SENATE BILL DRS15249-NB-123

Short Title:	Medical Ethics Defense (MED) Act.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senators Hise, B. Newton, and Sanderson (Primary Sponsors).
Referred to:
	A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT TO	PROTECT THE RIGHT OF CONSCIENCE OF MEDICAL PR	ACTITIONERS.
	CARE INSTITUTIONS, AND HEALTH CARE PAYERS.	.10111101(210)
	hereas, the right of conscience is a fundamental and unalienabl	e right, and was founding of the United States of America and deeply rooted in the adition for centuries; and
•	hereas, despite its preeminent importance, however, threats	to the right of conscience of	medical practitioners, health care institutions, and health care pay	ers have become increasingly of	common and severe in recent years. The swift pace of scientific a	dvancement and the expansion	of medical capabilities—along with the mistaken notion that medi	cal practitioners, health care institutions, and health care payers are mere public utilities—promise only to make the current crisis worse, unless something is done to restore conscience to its rightful place; and hereas, it is the public policy of the State of North Carolina to pr	_
	r medical practitioners, health care institutions, and health care pa hereas, the right of conscience is fundamental, and no medical pr on, or health care payer should be compelled to participate in a he ct to on the basis of conscience, whether such conscience is inform	ned by religious,
	, or philosophical beliefs or principles; and hereas, it is the purpose of this act to protect medical practition nd health care payers from discrimination, punishment, or retaliat	ion as a result of conscientious medical objection; Now, therefore,
	Assembly of North Carolina enacts:	:

(9) Pay or payment. – To pay for, contract for, arrange for the payment of, reimburse, or remunerate, in whole or in part.

"§ 90-21.142. Protections.

- A medical practitioner, health care institution, or health care payer shall have the right not to participate in or pay for any health care service which violates his, her, or its conscience.
- No medical practitioner, health care institution, or health care payer shall be civilly, criminally, or administratively liable for exercising his, her, or its right of conscience not to participate in or pay for a health care service. No health care institution shall be civilly, criminally, or administratively liable for the exercise of conscience rights not to participate in a health care service by a medical practitioner employed, contracted, or granted admitting privileges by the health care institution.
- It shall be unlawful for any person to discriminate against any medical practitioner, health care institution, or health care payer that refuses to participate in or pay for a health care service on the basis of conscience under this Article.

"§ 90-21.143. Exemption; limitation.

- Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any medical practitioner, health care institution, or health care payer that holds itself out to the public as religious, states in its governing documents that it has a religious purpose or mission, and has internal operating policies or procedures that implement its religious beliefs shall have the right to make employment, staffing, contracting, and admitting privilege decisions consistent with its religious beliefs.
- No provision of this Article shall be construed to override the requirement to provide (b) emergency medical treatment to a patient in accordance with 42 U.S.C. § 1395dd. et seq.
- This Article shall be supplemental to existing protections of the right of conscience recognized in this State contained in the General Statutes and the North Carolina Constitution and shall not be construed to abridge, limit, or take away any existing protections.
- Exercise of any right of conscience under this Article shall be limited to conscience-based objections to particular health care services.
- A health care practitioner may not be scheduled for, assigned, or requested to directly or indirectly perform, facilitate, refer for, or participate in an abortion unless the health care practitioner affirmatively consents in writing prior to performing, facilitating, referring, or participating in the abortion.

'§ 90-21.144. Civil remedies.

- (a) A civil action for damages or injunctive relief may be brought by any medical practitioner, health care institution, or health care payer for any violation of any provision of this Article. Any additional burden or expense on another medical practitioner, health care institution, or health care payer arising from the exercise of the right of conscience shall not be a defense to any violation of this Article. No civil action may be brought against an individual who declines to use or purchase health care services from a specific medical practitioner, health care institution, or health care payer for exercising the rights granted in this Article.
- (b) Any party aggrieved by any violation of this Article may commence a civil action and shall be entitled, upon the finding of a violation, to recover the following:
 - (1) Statutory damages equal to three times the cost of the actual damages sustained by the aggrieved party. Damages recovered under this subdivision shall be cumulative and not limited by any other remedies which may be available under any other federal, State, or municipal law.
 - (2) Total costs of the action and reasonable attorneys' fees.
- (c) Injunctive Relief. Injunctive relief may be obtained to reinstate a medical practitioner to a previous position, reinstate board certification, or re-license a health care institution or health care payer.

"§ 90-21.145. Protection from retaliation.

- (a) No medical practitioner shall be discriminated against in any manner because the medical practitioner does any of the following:
 - (1) Provided, caused to be provided, or takes steps to provide or cause to be provided to his or her employer, the Attorney General, any State agency, the United States Department of Health and Human Services, or any other federal agency, any information or an act or omission that is a violation of any provision of this Article.
 - (2) Testified or prepared to testify in a proceeding concerning a violation of this Article.
 - (3) Assisted or participated in a proceeding concerning a violation of this Article.
- (b) Unless a disclosure or report of information is specifically prohibited by law, no medical practitioner shall be discriminated against in any manner because the medical practitioner disclosed any information under this Article that the medical practitioner reasonably believes evinces any of the following:
 - (1) Any violation of law, rule, or regulation.
 - (2) Any violation of any standard of care or other ethical guidelines for the provision of any health care service.
 - (3) Gross mismanagement, a gross waste of funds, an abuse of authority, or a substantial and specific danger to public health or safety.
- (c) An occupational licensing board or the Department of Health and Human Services shall not issue disciplinary action against a medical practitioner for engaging in speech or expressive activity protected under the First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, unless the occupational licensing board or Department demonstrates beyond a reasonable doubt that the medical practitioner's speech was the direct cause of harm to a person with whom the medical practitioner had a practitioner-patient relationship within the three years immediately preceding the incident of physical harm. If a complaint is received against a medical practitioner, then the occupational licensing board or Department must provide a copy of the complaint to the medical practitioner within seven days of receipt of the complaint. If the occupational licensing board or Department fails to provide this required notice, then it constitutes a violation of this subsection. A violation of this subsection shall be punished by a five hundred dollar ($500.00) fine for each day the complaint is not provided after seven days. The clear proceeds of a penalty assessed under this subsection shall be remitted to the Civil Penalty and Forfeiture Fund in accordance with G.S. 115C-457.2."
