1 immediately notify the head of the agency. The agency may supplement its statement of need 2 with additional findings or submit a new statement. statement within 30 days of the notification. 3 If the agency fails to supplement its statement of need with additional findings or submit a new 4 statement to the Commission within 30 days, or submits written notice within 30 days to the 5 Commission that the agency does not intend to supplement its statement of need with additional 6 findings or submit a new statement, the Commission or its designee shall immediately return the 7 rule to the agency. If the agency provides additional findings or submits a new statement, the 8 Commission or its designee must review the additional findings or new statement within five 9 business days after the agency submits the additional findings or new statement. If the 10 Commission or its designee again finds that the statement does not meet the criteria listed in 11 subsection (a) of this section or that the rule does not meet the standards in  $\frac{G.S. 150B-21.9}{G.S. 150B-21.9}$ G.S. 150B-21.9 or Part 1 of this Article, the Commission or its designee must immediately notify 12 13 the head of the agency and return the rule to the agency. When the Commission returns a rule to 14 an agency in accordance with this subsection, the agency may file an action for declaratory judgment within 30 days after notification by the Commission in Wake County Superior Court 15 16 pursuant to Article 26 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes. 17 If an agency decides not to provide additional findings or submit a new statement (b2)18 when notified by the Commission or its designee that the agency's findings of need for a rule do 19 not meet the required criteria or that the rule does not meet the required standards, the agency 20 must notify the Commission or its designee of its decision. The Commission or its designee shall 21 then return the rule to the agency. When the Commission returns a rule to an agency in 22 accordance with this subsection, the agency may file an action for declaratory judgment in Wake 23 County Superior Court pursuant to Article 26 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes. 24 (b3) When the Commission returns to an agency a proposed permanent rule intended to 25 replace a temporary rule, the holder of a permit from the agency may submit revised plans for a 26 revised permit removing the impacts of the returned rule if all of the following conditions apply: The permit was conditioned upon adherence to the requirements of a 27 (1)28 temporary rule that the returned proposed permanent rule was intended to 29 replace. 30 (2)The revised plans comply with all other applicable development regulations. The agency shall review the revised plans and approve or deny the revised permit within 45 31 days of the receipt of the revised plans. The agency may not impose an additional permit fee for 32 33 review of a revised plan resulting from the expiration of a temporary rule. 34 If an agency has proposed a permanent rule pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.2 and the (b4) 35 Commission has objected to the rule, the agency may not propose a temporary rule of 36 substantially the same subject matter within 24 months unless either of the following 37 circumstances applies: 38 Adoption of the rule is otherwise required by State or federal law. (1)39 (2)There are changed conditions or circumstances that support the proposed temporary rule and the agency provides a statement citing the changed 40 conditions or circumstances. For purposes of this subdivision, the changed 41 42 conditions or circumstances shall be limited to changes in State or federal law or federal regulation. If the Commission finds that there are changed 43 44 conditions or circumstances that justify the adoption of the proposed 45 temporary rule, the agency may proceed with temporary rulemaking and may adopt a permanent rule to replace the temporary rule. 46 47 (b5) Once an agency has proposed a permanent rule pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.2 and the 48 proposed rule has been published in the North Carolina Register, the agency may not propose a 49 temporary rule of substantially the same subject matter within 24 months of the publication of the proposed permanent rule unless otherwise required by State or federal law. 50

1 Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, if the agency has not (b3)(b6) 2 complied with the provisions of G.S. 12-3.1, the Codifier of Rules shall not enter the rule into 3 the Code. 4 (c) Standing. – A person aggrieved by a temporary rule adopted by an agency may file 5 an action for declaratory judgment in Wake County Superior Court pursuant to Article 26 of 6 Chapter 1 of the General Statutes. In the action, the court shall determine whether the agency's 7 written statement of findings of need for the rule meets the criteria listed in subsection (a) of this 8 section and whether the rule meets the standards in G.S. 150B-21.9. G.S. 150B-21.9 or Part 1 of 9 this Article. The court shall not grant an ex parte temporary restraining order. 10 Filing a petition for rule making or a request for a declaratory ruling with the agency (c1)11 that adopted the rule is not a prerequisite to filing an action under this subsection. A person who 12 files an action for declaratory judgment under this subsection must serve a copy of the complaint 13 on the agency that adopted the rule being contested, the Codifier of Rules, and the Commission. 14 Effective Date and Expiration. – A temporary rule becomes effective on the date (d) 15 specified in G.S. 150B-21.3. A temporary rule expires on the earliest of the following dates: The date specified in the rule. 16 (1)17 (2)The effective date of the permanent rule adopted to replace the temporary rule, 18 if the Commission approves the permanent rule. 19 The date the Commission returns to an agency a permanent rule the agency (3) 20 adopted to replace the temporary rule. 21 (4) The effective date of an act of the General Assembly that specifically 22 disapproves a permanent rule adopted to replace the temporary rule. 23 270 days from the date the temporary rule was published in the North Carolina (5) 24 Register, unless the permanent rule adopted to replace the temporary rule has 25 been submitted to the Commission. 26 Notwithstanding subdivision (5) of this subsection, 12 months after the (6) 27 effective date of the temporary rule. 28 Publication. - When the Codifier of Rules enters a temporary rule in the North (e) 29 Carolina Administrative Code, the Codifier must publish the rule in the North Carolina Register. 30 Any person aggrieved by the adoption of a temporary rule or by the amendment of a (f) 31 temporary rule may file a petition for a contested case in accordance with the requirements set 32 forth under G.S. 150B-23(a) within 30 days of the effective date of a temporary rule adoption or 33 amendment." 34 SECTION 4. G.S. 150B-21.2 reads as rewritten: 35 "§ 150B-21.2. Procedure for adopting a permanent rule. 36 Steps. – Before an agency adopts a permanent rule, the agency must comply with the (a) 37 requirements of this Article, including G.S. 150B-19.1, and it must take the following actions: 38 39 Hearing. – An agency must hold a public hearing on a rule it proposes to adopt if the (e) 40 agency publishes the text of the proposed rule in the North Carolina Register and the agency 41 receives a written request for a public hearing on the proposed rule within 15 days after the notice 42 of text is published. The agency must accept comments at the public hearing on both the proposed 43 rule and any fiscal note that has been prepared in connection with the proposed rule. 44 An agency may hold a public hearing on a proposed rule and fiscal note in other 45 circumstances. When an agency is required to hold a public hearing on a proposed rule or decides 46 to hold a public hearing on a proposed rule when it is not required to do so, the agency must 47 publish in the North Carolina Register a notice of the date, time, and place of the public hearing. 48 The hearing date of a public hearing held after the agency publishes notice of the hearing in the 49 North Carolina Register must be at least 15 but not later than 60 days after the date the notice is 50 published. If notice of a public hearing has been published in the North Carolina Register and

Session 2023

1 that public hearing has been cancelled, the agency must publish notice in the North Carolina 2 Register at least 15 days prior to the date of any rescheduled hearing. 3 Comments. – An agency must accept comments on the text of a proposed rule that is 4 published in the North Carolina Register and any fiscal note that has been prepared in connection 5 with the proposed rule for at least 60 days after the text is published or until the date of any public 6 hearing held on the proposed rule, whichever is longer. An agency must consider fully all written 7 and oral comments received. 8 Adoption. – An agency shall not adopt a rule until the time for commenting on the (g) 9 proposed text of the rule has elapsed and shall not adopt a rule if more than 12 months have 10 elapsed since the end of the time for commenting on the proposed text of the rule. Prior to 11 adoption, an agency must review any fiscal note that has been prepared for the proposed rule and 12 consider any public comments received in connection with the proposed rule or the fiscal note. 13 An agency shall not adopt a rule that differs substantially from the text of a proposed rule 14 published in the North Carolina Register unless the agency publishes the text of the proposed 15 different rule in the North Carolina Register and accepts comments on the proposed different rule for the time set in subsection (f) of this section.complies with this Article, including 16 17 G.S. 150B-19.1. 18 An adopted rule differs substantially from a proposed rule if it does one or more of the 19 following: 20 (1)Affects the interests of persons that, based on the proposed text of the rule 21 published in the North Carolina Register, could not reasonably have 22 determined that the rule would affect their interests. 23 Addresses a subject matter or an issue that is not addressed in the proposed (2)24 text of the rule. 25 (3) Produces an effect that could not reasonably have been expected based on the 26 proposed text of the rule. 27 When an agency adopts a rule, it shall not take subsequent action on the rule without following 28 the procedures in this Part. An agency must submit an adopted rule to the Rules Review 29 Commission within 30 days of the agency's adoption of the rule. After 12 months have elapsed 30 without approval of the proposed rule by the Commission, the Commission shall return the rule 31 to the agency. An agency may propose a permanent rule with substantially the same subject 32 matter following its return, but the new proposed rule must comply with the requirements set 33 forth in subsections (a) through (f) of this section and G.S. 150B-21.9 prior to adoption of the 34 rule. 35 (h) Explanation. – An agency must issue a concise written statement explaining why the 36 agency adopted a rule if, within 15 days after the agency adopts the rule, a person asks the agency 37 to do so. The explanation must state the principal reasons for and against adopting the rule and 38 must discuss why the agency rejected any arguments made or considerations urged against the 39 adoption of the rule. The agency must issue the explanation within 15 days after receipt of the 40 request for an explanation. 41 Record. – An agency must keep a record of a rulemaking proceeding. The record must (i) 42 include all written comments received, a transcript or recording of any public hearing held on the 43 rule, any fiscal note that has been prepared for the rule, and any written explanation made by the 44 agency for adopting the rule. 45 Any person aggrieved by the adoption of a permanent rule or by the amendment of a (j) 46 permanent rule may file a petition for a contested case in accordance with the requirements set forth under G.S. 150B-23(a) within 30 days of the effective date of a permanent rule adoption or 47 48 amendment." 49 SECTION 5. G.S. 150B-21.3 reads as rewritten: 50 "§ 150B-21.3. Effective date of rules.

1 Objection. – Any person who objects to the adoption of a permanent rule may submit (b2) 2 written comments to the agency. If the objection is not resolved prior to adoption of the rule, a 3 person may submit written objections to the Commission. If the Commission receives written 4 objections from 10 or more persons, no later than 5:00 P.M. of the day following seven days after 5 the day the Commission approves the rule, clearly requesting review by the legislature in 6 accordance with instructions posted on the agency's Web site pursuant to G.S. 150B-19.1(c)(4), 7 and the Commission approves the rule, the rule will become effective as provided in subsection 8 (b1) of this section. The Commission shall notify the agency that the rule is subject to legislative 9 disapproval on the day following the day it receives 10 or more written objections. When the 10 requirements of this subsection have been met and a rule is subject to legislative disapproval, the 11 agency may adopt the rule as a temporary rule if the rule would have met the criteria listed in 12 G.S. 150B-21.1(a) at the time the notice of text for the permanent rule was published in the North 13 Carolina Register. If the Commission receives objections from 10 or more persons clearly 14 requesting review by the legislature, and the rule objected to is one of a group of related rules 15 adopted by the agency at the same time, the agency that adopted the rule may cause any of the 16 other rules in the group to become effective as provided in subsection (b1) of this section by 17 submitting a written statement to that effect to the Commission Codifier of Rules before the other 18 rules become effective.

(f) Technical Change. – A permanent rule for which no notice or hearing is required under G.S. 150B-21.5(a)(1) through (a)(5) or G.S. 150B-21.5(b) becomes effective on the first day of the month following the month the rule is approved by the Rules Review Commission. Commission or the Codifier of Rules, as applicable."

SECTION 6. G.S. 150B-21.4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 150B-21.4. Fiscal and regulatory impact analysis on rules.

27 (b) Local Funds. - Before an agency publishes in the North Carolina Register the 28 proposed text of a permanent rule change that would affect the expenditures or revenues of a unit 29 of local government, it must submit the text of the proposed rule change and a fiscal note on the 30 proposed rule change to the Office of State Budget and Management as provided by 31 G.S. 150B-21.26, the Fiscal Research Division of the General Assembly, the North Carolina 32 Association of County Commissioners, and the North Carolina League of Municipalities. The 33 fiscal note must state the amount by which the proposed rule change would increase or decrease 34 expenditures or revenues of a unit of local government and must explain how the amount was 35 computed.

