5 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

6 SECTION 1. G.S. 1-110 reads as rewritten:

7 "§ 1-110. Suit as an indigent; counsel; waiver of fees; suits filed pro se by prison inmates.

8 (a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) of this section with respect to prison
9 inmates, any superior or district court judge or clerk of the superior court may authorize a 10 person to sue as an indigent in their respective courts when the person makes affidavit that he 11 or she is unable to advance the required court costs. The clerk of superior court shall authorize 12 a person to sue as an indigent if the person makes the required affidavit and meets one or more
13 of the following criteria:

- 15 (2) Receives Work First Family Assistance.
- 16 (3) Receives Supplemental Security Income (SSI).

18 the furnishing of legal services to indigent persons.

23 A superior or district court judge or clerk of superior court may authorize a person who

25 advance the required court costs. The court to which the summons is returnable may dismiss
26 the case and charge the court costs to the person suing as an indigent if the allegations
27 contained in the affidavit are determined to be untrue or if the court is satisfied that the action is 28 frivolous or malicious.

29 Whenever any superior or district court judge or clerk of court authorizes a person to sue as 30 an indigent under this section, in addition to having the court costs associated with the filing of 31 the lawsuit waived, any fees or costs associated with executing upon a judgment entered by the 32 court as a result of that lawsuit shall also be waived.

33 (b) Whenever a motion to proceed as an indigent is filed pro se by an inmate in the 34 custody of the Division of Adult Correction of the Department of Public Safety, the motion to 35 proceed as an indigent and the proposed complaint shall be presented to any superior court
36 judge of the judicial district. This judge shall determine whether the complaint is frivolous. In
