- 17 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:
- 18 SECTION 1. Section 16 of Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution reads as 19 rewritten:

20 "Sec. 16.(1) Terms of office and election of Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of the 21 Court of Appeals, and Judges of the Superior Court. Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of 22 the Court of Appeals, and regular Judges of the Superior Court shall be elected and retained by 23 the qualified voters as provided by this section and shall hold office for terms of eight years and until their successors are elected and qualified. Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of the 24 25 Court of Appeals shall be elected and retained by the qualified voters of the State. Regular Judges of the Superior Court may shall be elected and retained by the qualified voters of the 26 27 State or by the voters of their respective districts, as the General Assembly may 28 prescribe.districts.

29 (2) General principles. – Justices and Judges of the Appellate Division and Judges of 30 the Superior Court should be selected for and continue to hold office solely upon the basis of 31 personal and professional fitness to administer justice wisely, according to law, and without 32 favor, denial, or delay to all persons who come into the courts. While their continuation in 33 office should be periodically subject to approval by the people, both their initial selection and 34 continuation in office should be free from the influences and necessities of partisan political 35 activity.

1 elected, the Governor shall appoint an Associate Justice to be Chief Justice, and the person 2 shall be treated as if filling a vacancy as Associate Justice under subsection (3) of this Section. 3 Appointment of an Associate Justice as Chief Justice creates a vacancy in the office of 4 Associate Justice. 5 (5) Transition provisions. - The term of office of a person who has been elected before January 1, 2013, to the office of Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the Appellate 6 Division for a term which extends beyond January 1, 2013, and who is in office on December 7 8 31, 2012, is extended through January 31 of the year following the eighth year after the date 9 any such Justice or Judge was last elected to the office. If the person so elected continues to 10 serve for the remainder of the term, that person may stand for retention in the office for a 11 succeeding regular term as provided in this Section, subject to the provisions of law relating to mandatory retirement. If the person continues to serve for the remainder of the term but does 12 13 not stand for retention election, a vacancy is created in the office upon expiration of the term 14 and this vacancy shall be filled by nomination and appointment as provided in this Section. 15 The term of office of a person who has been appointed prior to January 1, 2013, to a 16 vacancy occurring during the period beginning on the 60th day before the 2012 general election 17 and ending December 31, 2012, to the office of Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the 18 Appellate Division for a term which extends beyond January 1, 2013, and who is in office on 19 December 31, 2012, shall end on January 31, 2015. If the person so appointed continues to 20 serve for the remainder of the term, that person may stand for retention in the office for a 21 regular term as provided by this Section at the statewide election for members of the General 22 Assembly held in 2014. 23 Upon the death, resignation, removal, or retirement of any incumbent Justice or Judge on or 24 after January 1, 2013, and before the expiration of the Justice's or Judge's term of office, the 25 resulting vacancy shall be filled by nomination and appointment as provided in this Section. 26 Vacancies in judicial offices in the Appellate Division occurring before January 1, 2012, and not filled by that date, shall be filled by nomination and appointment as provided in this 27 28 Section. 29 From the date any incumbent described in this subsection is continued in office by retention 30 vote for a term next succeeding the term in progress on January 1, 2013, or is succeeded in 31 office by another person, the office is held subject to the provisions of this Section. 32 The General Assembly shall create by law a Judicial Nominating Commission. (6)33 Once established, the composition and method of choosing the members of the Commission 34 shall not be changed except by a law approved by two-thirds of the members of each house 35 present and voting. The law may provide for direct appointments by officers and leaders of the 36 General Assembly. Except to fill a vacancy in the office of Chief Justice as provided by this 37 Section, the Judicial Nominating Commission shall recommend two eligible persons to fill the 38 vacancy, and the Governor may only appoint a person so recommended. 39 The General Assembly may implement this Section by general law." (7)40 SECTION 2. The amendment set out in Section 1 of this act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State at an election on November 4, 2014, which election shall be 41 42 conducted under the laws then governing elections in the State. Ballots, voting systems, or both 43 may be used in accordance with Chapter 163 of the General Statutes. The question on the ballot 44 shall be: 45 "[] FOR [] AGAINST Constitutional amendment to replace the present practice of selecting Justices and 46 47 Judges of the Appellate Division and Judges of the Superior Court by gubernatorial 48 appointment, followed by elections, with a method by which (i) two candidates for Justice and 49 Judge will be nominated by a nominating commission, the Governor will appoint one of them, 50 and at the next election the voters will choose in a nonpartisan election between the two 51 persons, (ii) at the end of the term of a Justice or Judge who has successfully won an election,

General Assembly of North Carolina

Session 2013

1 (f) Notice of Candidacy for Certain Offices to Indicate Vacancy. – In any election in 2 which there are two or more vacancies for the office of justice of the Supreme Court, judge of 3 the Court of Appeals, or district court judge to be filled by nominations, each candidate shall, at 4 the time of filing notice of candidacy, file with the State Board of Elections a written statement 5 designating the vacancy to which the candidate seeks election. Votes cast for a candidate shall 6 be effective only for election to the vacancy for which the candidate has given notice of 7 candidacy as provided in this subsection.

8 A person seeking election for a specialized district judgeship established under G.S. 7A-147 9 shall, at the time of filing notice of candidacy, file with the State Board of Elections a written 10 statement designating the specialized judgeship to which the person seeks nomination.

11 (g) No person may file a notice of candidacy for superior court judge unless that person 12 is at the time of filing the notice of candidacy a resident of the judicial district as it will exist at 13 the time the person would take office if elected. No person may be nominated as a superior 14 court judge under G.S. 163-114 unless that person is at the time of nomination a resident of the 15 judicial district as it will exist at the time the person would take office if elected. This 16 subsection implements Article IV, Section 9(1) of the North Carolina Constitution which 17 requires regular Superior Court Judges to reside in the district for which elected."
