10 The following definitions apply in this Article:

13 short-time compensation plan applies.

15 Division as provided by this Article.
- 16 (3) Health and retirement benefits. – Employer-provided health benefits and 17 retirement benefits under a defined benefit pension plan as defined in 18 Section 414(j) of the Internal Revenue Code, contributions under a defined 19 contribution plan as defined in Section 414(i) of the Internal Revenue Code, 20 or that are incidents of employment in addition to the cash remuneration 21 earned.
- 22 (4) Program. – Short-time compensation program established pursuant to this 23 Article.
- 24 (5) Short-time compensation. – The unemployment benefits payable to 25 employees in an affected unit under an approved short-time compensation 26 plan, as distinguished from the unemployment benefits otherwise payable 27 under the unemployment compensation provisions of a state law.

29 approval by an affected unit of the employer to avert layoffs.

35 part-time employees in the affected unit when that unit is operating on its

1 regular basis, not to exceed 40 hours and not including hours of overtime 2 work.

3 "§ 96-41. Application to participate in short-time compensation program.

4 An employer that wishes to participate in the Program shall submit to the Division a signed, 5 written short-time compensation plan for approval. The Division shall develop an application 6 form to request approval of a plan and an approval process. The application shall include:

7 (1) The affected unit or units covered by the plan, including the number of 8 full-time or part-time workers in the unit, the percentage of workers in the 9 affected unit covered by the plan, identification of each individual employee 10 in the affected unit by name, social security number, and the employer's 11 unemployment tax account number, and any other information required by 12 the Division to identify plan participants.

13 (2) A description of how workers in the affected unit will be notified of the 14 employer's participation in the plan if the application is approved, including 15 how the employer will notify those workers in a collective bargaining unit as 16 well as any workers in the affected unit who are not in a collective 17 bargaining unit. If the employer will not provide advance notice to workers 18 in the affected unit, the employer shall explain in a statement in the 19 application why it is not feasible to provide the notice.

20 (3) A requirement that the employer identify the usual weekly hours of work for 21 employees in the affected unit and the specific percentage by which their 22 hours will be reduced during all weeks covered by the plan. An application 23 shall specify the percentage of reduction for which a short-time 24 compensation application may be approved, which shall be not less than ten 25 percent (10%) and not more than sixty percent (60%). If the plan includes 26 any week for which the employer regularly provides no work due to a 27 holiday or other plant closing, then the week shall be identified in the 28 application.

29 (4) Certification by the employer that, if the employer provides health benefits 30 and retirement benefits to any employee whose usual weekly hours of work 31 are reduced under the Program, the benefits will continue to be provided to 32 employees participating in the Program under the same terms and conditions 33 as though the usual weekly hours of the employee had not been reduced or to 34 the same extent as other employees not participating in the Program. For 35 defined benefit retirement plans, the hours that are reduced under the plan 36 shall be credited for purposes of participation, vesting, and accrual of 37 benefits as though the usual weekly hours of work had not been reduced.
38 The dollar amount of employer contributions to a defined contribution plan 39 that are based on a percentage of compensation may be due less to the 40 reduction in the employee's compensation. However, an application may 41 contain the required certification when a reduction in health and retirement 42 benefits scheduled to occur during the duration of the plan will be applicable 43 equally to employees who are not participating in the Program and to those 44 employees who are participating.

45 (5) Certification by the employer that the aggregate reduction in work hours is 46 in lieu of layoffs, whether temporary or permanent layoffs or both. The 47 application shall include an estimate of the number of workers who would 48 have been laid off in the absence of the plan.

49 (6) Agreement by the employer to (i) furnish reports to the Division relating to 50 the proper conduct of the plan, (ii) allow the Division access to all records 51 necessary to approve or disapprove the plan application and, after approval

1 of the plan, monitor and evaluate the plan, and (iii) follow any other 2 directives the Division deems necessary for the agency to implement the 3 plan and that are consistent with the requirements for plan applications.

4 (7) Certification by the employer that participation in the plan and its 5 implementation is consistent with the employer's obligations under 6 applicable federal and state laws.

7 (8) The effective date and duration of the plan, which shall expire no later than 8 the end of the 12th full calendar month after the effective date.

