27 ~~a motion of a party, may order mediation before considering whether to order a sale. The~~
28 ~~provisions of G.S. 7A-38.1 and G.S. 7A-38.3B shall apply.~~

31 ~~(a) The superior court shall appoint three disinterested commissioners to divide and~~ 32 ~~apportion such real estate, or so much thereof as the court may deem best, among the several~~ 33 ~~tenants in common, or joint tenants. Provided, in cases where the land to be partitioned lies in~~ 34 ~~more than one county, then the court may appoint such additional commissioners as it may deem~~ 35 ~~necessary from counties where the land lies other than the county where the proceedings are~~ 36 ~~instituted. Appointment. – The superior court shall appoint three disinterested commissioners to~~
37 ~~apportion the real property to be partitioned among the cotenants. If the property to be partitioned~~
38 ~~is located in more than one county, the court may appoint additional commissioners if necessary~~
39 ~~from counties where the property is located other than the county where the proceeding is~~

48 ~~commissioners shall be sworn according to Chapter 11 of the General Statutes.~~

49 ~~(d) If, after accepting the trust, any of the commissioners unreasonably delay or neglect~~
50 ~~to execute the same, every such delinquent commissioner shall be liable for contempt and may~~
51 ~~be removed, and shall be further liable to a penalty of fifty dollars ($50.00), to be recovered by~~

~~the petitioner. Delay or Neglect. – If, after accepting the commission, any of the commissioners unreasonably delays or neglects to perform his or her duties as a commissioner, the court may remove the commissioner and appoint a new commissioner.~~

"§ 46A-51. Commissioners to inspect and partition real property; apportioning shares; charging owelty on shares of disproportionately greater value.

~~(a) The commissioners, who shall be summoned by the sheriff, must meet on the premises and partition the same among the tenants in common, or joint tenants, according to their respective rights and interests therein, by dividing the land into equal shares in point of value as nearly as possible, and for this purpose they are empowered to subdivide the more valuable tracts as they may deem best, and to charge the more valuable dividends with such sums of money as they may think necessary, to be paid to the dividends of inferior value, in order to make an equitable partition.~~
Apportioning Shares; Charging Owelty on Shares. – The commissioners together shall inspect the real property and partition it among the cotenants by apportioning it into shares proportionate in value as nearly as possible to the cotenants' interests in the property. To the extent the commissioners find it necessary to make an equitable partition, they may do any of the following:

- (1) Apportion the property into shares disproportionate in value to the cotenants' interests in the property and charge owelty on the shares of disproportionately greater value in the amounts of money necessary to redress the disproportion, to be paid to the shares of disproportionately lesser value.

~~(c) When a minor to whom a more valuable dividend shall fall is charged with the payment of any sum, the money shall not be payable until such minor arrives at the age of 18 years, but the general guardian, if there be one, must pay such sum whenever assets shall come into his hands, and in case the general guardian has assets which he did not so apply, he shall pay out of his own proper estate any interest that may have accrued in consequence of such failure.~~
Minor's Share. – If a share charged with owelty is apportioned to a minor, the money shall not be payable until the minor becomes 18 years old. If the minor has a guardian of the estate or general guardian, however, the guardian shall pay the money when the guardian receives assets belonging to the minor, other than the share, that may be used for that purpose. If the guardian fails to comply with this subsection, the guardian shall be personally liable for any interest that accrued due to the failure.

"§ 46A-52. Partition where shareowners unknown or title disputed; allotment of shares in common.
Partition where cotenants unknown or title disputed.

~~If there are any of the tenants in common, or joint tenants, whose names are not known or whose title is in dispute, the share or shares of such persons shall be set off together as one parcel. If, in any partition proceeding, two or more appear as defendants claiming the same share of the premises to be divided, or if any part of the share claimed by the petitioner is disputed by any defendant or defendants, it shall not be necessary to decide on their respective claims before the court shall order the partition or sale to be made, but the partition or sale shall be made, and the controversy between the contesting parties may be afterwards decided either in the same or an independent proceeding. If two or more tenants in common, or joint tenants, by petition or answer, request it, the commissioners may, by order of the court, allot their several shares to them in common, as one parcel, provided such division shall not be injurious or detrimental to any cotenant or joint tenant.~~

(a) If there are any cotenants whose names are not known or whose title is in dispute, the shares of those cotenants shall be apportioned together as one parcel.

1 (b) In any partition proceeding, if two or more cotenants appear as respondents claiming
2 the same undivided interest in the real property to be partitioned, or if any part of the undivided
3 interest claimed by the petitioner is disputed by any respondent, it shall not be necessary to decide
4 on their respective claims before the court orders an actual partition or partition sale of the 5 property. The controversy between the contesting parties may be afterwards decided either in the 6 same or an independent proceeding.

7 "§ 46A-53. Apportionment of shares in common.

8 When requested by two or more cotenants, the commissioners may, by order of the court,
9 apportion their several shares to them in common, as one parcel, so long as the apportionment is 10 not injurious or detrimental to any cotenant.

11 "§ 46A-54. Dedication of streets.

12 ~~Upon motion of any party or the commissioners appointed to make division, the clerk may~~ 13 ~~authorize the commissioners to propose and report the dedication of such portions of the land as~~ 14 ~~are necessary as a means of access to any share, or is otherwise advisable for public or private~~
15 ~~highways, streets or alleys, and such proposal shall be acted upon by the clerk as a part of the~~ 16 ~~report and, if approved, shall constitute a dedication. No interest of a minor or other person under~~ 17 ~~disability shall be affected thereby until such dedication is approved by a judge of the superior~~
18 ~~court.~~

19 Upon motion of any party or the commissioners, the clerk may authorize the commissioners
20 to propose in their report the dedication of portions of the real property that are necessary as a
21 means of access to any share or that are otherwise advisable for public or private highways,
22 streets, or alleys. The court shall consider the proposal as a part of the report and, if approved by 23 the court, it shall constitute a dedication. Only a dedication approved by a judge of the superior 24 court affects the interest of a minor, an incompetent adult, or another person under a legal 25 disability.

26 "§ 46A-55. Report of commissioners; contents; filing and service; extension; map.

27 ~~(a) The commissioners, within a reasonable time, not exceeding 90 days after the~~ 28 ~~notification of their appointment, shall make a full and ample report of their proceedings, under~~ 29 ~~the hands of any two of them, specifying therein the manner of executing their trust and~~
30 ~~describing particularly the land or parcels of land divided, and the share allotted to each tenant~~
31 ~~in severalty, with the sum or sums charged on the more valuable dividends to be paid to those of~~ 32 ~~inferior value. The report shall be filed in the office of the superior court clerk: Provided, that the~~
33 ~~clerk of the superior court may, in the clerk's discretion, for good cause shown, extend the time~~
34 ~~for the filing of the report of said commissioners for an additional period not exceeding 60 days.~~
35 ~~This proviso shall be applicable to proceedings now pending for the partition of real~~
36 ~~property.~~Report. – The commissioners shall file a report of their proceedings in the office of the 37 clerk of superior court within 90 days after the last commissioner receives a notice of 38 appointment. The report shall be signed by at least two commissioners and shall describe 39 particularly the real property or parcels of real property apportioned, the share apportioned to 40 each cotenant in severalty, and any owelty charged. The clerk of the superior court may, for good
41 cause shown, extend the time for filing the report for an additional period not exceeding 60 days.
42 At the time of filing, the commissioners shall serve a copy of the report on all the parties.

43 ~~(b) The commissioners are authorized to employ the county surveyor or, in his absence~~
44 ~~or if he be connected with the parties, some other surveyor, who shall make out a map of the~~ 45 ~~premises showing the quantity, courses and distances of each share, which map shall accompany~~
46 ~~and form a part of the report of the commissioners.~~Map. – The commissioners may employ a 47 disinterested professional land surveyor to prepare a map of the real property showing the 48 quantity, courses, and distances of each share. If a map is prepared, the map shall accompany and 49 form a part of the report of the commissioners.

50 "§ 46A-56. Confirmation and impeachment of report; appeal; motion for relief.

2 service of the report on all the parties, ~~the same shall be confirmed.~~ clerk shall confirm the report.
3 ~~Any party after confirmation may impeach the proceedings and decrees for mistake, fraud or~~
4 ~~collusion by petition in the cause: Provided, innocent purchasers for full value and without notice~~
5 ~~shall not be affected thereby.~~

6 (b) If an exception to the report of commissioners is filed, the clerk shall do one of the 7 following:

- 8 (1) Confirm the ~~report;~~ report.
- 9 (2) Recommit the report for correction or further ~~consideration;~~ consideration.
- 10 (3) Vacate the report and direct a ~~reappraisal by the same commissioners; or the~~ 11 ~~same commissioners to reapportion the real property.~~
- 12 (4) Vacate the report, discharge the commissioners, and appoint new 13 commissioners to view the ~~premises and make a partition of them.~~ real 14 property and partition it.

