1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2 AN ACT TO UPDATE THE CREDIT UNION STATUTES.

3 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

4 SECTION 1. Article 14B of Chapter 54 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

5 "Article 14B.

6 "Supervision and Regulation.

7 ...

8 "§ 54-109.14. Fees. Fees and penalties.

9 (a) Each credit union subject to supervision and examination by the ~~Administrator of~~ 10 ~~Credit Unions, Administrator,~~ including credit unions in process of voluntary liquidation, shall 11 pay into the office of the Administrator ~~of Credit Unions~~ twice each year, in the months of 12 January and July, supervision fees, except those credit unions which liquidate or convert its 13 charter shall pay into the office of the ~~Administrator of Credit Unions, Administrator,~~ to the date
14 of dissolution, pro rata supervision fees. Examination fees shall be paid promptly upon receipt of 15 the examination report and invoice.

16 The ~~Administrator of Credit Unions, Administrator,~~ subject to the advice and consent of the 17 Credit Union Commission, shall, on or before December 1 of each year, determine and fix the 18 scale of supervisory and examination fees to be assessed during the next calendar year.

19 No credit union shall be required to pay any supervisory fee until the expiration of 12 months
20 from the date of the issuance of a certificate of incorporation to ~~such~~ the credit union.

21 (b) The Administrator may charge other fees for service and supervision as approved by 22 the Commission. Moneys collected under this section shall be deposited with the State Treasurer
23 of North Carolina and expended, under the terms of the Executive Budget Act, to defray expenses
24 incurred by the office of the Administrator ~~of Credit Unions~~ in carrying out its supervisory and 25 auditing functions.

26 (c) All revenue derived from fees will be placed into a special account to be administered
27 solely for the operation of the ~~Credit Union~~ Division.

28 (d) The Administrator may waive any fee, in whole or in part, for any credit union or 29 group of credit unions at the Administrator's discretion.

30 (e) The Administrator may assess a civil penalty not to exceed five hundred dollars
31 ($500.00) for the violation of any section of Articles 14A to 15A of this Chapter or any rule
32 adopted by the Administrator. The clear proceeds of any civil penalty assessed under this 33 subsection or pursuant to any other authority in Articles 14A to 15A of this Chapter shall be 34 remitted to the Civil Penalty and Forfeiture Fund in accordance with G.S. 115C-457.2.

"§ 54-109.15. Reports.

(a) ~~Credit~~ The Administrator shall cause credit unions organized under Articles 14A to 14L-15A of this Chapter shall, in January and in July of each year, make to make a report of condition to the Administrator of Credit Unions on forms supplied for that purpose. Additional reports may be required, in a manner and on a schedule as adopted by the Administrator. The Administrator may also require that additional reports be filed.

(b) ~~Any~~ The Administrator may cause any credit union that neglects to make semiannual reports as provided in subsection (a) of this section, or any of the other reports required by the Administrator of Credit Unions at the time fixed by the Administrator, shall pay to pay a late penalty to the Administrator of Credit Unions of not less than seventy-five dollars ($75.00) ($75.00), nor more than seven hundred fifty dollars ($750.00) for each day the neglect continues. The Administrator of Credit Unions may revoke the certificate of incorporation and take possession of the assets and business of any credit union failing to pay a penalty imposed under this section after serving notice of at least 15 days upon the credit union of the proposed action. The clear proceeds of penalties collected pursuant to this subsection shall be remitted to the Civil Penalty and Forfeiture Fund in accordance with G.S. 115C-457.2. The Administrator shall publish the late penalty amount annually by rule.

"§ 54-109.16. Examinations required; payment of cost.

(a) ~~The Administrator of Credit Unions~~ shall cause every credit union formed under Article 14A and 15A of this Chapter to be examined once every 18 months or whenever such shorter period the Administrator deems ~~it~~ necessary. The examiners appointed by the Administrator shall be given free access to all books, papers, securities, and electronic or digital records, and other sources of information in respect to the credit union; for the purpose of the examination, the Administrator may subpoena and examine personally, or by one of the Administrator's deputies or examiners, witnesses on oath and documents, whether the witnesses are members of the credit union or not, and whether the documents are documents of the credit union or not. The Administrator may designate an independent auditing firm to ~~do the work~~ conduct such examinations under the Administrator's direction and supervision, with the cost to be paid by the credit union involved.

(b) At the discretion of the Administrator, an independent audit, the examination of a peer state regulatory agency, or the examination of a deposit insurer may be accepted in lieu of an examination by the Division to satisfy the examination requirements of this Chapter.

"§ 54-109.17. Records.

(a) A credit union shall maintain all books, records, accounting systems and procedures in accordance with ~~such rules as the Administrator from time to time prescribes.~~ adopted by the Administrator. In prescribing such adopting these rules, the Administrator shall consider the relative size of a credit union and its reasonable capability of compliance.

(b) A credit union is not liable for destroying records after the expiration of the record retention time ~~prescribed~~ adopted by the Administrator.

(c) ~~A photostatic or photographic reproduction of any credit union records shall be admissible as evidence of transactions with the credit union.~~ Any credit union may cause any or all records kept by it to be recorded, copied, or reproduced by any photographic, reproduction, electronic, or digital process or method, or by any other records retention technology approved by rule or order of the Administrator, of a kind that is capable of accurately converting the records into tangible form within a reasonable time. Each converted tangible form of record also is deemed a record.

"§ 54-109.18. Selection of attorneys to handle loan-closing proceedings.

~~The Administrator of Credit Unions shall establish rules and regulations relating to selection of attorneys at law to handle credit union loan-closing proceedings.~~

"§ 54-109.18A. Hearings and appeals.

1        (a) Unless otherwise stated in this Chapter, administrative hearings required or permitted
2 to be held by the Administrator shall be conducted in accordance with Article 3A of Chapter
3 150B of the General Statutes.

4        (b) After a hearing under subsection (a) of this section, a party or person aggrieved may 5 appeal the decision or order of the Administrator or other suitable person designated by the 6 Administrator to the Credit Union Commission for appellate review by filing with the 7 Administrator a written notice of appeal no later than 30 days after the day that the 8 Administrator's decision or order is served. Upon receipt of a notice of appeal, the Administrator
9 shall, within 30 days of the notice, certify to the Commission the record on appeal. The notice of 10 appeal shall state the grounds for the appeal and set forth in numbered order the assignments of 11 error for review by the Commission. Failure to state the grounds for the appeal and assignments
12 of error shall constitute grounds to dismiss the appeal. Failure to comply with the briefing
13 schedule provided by the Commission shall also constitute grounds to dismiss the appeal. The 14 Commission shall review the record on appeal, hear oral arguments by the parties, and make a
15 written final decision or order no later than 60 days after the date of oral arguments.

16        (c) Any party to a proceeding before the Commission under subsection (b) of this section
17 is entitled to judicial review of the decision or order in accordance with Article 4 of Chapter 150B
18 of the General Statutes.

19        (d) Notwithstanding other provisions of law, the hearing officer at administrative 20 hearings conducted under subsection (a) of this section may be the Administrator or other suitable 21 person designated by the Administrator to serve as a hearing officer.

22 "§ 54-109.19. Removal of officers.

23        ~~The Administrator of Credit Unions shall have the right and is hereby empowered to~~
24 ~~serve a written notice of his intention to remove from office any~~ If the Administrator finds that 25 an officer, director, committeeman-committee member, or employee of any credit union doing
26 business under Articles 14A through 15A of this Chapter who shall be found to be dishonest,
27 incompetent, is dishonest, deceitful, convicted of a felony, convicted of a misdemeanor involving 28 fraud or dishonesty, incompetent, grossly negligent, or reckless in the management of the affairs
29 of the credit union, has breached the trust of the members, or who has persistently violates
30 violated the laws of this State or the lawful orders, instructions and regulations issued
31 instructions, or rules issued or adopted by the Administrator and/or the State Credit Union
32 Commission or the Credit Union Commission, the Administrator may take one or both of the 33 following actions:

34            (1) Remove the director, officer, committee member, or employee from office.

35            (2) Prohibit the director, officer, committee member, or employee from 36 participating in the conduct of the affairs of a credit union or credit union
37 service organization.

