SECTION 1.(b) This section shall not create or increase any right for a city to regulate or otherwise influence activities of the federal government or any activities and operations occurring in or on Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune, Marine Corps Air Station New River, or Marine Corps Special Operations Command at Stones Bay and the New River.

SECTION 1.(c) This section becomes effective June 30, 2026. To the extent permitted under State and federal law, property in the territory described in this section as of January 1, 2026, is subject to municipal taxes for taxes imposed for taxable years beginning on or after July 1, 2026.

SECTION 2. Except as provided in this section, police officers of the City of Jacksonville shall exercise the power of arrest or any other powers invested to police officers in accordance with G.S. 15A-402(c) and G.S. 160A-286 only within 1 mile of the corporate limits of the City of Jacksonville that lies north of N.C. Highway 24. Police officers of the City of Jacksonville may transport a person in custody to or from any place within the State for the purpose of that person attending criminal court proceedings. While engaged in the transportation of persons for the purpose of attending criminal court proceedings, police officers of the City of Jacksonville may arrest persons at any place within the State for offenses occurring in connection with and incident to the transportation of persons in custody.

SECTION 3. Notwithstanding Article 4A of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes, the City of Jacksonville shall not annex any territory south of N.C. Highway 24.

SECTION 4.(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 160D-202, or any other provision of law, the City of Jacksonville shall not exercise any powers granted to cities in Chapter 160D of the General Statutes in any area beyond its contiguous corporate limits.

SECTION 4.(b) The relinquishment of jurisdiction by the City of Jacksonville over the area beyond its contiguous corporate limits shall become effective on the date this section becomes law; provided, however, the City of Jacksonville's development regulations and powers of enforcement shall remain in effect in that area until the time provided in G.S. 160D-202(h).

SECTION 5. Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified this the 6th day of August, 2026.