15 (c) Appeal from the clerk to superior court of an order of confirmation of the report of 16 commissioners is governed by G.S. 1-301.2 except that the judge may take only the actions
17 specified in subsection (b) of this section and ~~may shall~~ not adjudge a partition of the ~~land~~
18 ~~property~~ different from that made by the commissioners.

19 (d) After confirmation of the report, any party may seek relief from the order of 20 confirmation for mistake, fraud, or collusion by a motion in the proceeding. This relief, however,
21 shall not affect an innocent purchaser for value and without notice.

22 "§ 46A-57. Report and confirmation enrolled and registered; effect; probate effect.

23 ~~Such report, when confirmed, together with the decree of confirmation, shall be enrolled and~~
24 ~~certified to the register of deeds and registered in the office of the county where such real estate~~
25 ~~is situated, and shall be binding among and between the claimants, their heirs and assigns. It shall~~ 26 ~~not be necessary for the clerk of court to probate the certified papers required to be registered by~~
27 ~~this section.~~

28 The report of the commissioners, when confirmed, and the order of confirmation shall be 29 enrolled and certified to the register of deeds and registered in the office of each county where 30 the real property is located. The confirmed report is binding among and between the parties and 31 the parties' heirs and assigns.

32 "§ 46A-58. Clerk to docket owelty charges; no release of land and no lien. owelty.

33 ~~In case owelty of partition is charged in favor of certain parts of said land and against certain~~
34 ~~other parts, the clerk shall enter on the judgment docket the said owelty charges in like manner~~
35 ~~as judgments are entered on said docket, persons to whom parts are allotted in favor of which~~
36 ~~owelty is charged being marked plaintiffs on the judgment docket, and persons to whom parts~~
37 ~~are allotted against which owelty is charged being marked defendants on said docket; said entry~~
38 ~~on said docket shall contain the title of the special proceeding in which the land was partitioned,~~
39 ~~and shall refer to the book and page in which the said special proceeding is recorded; when said~~
40 ~~owelty charges are paid said entry upon the judgment docket shall be marked satisfied in like~~ 41 ~~manner as judgments are cancelled and marked satisfied; and the clerk shall be entitled to the~~
42 ~~same fees for entering such judgment of owelty as he is entitled to for docketing other judgments:~~
43 ~~Provided, that the docketing of said owelty charges as hereinbefore set out shall not have the~~ 44 ~~effect of releasing the land from the owelty charged in said special proceeding: Provided, any~~ 45 ~~judgment docketed under this section shall not be a lien on any property whatever, except that~~
46 ~~upon which said owelty is made a specific charge.~~

47 If the court orders owelty, the clerk shall enter the owelty on the judgment docket in the same
48 manner as judgments are entered on the docket. The clerk shall mark as plaintiffs on the judgment
49 docket persons whose shares are to be paid owelty, and the clerk shall mark as defendants on the 50 judgment docket persons whose shares are charged with owelty. The entry on the docket shall 51 contain the title of the special proceeding in which the property was partitioned. When owelty is

1 paid, the entry upon the judgment docket shall be marked satisfied in the same manner as 2 judgments are cancelled and marked satisfied, and the clerk shall be entitled to the same fees for 3 entering this judgment as the clerk is entitled to for docketing other judgments. The docketing of 4 owelty under this section does not release the property from the owelty. Any judgment docketed
5 under this section is not a lien on any property other than the property charged with owelty.

6 "§ 46A-59. Order for possession.

7 (a) An order for possession of real property apportioned pursuant to this Part, in favor of 8 the party to which an apportionment has been made and against any party in possession at the 9 time of application therefor, may be issued by the clerk of the superior court if all of the following 10 apply:

- 11 (1) No appeal from the order of confirmation of the report of commissioners has 12 been made within the time prescribed under G.S. 1-301.2, or if an appeal has 13 been made, the judge confirmed the report pursuant to G.S. 46A-56(c).
- 14 (2) The report and confirmation have been duly recorded in the office of the 15 register of deeds pursuant to G.S. 46A-57.
- 16 (3) Ten days' notice has been given by the party applying for the order for 17 possession to each party remaining in possession at the time application is 19 the commissioners pursuant to G.S. 46A-56.

20 (b) An order for possession issued pursuant to this section shall be directed to the sheriff
21 and shall authorize the sheriff to remove all occupants and their personal property from the real
22 property and to put the party to which an apportionment has been made in possession. The order
23 shall be executed in accordance with the procedure for executing a writ or order for possession
24 in a summary ejectment proceeding under G.S. 42-36.2. The party to which an apportionment
25 has been made has the same rights and remedies in connection with the execution of an order for 26 possession and the disposition of personal property following execution as are provided to a
27 landlord under State law, including Chapters 42 and 44A of the General Statutes.

28 "Part 3. Partition Sale.

29 "§ 46A-75. Sale in lieu of actual partition.

30 (a) Subject to G.S. 46-22.1(b), the court shall order a sale of the property described in the 31 petition, or of any part, only if it finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that an actual partition
32 of the lands cannot be made without substantial injury to any of the interested parties, after having 33 considered evidence in favor of actual partition and evidence in favor of a sale presented by any 34 of the interested parties. Subject to G.S. 46A-29(b), the court shall order a sale of the real property
35 described in the petition, or of any part of the property, under this Part only if it finds by a
36 preponderance of the evidence that an actual partition of the property pursuant to Part 2 of this
37 Article cannot be made without substantial injury to any of the parties, after having considered 38 evidence in favor of actual partition and evidence in favor of a sale presented by any of the 39 parties. The party seeking a sale of the property has the burden of proving substantial injury under 40 this section.

41 (b) In determining whether an actual partition would cause "substantial injury"
42 substantial injury to any of the interested parties, the court shall consider all of the following:

- 43 (1) Whether the fair market value of each cotenant's share in an actual partition 44 of the property would be materially less than the amount each cotenant would 45 receive from the sale of the whole.
- 46 (2) Whether an actual partition would result in material impairment of any 47 cotenant's rights.
- 48 (3) Whether charging owelty under G.S. 46A-51 would eliminate or mitigate any 49 substantial injury to any of the parties caused by an actual partition.

50 (b1) The court, in its discretion, shall consider the remedy of owelty where such remedy
51 can aid in making an actual partition occur without substantial injury to the parties.

1 (c) ~~The court shall make specific findings of fact and conclusions of law supporting an~~
2 ~~order of sale of the property.~~If the court orders a partition sale, the court shall make specific
3 findings of fact and conclusions of law supporting the order.

4 (d) ~~The party seeking a sale of the property shall have the burden of proving substantial~~
5 ~~injury under the provisions of this section.~~As provided in G.S. 46A-52, if two or more parties
6 claim the same undivided interest in the property, the court is not required to decide the issue
7 before ordering a partition sale of the property.

8 "§ 46A-76. Sale procedure.

9 (a) ~~The procedure for a partition sale shall be the same as is provided in Article 29A of~~ 10 ~~Chapter 1 of the General Statutes, except as provided herein.~~General. – The procedure for a
11 partition sale is the same as is provided in Article 29A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes,
12 except as provided in this Part.

13 (b) One Commissioner Sufficient. – In a partition sale, the court is not required to appoint
14 more than one commissioner.

15 (c) ~~No clerk of the superior court shall appoint himself or his assistant or deputy to make~~ 16 ~~sale of any property in any proceeding before him.~~Persons Not to Be Appointed. – The clerk of 17 the superior court shall not appoint the clerk, an assistant clerk, or a deputy clerk to make a sale
18 of the real property.

19 (d) ~~The commissioners shall certify to the court that at least 20 days prior to sale a copy~~
20 ~~of the notice of sale was sent by first class mail to the last known address of all petitioners and~~
21 ~~respondents who previously were served by personal delivery or by registered or certified mail.~~
22 ~~The commissioners shall also certify to the court that at least ten days prior to any resale pursuant~~
23 ~~to G.S. 46-28.1(e) a copy of the notice of resale was sent by first class mail to the last known~~
24 ~~address of all parties to the partition proceeding who have filed a written request with the court~~
25 ~~that they be given notice of any resale. An affidavit from the commissioners that copies of the~~ 26 ~~notice of sale and resale were mailed to all parties entitled to notice in accordance with this~~
27 ~~section shall satisfy the certification requirement and shall also be deemed prima facie true. If~~
28 ~~after hearing it is proven that a party seeking to revoke the order of confirmation of a sale or~~
29 ~~subsequent resale was mailed notice as required by this section prior to the date of the sale or~~
30 ~~subsequent resale, then that party shall not prevail under the provisions of G.S. 46-28.1(a)(2)a.~~
31 ~~and b.~~Additional Requirement; Notice of Public Sale. – If the court orders a public sale, the 32 commissioner shall certify to the court that at least 20 days prior to sale, a copy of the notice of 33 sale was sent by first-class mail to the last known address of all parties previously served pursuant 34 to G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4(j). An affidavit from the commissioner that copies of the notice of sale were 35 mailed to all parties entitled to notice in accordance with this section satisfies the certification
36 requirement and shall also be deemed prima facie true.