9 (9) Any other provision added to the application by the Division that the U.S.
10 Secretary of Labor determines to be appropriate for purpose of a Program.

11 "§ 96-42. Approval and disapproval of plan.

12 The Division shall approve or disapprove a short-time compensation plan in writing within 13 30 days of its receipt and promptly communicate the decision to the employer. A decision 14 disapproving the plan shall clearly identify the reasons for the disapproval. The disapproval 15 shall be final, but the employer shall be allowed to submit another plan for approval not earlier 16 than 90 days from the date of the disapproval.

17 "§ 96-43. Effective date and duration of plan.

18 A short-time compensation plan shall be effective on the date that is mutually agreed upon 19 by the employer and the Division, which shall be specified in the notice of approval to the 20 employer. The plan shall expire on the date specified in the notice of approval, which shall be 21 either the date at the end of the 12th full calendar month after its effective date or an earlier date 22 mutually agreed upon by the employer and the Division. However, if a short-time 23 compensation plan is revoked under G.S. 96-44, the plan shall terminate on the date specified 24 in the Division's written order of revocation. An employer may terminate a plan at any time 25 upon written notice to the Division. Upon receipt of notice from the employer, the Division 26 shall promptly notify each member of the affected unit of the termination date. An employer 27 may submit a new application to participate in another plan at any time after the expiration or 28 termination date.

29 "§ 96-44. Revocation of approval of plan.

30 (a) The Division may revoke approval of a short-time compensation plan for good 31 cause at any time, including upon the request of any of the affected unit's employees. The 32 revocation order shall be in writing and shall specify the reasons for the revocation and the date 33 the revocation is effective.

34 (b) The Division may periodically review the operation of each employer's plan to 35 assure that no good cause exists for revocation of the approval of the plan. Good cause shall 36 include, but not be limited to, failure to comply with the assurances given in the plan, 37 unreasonable revision of productivity standards for the affected unit, conduct or occurrences 38 tending to defeat the intent and effective operation of the plan, and violation of any criteria on 39 which approval of the plan was based.

40 "§ 96-45. Modification of approved plan.

41 (a) An employer may request a modification of an approved plan by filing a written 42 request to the Division. The request shall identify the specific provisions proposed to be 43 modified and provide an explanation of why the proposed modification is appropriate for the 44 plan. The Division shall approve or disapprove the proposed modification in writing within 30 45 days of receipt and promptly communicate the decision to the employer.

46 (b) The Division, in its discretion, may approve a request for modification of the plan 47 based on conditions that have changed since the plan was approved, provided that the 48 modification is consistent with and supports the purposes for which the plan was initially 49 approved. A modification shall not extend the expiration date of the original plan, and the 50 Division shall promptly notify the employer whether the plan modification has been approved 51 and, if approved, the effective date of modification.

1 (c) An employer is not required to request approval of a plan modification if the change
2 is not substantial, but the employer shall report every change to the plan to the Division 3 promptly and in writing. The Division may terminate an employer's plan if the employer fails to 4 meet this reporting requirement. If the Division determines that the reported change is 5 substantial, the Division shall require the employer to request a modification to the plan.

6 "§ 96-46. Eligibility for short-time compensation.

7 An individual is eligible to receive short-time compensation with respect to any week only 8 if the individual is monetarily eligible for unemployment compensation, not otherwise 9 disqualified for unemployment compensation, and:

10 (1) During the week, the individual is employed as a member of an affected unit 11 under an approved short-time compensation plan, which was approved prior 12 to that week, and the plan is in effect with respect to the week for which 13 short-time compensation is claimed;

14 (2) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title relating to availability for 15 work and actively seeking work, the individual is available for the 16 individual's usual hours of work with the short-time compensation employer, 17 which may include, for purposes of this section, participating in training to 18 enhance job skills that is approved by the Division as employer-sponsored 19 training or training funded under the Workforce Investment Act of 1998; and 20 (3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an individual covered by a plan 21 is deemed unemployed in any week during the duration of the plan if the 22 individual's remuneration as an employee in an affected unit is reduced 23 based on a reduction of the individual's usual weekly hours of work under an 24 approved short-time compensation plan.

