1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2 AN ACT TO REPEAL THE DEATH PENALTY AND TO PROVIDE THAT ALL CURRENT
3 PRISONERS SENTENCED TO DEATH SHALL BE RESENTENCED TO LIFE
4 IMPRISONMENT WITHOUT THE POSSIBILITY OF PAROLE.

5 Whereas, nine people in North Carolina that were sentenced to death row have been 6 found innocent of the crime for which they were sentenced; and

7 Whereas, the death penalty continues to be disproportionately imposed on members
8 of minority groups, persons of low income, and persons with mental and intellectual disabilities; 9 and

10 Whereas, studies have shown that the death penalty does not deter crime; and

11 Whereas, North Carolina spends almost eleven million dollars ($11,000,000)
12 annually on costs related to the death penalty, even though the last person executed in North
13 Carolina was in 2006; and

14 Whereas, Justices William Brennan and Thurgood Marshall of the United States
15 Supreme Court both found that the death penalty was inherently unconstitutional as a violation
16 of the Eighth Amendment to the United States Constitution; and

17 Whereas, elected prosecutors make decisions about whom to seek the death penalty
18 against, so this is tied into a political bias; Now, therefore,
19 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

20 SECTION 1. G.S. 7A-450(b1) is repealed.

21 SECTION 2. G.S. 7A-498.8(b)(5) reads as rewritten:

10 the remainder of the person's natural life in prison. The sentencing judge may not suspend the 11 sentence and may not place the person sentenced on probation. Sentences for violent habitual 12 felons imposed under this Article shall run consecutively with and shall commence at the 13 expiration of any other sentence being served by the person."

14 SECTION 6. G.S. 14-17(a) reads as rewritten:
