Temporary custody means the taking of physical custody and providing personal care 1 (a) 2 and supervision until a court order for nonsecure custody can be obtained. A juvenile may be 3 taken into temporary custody without a court order by a law enforcement officer or a department 4 of social services worker if there are reasonable grounds to believe that the juvenile is abused, 5 neglected, or dependent and that the juvenile would be injured or could not be taken into custody 6 if it were first necessary to obtain a court order. If a department of social services worker takes a 7 juvenile into temporary custody under this section, the worker may arrange for the placement, 8 care, supervision, and transportation of the juvenile. 9 The following individuals shall, without a court order, take into temporary custody (b) 10 an infant under seven days of age that is voluntarily delivered to the individual by the infant's 11 parent who does not express an intent to return for the infant: The process for taking into 12 temporary custody a safely surrendered infant is as provided under Article 5A of this Subchapter. 13 A health care provider, as defined under G.S. 90-21.11, who is on duty or at a (1)14 hospital or at a local or district health department or at a nonprofit community 15 health center. 16 (2)A law enforcement officer who is on duty or at a police station or sheriff's 17 department. 18 (3)A social services worker who is on duty or at a local department of social 19 services. 20 (4) A certified emergency medical service worker who is on duty or at a fire or 21 emergency medical services station. An individual who takes an infant into temporary custody under subsection (b) of this 22 (c)23 section shall perform any act necessary to protect the physical health and well-being of the infant 24 and shall immediately notify the department of social services or a local law enforcement agency. 25 Any individual who takes an infant into temporary custody under subsection (b) of this section 26 may inquire as to the parents' identities and as to any relevant medical history, but the parent is 27 not required to provide the information. The individual shall notify the parent that the parent is 28 not required to provide the information. 29 Any adult may, without a court order, take into temporary custody an infant under (d) 30 seven days of age that is voluntarily delivered to the individual by the infant's parent who does not express an intent to return for the infant. Any individual who takes an infant into temporary 31 32 custody under this section shall perform any act necessary to protect the physical health and 33 well-being of the infant and shall immediately notify the department of social services or a local 34 law enforcement agency. An individual who takes an infant into temporary custody under this 35 subsection may inquire as to the parents' identities and as to any relevant medical history, but the 36 parent is not required to provide the information. The individual shall notify the parent that the 37 parent is not required to provide the information. 38 An individual described in subsection (b) or (d) of this section is immune from any (e) 39 civil or criminal liability that might otherwise be incurred or imposed as a result of any omission 40 or action taken pursuant to the requirements of subsection (c) or (d) of this section as long as that 41 individual was acting in good faith. The immunity established by this subsection does not extend 42 to gross negligence, wanton conduct, or intentional wrongdoing that would otherwise be 43 actionable." 44 SECTION 5. G.S. 7B-501(a) reads as rewritten: A person who takes a juvenile into custody without a court order under G.S. 7B-500 45 "(a) 46 shall proceed as follows: follows, except that the person shall proceed in accordance with 47 G.S. 7B-522 for a safely surrendered infant: 48 " 49 SECTION 6. Article 11 of Chapter 7B of the General Statutes is amended by adding 50 a new section to read: "§ 7B-1105.1. Preliminary hearing; safely surrendered infant. 51