38        ~~A notice of intention to remove removal of a director, officer, committee member or~~
39 ~~employee from office shall contain a statement of the alleged facts constituting the grounds~~
40 ~~therefor for it and shall fix a time and place at which a hearing before the Credit Union~~
41 ~~Commission will be held thereon. Such hearing shall be fixed for a date not earlier than 30 days~~
42 ~~nor later than 60 days after the date of service of such notice unless an earlier or a later date is~~
43 ~~set by the Commission at the request of such director, officer, committee member or employee~~
44 ~~and for good cause shown. Pending this hearing, the Administrator may remove the alleged~~
45 ~~violation if he finds that it is essential to the continued well-being of the credit union or the public~~
46 ~~to do so. Unless, of course, such director, officer, committee member or employee shall appear~~
47 ~~at the hearing in person or by a duly authorized representative, he shall be deemed to have~~
48 ~~consented to the issuance of an order of such removal. In the event of such consent, or if upon~~
49 ~~the record made at any such hearing the Credit Union Commission shall find that any of the~~
50 ~~grounds specified in such notice has been determined by the greater weight of the evidence, the~~ 51 ~~Commission may issue such orders of removal from office as it may deem appropriate. Any such~~

1 order shall become effective at the expiration of 30 days after service upon such credit union and
2 the director, officer, committee member or employee concerned (except in the case of an order
3 issued upon consent, which shall become effective at the time specified therein). Such order shall
4 remain effective and enforceable except to such extent as it is stayed, modified, terminated or set
5 aside by action of the Credit Union Commission or a reviewing court. information on how the 6 removed party may appeal the removal to the Commission, including contact information to 7 initiate an appeal. The notice of removal is effective immediately upon service.

8 (c) A director, officer, committee member, or employee served written notice of removal
9 has the right to a hearing before the Commission and shall request a hearing within 30 days of 10 the service of the notice of removal.

11 (d) The hearing shall be fixed for a date no later than 30 days after service of the notice
12 for request for hearing unless a later date is set by the Commission at the request of the director,
13 officer, committee member, or employee and for good cause shown. If the removed party does
14 not seek a hearing within the 30-day time frame, the removed party is deemed to have consented
15 to the removal and the removal is deemed final.

16 (e) Upon a request for hearing, or upon scheduling a discretionary hearing on its own
17 initiative, the Commission shall review the facts of the case and hear from the Administrator and 18 the removed party. The Commission shall determine whether the preponderance of the evidence
19 supports removal. Upon completion of the hearing, the Commission shall issue an order that does 20 one of the following:

21 (1) Overturns the removal and reinstates the removed party.

22 (2) Upholds the removal in full.

23 (3) Modifies the removal into a suspension of a defined period. The order shall 24 remain effective and enforceable except to the extent that it is stayed,
25 modified, terminated, or set aside by a later action of the Commission or a
26 reviewing court.

27 "§ 54-109.20. Additional authorities of the Administrator.

28 (a) In the event of a natural disaster or other national, regional, State, or local emergency,
29 the Administrator may temporarily waive or suspend requirements for compliance by one or 30 more credit unions with any provisions of this Chapter or with any rules if the Administrator
31 deems it in the public interest.

32 (b) The Administrator may issue and serve upon a credit union an order to cease and 33 desist from one or more unsafe or unsound practices or violations if, in the opinion of the 34 Administrator, a credit union is engaging or has engaged, or there is reasonable cause to believe 35 is about to engage, in an unsafe or unsound practice, or is violating or has violated, or there is 36 reasonable cause to believe is about to violate, this Chapter or any other applicable law, rule,
37 regulation, or order. An order to cease and desist shall contain a statement of the facts constituting
38 the alleged violations or unsafe or unsound practices, and the order may require, in terms that 39 may be mandatory or otherwise, a credit union, its officers, directors, employees, or agents to 40 cease and desist from the practices or violations. The order shall specify its effective date and 41 shall contain a notice to the credit union of its right to a hearing on the order in accordance with 42 rules adopted by the Administrator.

43 (c) The Administrator may conduct an investigation, including conducting background
44 checks, of any credit union employee, officer, director, or committee member when considering 45 applications for new charters, changes to those positions in credit unions in a troubled condition,
46 a managing agent or manager in a conserved credit union, or when the Administrator has reason
47 to believe the credit union employee, director, or committee member affected or is likely to affect 48 the safety or soundness of the credit union."