37 "§ 46A-77. Cotenant credit.

38 Any cotenant ~~who enters~~entering the high bid or offer at any sale of one hundred percent
39 (100%) of the undivided interests in any parcel of real property shall receive a credit for the 40 undivided interest the cotenant already owns ~~therein~~in the real property and shall receive a
41 corresponding reduction in the amount of the total purchase price owed after deducting the costs
42 and fees associated with the sale and ~~apportioning~~allocating the costs and fees associated with 43 the sale in accordance with the orders of the court. The high bid or offer shall be for one hundred 44 percent (100%) of the undivided interests in the parcel of real property sold, and the credit and 45 reduction shall be applied at the time of the closing of the cotenant's purchase of the real property.
46 ~~When jointly making the high bid or offer at the sale, two or more cotenants~~When two or more 47 cotenants jointly make the high bid or offer at the sale, they may receive at the closing an 48 aggregate credit and reduction in the amount of the total purchase price representing the total of 49 such cotenants' their undivided interests in the real property. Any credits and reductions allowed
50 by this subsection shall be further adjusted to reflect any court-ordered adjustments to the share(s)
51 share of the net sale proceeds of each of the cotenants entering the high bid or offer, including,

1 but not limited to, equitable adjustments to the ~~share(s)-share~~ of the net sales proceeds due to a
2 court finding of the lack of contribution of one or more cotenants to the payment of ~~expenses of~~
3 ~~the real property-carrying costs or improvements of the real property under G.S. 46A-27.~~

4 "§ 46A-78. Life tenant as party; valuation of life estate. Partition sale of real property
5 subject to a life estate.

6 In all proceedings for partition of land whereon there is a life estate, the life tenant may join
7 in the proceeding and on a sale the interest on the value of the share of the life tenant shall be
8 received and paid to such life tenant annually; or in lieu of such annual interest, the value of such
9 share during the probable life of such life tenant shall be ascertained and paid out of the proceeds
10 to such life tenant absolutely.

11 If the real property to be partitioned by sale is subject to a life estate, a life tenant who joins
12 in the proceeding shall receive the value of the life tenant's share calculated according to mortality
13 tables accepted by the court and paid out of the proceeds to the life tenant. The owners of the 14 remainder or reversionary interest have no interest in this payment to the life tenant.

15 "§ 46A-79. Remainder or reversion sold for partition; outstanding life estate. Partition sale
16 of remainder or reversionary interest of real property.

17 The existence of a life estate in any land shall not be a bar to a sale for partition of the 18 remainder or reversion thereof, and for the purposes of partition the tenants in common or joint 19 tenants shall be deemed seized and possessed as if no life estate existed. But this shall not 20 interfere with the possession of the life tenant during the existence of his estate.

21 The existence of a life estate in real property does not bar a partition sale of the remainder or 22 reversionary interest of the property, and for the purposes of partition, the tenants in common or 23 joint tenants of the remainder or reversionary interest shall be deemed to possess the property as 24 if no life estate existed. The partition shall not, however, interfere with the possession of the life
25 tenant during the existence of the life tenant's estate.

26 "§ 46A-80. Sale of standing timber on partition; timber; valuation of life estate.

27 When two or more persons own, as tenants in common, joint tenants or copartners, a tract of 28 land, either in possession, or in remainder or reversion, subject to a life estate, or where one or 29 more persons own a remainder or reversionary interest in a tract of land, subject to a life estate,
30 then in any such case in which there is standing timber upon any such land, a sale of said timber
31 trees, separate from the land, may be had upon the petition of one or more of said owners, or the 32 life tenant, for partition among the owners thereof, including the life tenant, upon such terms as 33 the court may order, and under like proceedings as are now prescribed by law for the sale of land
34 for partition: Provided, that when the land is subject to a life estate, the life tenant shall be made
35 a party to the proceedings, and shall be entitled to receive his or her portion of the net proceeds
36 of sales, to be ascertained under the mortality tables established by law: Provided further, that
37 prior to a judgment allowing a life tenant to sell the timber there must be a finding that the cutting 38 is in keeping with good husbandry and that no substantial injury will be done to the remainder 39 interest.

40 (a) When two or more persons own real property with standing timber, as tenants in 41 common, joint tenants, or partners, one or more of the persons may seek a partition sale of the 42 timber, separate from the real property.

43 (b) If real property with standing timber is subject to a life estate, the life tenant or an 44 owner of the remainder or reversionary interest, whether as a tenant in common, joint tenant,
45 partner, or sole owner, may seek a partition sale of the timber, separate from the real property.