25 "§ 96-47. Benefits.

26 (a) The short-time compensation weekly benefit amount shall be the product of the 27 regular weekly unemployment compensation amount for a week of total unemployment 28 multiplied by the percentage of reduction in the individual's usual weekly hours of work.

29 (b) An individual may be eligible for short-time compensation or unemployment 30 compensation, as appropriate, except that no individual shall be:

31 (1) Eligible for combined benefits in any benefit year in an amount more than 32 the maximum entitlement established for regular unemployment 33 compensation; and

34 (2) Paid short-time compensation benefits for more than 52 weeks under a plan.

35 (c) The short-time compensation paid to an individual shall be deducted from the 36 maximum entitlement amount of regular unemployment compensation established for the 37 individual's benefit year.

38 (d) Provisions applicable to unemployment compensation claimants shall apply to 39 short-time compensation claimants to the extent that they are not inconsistent with the 40 Program's provisions. An individual who files an initial claim for short-time compensation 41 benefits shall receive a monetary determination.

42 (e) The following provisions apply to individuals who work for both a short-time 43 compensation employer and another employer during weeks covered by the approved 44 short-time compensation plan:

45 (1) If combined hours of work in a week for both employers do not result in a 46 reduction of at least ten percent (10%) or, if higher, the minimum percentage 47 of reduction required to be eligible for a short-time compensation benefit as 48 provided in this title, of the usual weekly hours of work with the short-time 49 employer, the individual shall not be entitled to benefits under these 50 short-time compensation provisions.

1 (2) If the combined hours of work for both employers results in a reduction 2 equal to or greater than ten percent (10%) or, if higher, the minimum 3 percentage reduction required to be eligible for a short-time compensation 4 employer, the short-time compensation benefit amount payable to the 5 individual is reduced for that week and is determined by multiplying the 6 weekly unemployment benefit amount for a week of total unemployment by 7 the percentage by which the combined hours of work have been reduced by 8 ten percent (10%) or, if higher, the minimum percentage reduction required 9 to be eligible for a short-time compensation benefit as provided in this title, 10 or more of the individual's usual weekly hours of work. A week for which 11 benefits are paid under this subdivision shall be reported as a week of 12 short-time compensation.

13 (3) If an individual worked the reduced percentage of the usual weekly hours of 14 work for the short-time compensation employer and is available for all his or 15 her usual hours of work with the short-time compensation employer, and the 16 individual did not work any hours for the other employer, either because of 17 the lack of work with that employer or because the individual is excused 18 from work with the other employer, the individual shall be eligible for 19 short-time compensation for that week. The benefit amount for the week 20 shall be calculated as provided in subsection (a) of this section.

21 (f) An individual who is not provided any work during a week by the short-time 22 compensation employer, or any other employer, and who is otherwise eligible for 23 unemployment compensation shall be eligible for the amount of regular unemployment 24 compensation to which the individual would otherwise be eligible.

25 (g) An individual who is not provided any work by the short-time compensation 26 employer during a week, but who works for another employer and is otherwise eligible, may be 27 paid unemployment compensation for that week subject to the disqualifying income or other 28 provision applicable to claims for regular compensation.

29 "§ 96-48. Changing short-time compensation benefits.

30 Short-time compensation shall be charged to employers' experience rating accounts in the 31 same manner as unemployment compensation is charged under this title. Employers liable for 32 payments in lieu of contributions shall have short-time compensation attributed to service in 33 their employ in the same manner as unemployment compensation is attributed.

34 "§ 96-49. Extended benefits.

35 An individual who has received all of the short-time compensation or combined 36 unemployment compensation and short-time compensation available in a benefit year shall be 37 considered an exhaustee for purposes of extended benefits, and if otherwise eligible under those 38 provisions, shall be eligible to receive extended benefits.

39 "§ 96-50. Severability.

40 If any provision of this Article is found by the U.S. Department of Labor to be in violation 41 of federal law, the finding shall render the provision of this Article inoperative, but the finding 42 shall invalidate the remaining provisions of this Article and is confined in its operation to the 43 specific provision found to be in violation of federal law."

44 SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.
