31 civil cases in superior court designed to make more efficient use of superior court time and 32 resources, including a more flexible designation of mixed sessions. The study shall consider a 33 system that would allow exceptional cases to be assigned to a superior court judge to oversee 34 the case, including scheduling of pretrial hearings, motions hearings, and trial of the case. The 36 result of the study to the Joint Legislative Oversight Committee on Justice and Public Safety by 45 SECTION 5. The Administrative Office of the Courts, in conjunction with the 46 North Carolina Courts Commission, shall study the current law for the appointment and 47 supervision of magistrates. The study shall consider whether supervision of magistrates should 48 be the responsibility of some person other than the chief district court judge and shall address 49 whether any other changes should be made to the process for appointing and supervising 50 magistrates. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall report the results of this study to the 51 Joint Legislative Oversight Committee on Justice and Public Safety by March 1, 2016.

1 SECTION 6. G.S. 7A-38.7 reads as rewritten:

2 "§ 7A-38.7. Dispute resolution fee for cases resolved in mediation.

3 (a) In each criminal case filed in the General Court of Justice that is resolved through 4 referral to a community mediation center, a dispute resolution fee shall be assessed in the sum
5 of sixty dollars ($60.00) per mediation to support the services provided by the community
6 mediation centers and the Mediation Network of North Carolina. Prior to mediation, the parties 7 shall be notified of the fee and the fee shall be paid as part of any mediation that results in 8 dismissal. Fees assessed under this section shall be paid to the clerk of superior court in the 9 county where the case was filed and remitted by the clerk to the Mediation Network of North 10 Carolina. The Mediation Network may retain up to three dollars ($3.00) of this amount as an 11 allowance for its administrative expenses. The Mediation Network must remit the remainder of 12 this amount to the community mediation center that mediated the case. The court may waive or 13 reduce a fee assessed under this section only upon entry of a written order, supported by 14 findings of fact and conclusions of law, determining there is just cause to grant the waiver or 15 reduction.

16 (b) No criminal case shall be dismissed through referral to mediation unless the full 17 amount of the dispute resolution fee as required by subsection (a) of this section is paid within 18 45 days of the completion of the mediation. If payment has not been made within that time, the 19 case shall be remanded back to the court for disposition. Before providing the district attorney 20 with a dismissal form, the community mediation center shall require proof that the defendant 21 has paid the dispute resolution fee as required by subsection (a) of this section and shall attach 22 the receipt to the dismissal form."

23 SECTION 7.(a) The catch line of G.S. 7A-38.4A reads as rewritten:

24 "§ 7A-38.4A. Settlement procedures in ~~district court~~family financial actions."

25 SECTION 7.(b) G.S. 7A-38.4A(c) reads as rewritten:

26 "(c) Any chief district court judge in a judicial district may order a mediated settlement 27 conference or may order another settlement procedure, as provided under subsection (g) of this 28 section, for any action pending in that district involving issues of equitable distribution, 29 alimony, child or post separation support, or claims arising out of contracts between the parties
30 under G.S. 52-10, G.S. 52-10.1, or Chapter 52B of the General Statutes. The chief district court 31 judge may adopt local rules that order settlement procedures in all of the foregoing actions and 32 designate other district court judges or administrative personnel to issue orders implementing 33 those settlement procedures. However, local rules adopted by a chief district court judge shall 34 not be inconsistent with any rules adopted by the Supreme Court."

35 SECTION 7.(c) Article 5 of Chapter 7A of the General Statutes is amended by 36 adding a new section to read:

37 "§ 7A-38.4B. Settlement procedures in district court general civil actions.

38 (a) The General Assembly finds that a system of settlement events should be 39 established to facilitate the settlement of district court civil actions, other than those involving 40 family issues covered by the provisions of G.S. 7A-38.4A, in order to make that litigation more 41 economical, efficient, and satisfactory to the parties, their representatives, and the State.
42 District courts should be able to require parties to those actions and their representatives to 43 attend a pretrial mediated settlement conference or other settlement procedure conducted under 44 this section and rules adopted by the Supreme Court to implement this section.

45 (b) The definitions in G.S. 7A-38.1(b)(2) and (b)(3) apply in this section.

46 (c) The chief district court judge, or that person's designee, in a judicial district may 47 order a mediated settlement conference or may order another settlement procedure, as provided 48 under subsection (g) of this section, for any district court civil action, other than those 49 involving family issues covered by the provisions of G.S. 7A-38.4A and issues exempted by 50 the rules of the Supreme Court implementing this section. The chief district court judge may 51 adopt local rules that order settlement procedures in all of the foregoing actions and designate

1 other district court judges or administrative personnel to issue orders implementing those 2 settlement procedures. However, local rules adopted by a chief district court judge shall not be 3 inconsistent with any rules adopted by the Supreme Court.

4 (d) The parties to a district court action where a mediated settlement conference or 5 other settlement procedure is ordered, their attorneys, and other persons or entities with 6 authority, by law or contract, to settle a party's claim, shall attend the mediated settlement 7 conference or other settlement procedure, unless the rules ordering the settlement procedure
8 provide otherwise. No party or other participant in a mediated settlement conference or other 9 settlement procedure is required to make a settlement offer or demand that the party or 10 participant deems contrary to that party's or participant's best interests. Parties who have been 11 victims of domestic violence may be excused from physically attending or participating in a 12 mediated settlement conference or other settlement procedure.