36 Substantial Economic Impact. - Before an agency publishes in the North Carolina (b1) 37 Register the proposed text of a permanent rule change that would have a substantial economic 38 impact and that is not identical to a federal regulation that the agency is required to adopt, the 39 agency shall prepare a fiscal note for the proposed rule change and have the note approved by 40 the Office of State Budget and Management. The agency must also obtain from the Office a 41 certification that the agency adhered to the regulatory principles set forth in 42 G.S. 150B-19.1(a)(2), (5), and (6). The agency may request the Office of State Budget and 43 Management to prepare the fiscal note only after, working with the Office, it has exhausted all 44 resources, internal and external, to otherwise prepare the required fiscal note. If an agency 45 requests the Office of State Budget and Management to prepare a fiscal note for a proposed rule 46 change, that Office must prepare the note within 90 days after receiving a written request for the 47 note. If the Office of State Budget and Management fails to prepare a fiscal note within this time 48 period, the agency proposing the rule change shall prepare a fiscal note. A fiscal note prepared 49 in this circumstance does not require approval of the Office of State Budget and Management.

50 If an agency prepares the required fiscal note, the agency must submit the note to the Office 51 of State Budget and Management for review. The Office of State Budget and Management shall

50		1.8. Review of rule by Commission.
51	(a)	Emergency Rule. – The Commission does not review an emergency rule.

General Assembly Of North Carolina Session 2023 1 (b) Temporary and Permanent Rules. - An agency must submit temporary and permanent 2 rules adopted by it to the Commission before the rule can be included in the North Carolina 3 Administrative Code. The Commission reviews a temporary or permanent rule in accordance 4 with the standards in G.S. 150B-21.9 and follows the procedure in this Part in its review of a rule. 5 In the event the Commission finds the proposed temporary or permanent rule does not comply 6 with the standards set forth in G.S. 150B-21.9, the Commission shall object to the proposed 7 temporary or permanent rule. 8 Scope. - When the Commission reviews an amendment to a temporary or permanent (c) 9 rule, it may review the entire rule that is being amended. The procedure in G.S. 150B-21.1 applies 10 when the Commission objects to part of a temporary rule that is within its scope of review but is 11 not changed by a rule amendment. The procedure in G.S. 150B-21.12 applies when the Commission objects to a part of a permanent rule that is within its scope of review but is not 12 13 changed by a rule amendment. 14 (d) Judicial Review. – When the Commission returns a permanent rule to an agency in accordance with G.S. 150B-21.12(d), the agency may file an action for declaratory judgment in 15 16 Wake County Superior Court within 30 days of the date the rule is returned to the agency, 17 pursuant to Article 26 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes." 18 SECTION 8. G.S. 150B-21.9 reads as rewritten: 19 "§ 150B-21.9. Standards and timetable for review by Commission. 20 Standards. - The Commission must determine whether a rule meets all of the (a) 21 following criteria: 22 (1)It is within the authority delegated to the agency by the General Assembly. 23 (2)It is clear and unambiguous. 24 (3) It is reasonably necessary to implement or interpret an enactment of the 25 General Assembly, or of Congress, or a regulation of a federal agency. The 26 Commission shall consider the cumulative effect of all rules adopted by the 27 agency related to the specific purpose for which the rule is proposed. 28 (4) It was adopted in accordance with Part 2 of this Article.all applicable 29 provisions of this Chapter. 30 The Commission shall not consider questions relating to the quality or efficacy of the rule 31 but shall restrict its review to determination of the standards set forth in this subsection. 32 The Commission may ask the Office of State Budget and Management to determine if a rule 33 has a substantial economic impact and is therefore required to have a fiscal note. The Commission 34 must ask the Office of State Budget and Management to make this determination if a fiscal note 35 was not prepared for a rule and the Commission receives a written request for a determination of 36 whether the rule has a substantial economic impact. 37 In the event that a proposed temporary or permanent rule fails to comply with any of the 38 standards set forth in this section, the Commission shall object to the temporary or permanent 39 rule. 40 (a1) Entry of a rule in the North Carolina Administrative Code after review by the Commission creates a rebuttable presumption that the rule was adopted in accordance with Part 41 42 2 of this Article. 43 (b) Timetable. – The Commission must review a permanent rule submitted to it on or 44 before the twentieth of a month by the last day of the next month. The Commission must review 45 a rule submitted to it after the twentieth of a month by the last day of the second subsequent 46 month. The Commission must review a temporary rule in accordance with the timetable and 47 procedure set forth in G.S. 150B-21.1." 48 SECTION 9. G.S. 150B-21.12 reads as rewritten: 49 "§ 150B-21.12.
