individual for such week; and (ii) 25 the gross wages payable for the work equal the higher of the minimum 26 wages provided by section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938
27 as amended (without regard to any exemption), or the State minimum wage; 28 and (iii) the work is offered to the individual in writing and is listed with the 30 G.S. 96-14.9(f)~~G.S. 96-14(3)~~ for determining whether or not work is suitable 31 are applied to the extent that they are not inconsistent with the specific 32 requirements of this subdivision; and (v) the individual cannot furnish 33 evidence satisfactory to the Division that his prospects for obtaining work in 34 his customary occupation within a reasonably short period of time are good, 35 but if the individual submits evidence which the Division deems satisfactory 36 for this purpose, the determination of whether or not work is suitable with 37 respect to such individual shall be made in accordance with 38 G.S. 96-14.9(f)~~G.S. 96-14(3)~~ without regard to the definition contained in 39 this subdivision. Provided, further, that no work shall be deemed to be 40 suitable work for an individual which does not accord with the labor 41 standard provisions set forth in this subdivision, but the employment service 42 shall refer any individual claiming extended benefits to any work which is 43 deemed suitable hereunder. Provided, further, that any individual who has 44 been disqualified for voluntarily leaving employment, being discharged for 45 misconduct or substantial fault, or refusing suitable work under 46 G.S. 96-14.11~~G.S. 96-14~~ and who has had the disqualification terminated, 47 shall have such disqualification reinstated when claiming extended benefits

5 engaged in a systematic and sustained effort to find work. If an individual is 6 found to be ineligible hereunder, he shall be ineligible beginning with the 7 week in which he either failed to apply for or to accept the offer of suitable 8 work or failed to furnish the Division with tangible evidence that he has 9 actively engaged in a systematic and sustained effort to find work and such 10 individual shall continue to be ineligible for extended benefits until he has 11 been employed in each of four subsequent weeks (whether or not 12 consecutive) and has earned remuneration equal to not less than four times 13 his weekly benefit amount."

14 SECTION 20.(h) G.S. 96-14.14(e)(1), as recodified by S.L. 2013-2, reads as