13 (e) Any person required to attend a mediated settlement conference or other settlement 14 procedure under this section who, without good cause, fails to attend or fails to pay any or all of 15 the mediator's or other neutral's fee in compliance with this section is subject to the contempt 16 powers of the court and monetary sanctions imposed by a district court judge. A party seeking 17 sanctions against another party or person shall do so in a written motion stating the grounds for 18 the motion and the relief sought. The motion shall be served upon all parties and upon any 19 person against whom sanctions are being sought. The court may initiate sanction proceedings 20 upon its own motion by the entry of a show cause order. If the court imposes sanctions, it shall 21 do so, after notice and hearing, in a written order making findings of fact and conclusions of 22 law. An order imposing sanctions is reviewable upon appeal, and the entire record shall be 23 reviewed to determine whether the order is supported by substantial evidence.

24 (f) The parties to a district court action in which a mediated settlement conference is to 25 be held under this section shall have the right to designate a mediator. Upon failure of the 26 parties to designate within the time established by the rules adopted by the Supreme Court, a 27 mediator shall be appointed by a district court judge.

28 (g) A chief district court judge, or that judge's designee, at the request of a party and 29 with the consent of all parties, may order the parties to attend and participate in any other 30 settlement procedure authorized by rules adopted by the Supreme Court or adopted by local 31 district court rules, in lieu of attending a mediated settlement conference. Neutrals acting under 32 this section shall be selected and compensated in accordance with rules adopted by the 33 Supreme Court. Nothing herein shall prohibit the parties from participating in other dispute 34 resolution procedures, including arbitration, to the extent authorized under State or federal law.
35 Nothing herein shall prohibit the parties from participating in mediation at a community
36 mediation center operating under G.S. 7A-38.5.

37 (h) Mediators and other neutrals acting under this section shall have judicial immunity 38 in the same manner and to the same extent as a judge of the General Court of Justice, except 39 that mediators and other neutrals may be disciplined in accordance with enforcement 40 procedures adopted by the Supreme Court under G.S. 7A-38.2.

41 (i) Costs of mediated settlement conferences and other settlement procedures shall be 42 borne by the parties. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or agreed to by the parties, the 43 mediator's fees shall be paid in equal shares by the parties. The rules adopted by the Supreme 44 Court shall set out a method whereby a party found by the court to be unable to pay the costs of 45 settlement procedures is afforded an opportunity to participate without cost to that party and 46 without expenditure of State funds.

47 (j) Evidence of statements made and conduct occurring in a mediated settlement 48 conference or other settlement proceeding conducted under this section, whether attributable to 49 a party, the mediator, other neutral, or a neutral observer present at the settlement proceeding, 50 shall not be subject to discovery and shall be inadmissible in any proceeding in the action or 51 other civil actions on the same claim, except in any of the following:

- 1 (1) Proceedings for sanctions under this section.
2 (2) Proceedings to enforce or rescind a settlement of the action.
3 (3) Disciplinary proceedings before the State Bar or any agency established to 4 enforce standards of conduct for mediators or other neutrals.
5 (4) Proceedings to enforce laws concerning juvenile or elder abuse.

6 As used in this subsection, the term "neutral observer" includes persons seeking mediator 7 certification, persons studying dispute resolution processes, and persons acting as interpreters.

8 No settlement agreement to resolve any or all issues reached at the proceeding conducted 9 under this section or during its recesses shall be enforceable unless it has been reduced to 10 writing and signed by the parties. No evidence otherwise discoverable shall be inadmissible 11 merely because it is presented or discussed in a settlement proceeding.

12 No mediator, other neutral, or neutral observer present at a settlement proceeding under this 13 section shall be compelled to testify or produce evidence concerning statements made and 14 conduct occurring in anticipation of, during, or as a follow-up to a mediated settlement 15 conference or other settlement proceeding pursuant to this section in any civil proceeding for 16 any purpose, including proceedings to enforce or rescind a settlement of the action, except to 17 attest to the signing of any agreements, and except proceedings for sanctions under this section, 18 disciplinary hearings before the State Bar or any agency established to enforce standards of 19 conduct for mediators or other neutrals, and proceedings to enforce laws concerning juvenile or 20 elder abuse.

21 (k) The Supreme Court may adopt standards for the certification and conduct of 22 mediators and other neutrals who participate in settlement procedures conducted under this 23 section. The standards may also regulate mediator training programs. The Supreme Court may 24 adopt procedures for the enforcement of those standards. The administration of mediator 25 certification, regulation of mediator conduct, and decertification shall be conducted through the 26 Dispute Resolution Commission.

27 (l) An administrative fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00) may be charged 28 by the Administrative Office of the Courts to applicants for certification and annual renewal of 29 certification for mediators and mediator training programs operating under this section. The 30 fees collected may be used by the Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts to 31 establish and maintain the operations of the Commission and its staff. The administrative fee 32 shall be set by the Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts in consultation with the 33 Dispute Resolution Commission.

34 (m) The Administrative Office of the Courts, in consultation with the Dispute
35 Resolution Commission, may require the chief district court judge of any district to report 36 statistical data about settlement procedures conducted under this section for administrative 37 purposes.

38 (n) Nothing in this section or in rules adopted by the Supreme Court implementing this 39 section shall restrict a party's right to a trial by jury.

40 (o) The Supreme Court may adopt rules to implement this section."

41 SECTION 8. Section 6 of this act becomes effective October 1, 2015, and applies 42 to criminal cases referred to mediation on or after that date. Section 7 of this act becomes 43 effective October 1, 2015, and applies to actions filed on or after that date. The remainder of 44 this act is effective when it becomes law.
