PRINCIPLES OF STRUCTURED SENTENCING

Truthful Sentencing Policies

Sentence length imposed by the judge should bear a close and consistent relationship to the sentence length actually served.

Consistent Sentencing Policies

Offenders convicted of similar offenses, who have similar prior records, should generally receive similar sentences.

Certain Sentencing Policies

Sentence should be clearly mandated based on the severity of the crime as measured by the harm to the victim and the offender's prior record.

Priorities Set for the Use of Correctional Resources

Prisons and jails should be reserved for violent and repeat offenders, and community-based programs should be used for nonviolent offenders with little or no prior record.

Balance Between Sentencing Policies and Correctional Resources

Sentencing policies should be supported by adequate prison, jail, and community resources.

THE OFFENSE CLASSIFICATION CRITERIA

The Sentencing Commission was required by G.S. 164-41 to ".... classify criminal offenses into felony and misdemeanor categories on the basis of their severity." The Commission developed classification criteria to guide the classification process and to ensure that there was a systematic and rational basis for the classifications. The Commission decided that the severity of an offense should be directly related to the harm to the victim that normally results or tends to result from the criminal conduct.

The Commission defined three general types of harms: 1) harms to person (including both physical and mental injury); 2) harms to property; and 3) harms to society (violations of public order and welfare, violations of judicial or governmental operations, and/or violations of public morality). Through considerable discussion and debate, the Commission grouped these harms into a ten-level hierarchy which served as the basis for the Commission's classifications (refer to the classification criteria on the following page). Once the classification criteria were established, the Commission reviewed the individual elements of all felonies in North Carolina and assigned each felony to a specific offense class based on how closely the elements of the crime matched the classification criteria.

The purpose of establishing the classification criteria was to create a rational and consistent philosophical basis for classifying offenses; to assure proportionality in severity; and to provide a guidepost for classifying new crimes in the future.

Under the classification criteria, the most serious offense classes (A through F) primarily involve personal injury, the risk of personal injury, serious societal injury or widespread societal injury. The lower offense levels (G through I) primarily involve property loss or less serious societal injury. The degree of harm is divided into three levels; injury to person, property or society; significant injury to person, property or society; and serious injury to person, property or society.

The Commission also assigned misdemeanor offenses to three classes: class 1, class 2 or class 3. The Commission did not create classification criteria for misdemeanors but relied on the maximum sentences previously set by the General Assembly. Generally, crimes which had previously been punishable by over six months were made class 1 misdemeanors, those previously punishable by more than 30 days and up to six months were made class 2 misdemeanors, and those previously punishable by 30 days or less were made class 3 misdemeanors. Assaultive misdemeanors were made Class A1 misdemeanors.

DISPOSITIONS

ACTIVE PUNISHMENT

An active punishment requires that the offender be sentenced to the custody of the Division of Adult Correction to serve the minimum and up to the maximum sentence imposed by the court (unless the offender is sentenced to advanced supervised release).

INTERMEDIATE PUNISHMENT

An intermediate punishment requires a sentence of supervised probation. The sentence may include one or more of the following conditions:

1. Special probation. Defined in G.S. 15A-1351(a), special probation includes a period of active confinement followed by a period of probation. (This is sometimes referred to as a split sentence.)
2. Drug Treatment Court Program. Assignment that requires the offender to comply with the rules adopted for the program pursuant to Article 62 of Chapter 7A of the General Statutes and to report on a regular basis for a specified time to participate in court supervision, drug screening or testing, and drug or alcohol treatment programs.
3. House arrest with electronic monitoring. Assignment that requires the offender to remain at his or her residence unless the court or probation officer authorizes the offender to leave, and in which the offender shall wear a device which permits the supervising agency to monitor the offender's compliance with the condition.
4. Community service. Assignment that requires the offender to perform service to the local community in an effort to promote the offender's rehabilitation and to provide services that help restore or improve the community.
5. Period or periods of confinement in a local confinement facility. Submission to a period or periods of confinement in a local confinement facility for a total of no more than six days per month during any three separate months during the period of probation. The six days per month confinement may only be imposed as two-day or three-day consecutive periods.
6. Substance abuse assessment, monitoring, or treatment. (This condition is not defined in statute.)
7. Educational or vocational skills development program. (This condition is not defined in statute.)
8. Satellite-based monitoring. Submission to satellite-based monitoring, pursuant to Part 5 of Article 27A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes (Sex Offender Monitoring), if the defendant is described by G.S. 14-208.40(a)(2).

An intermediate punishment may also include a fine, restitution, or any other conditions of probation.

COMMUNITY PUNISHMENT

A community punishment is any authorized sentence that does not include an active punishment, assignment to a drug treatment court, or special probation. A community punishment may consist of a fine only or a term of supervised or unsupervised probation which may include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following:

1. House arrest with electronic monitoring. Assignment that requires the offender to remain at his or her residence unless the court or probation officer authorizes the offender to leave, and in which the offender shall wear a device which permits the supervising agency to monitor the offender's compliance with the condition.
2. Community service. Assignment that requires the offender to perform service to the local community in an effort to promote the offender's rehabilitation and to provide services that help restore or improve the community.
3. Period or periods of confinement in a local confinement facility. Submission to a period or periods of confinement in a local confinement facility for a total of no more than six days per month during any three separate months during the period of probation. The six days per month confinement may only be imposed as two-day or three-day consecutive periods.
4. Substance abuse assessment, monitoring, or treatment. (This condition is not defined in statute.)
5. Educational or vocational skills development program. (This condition is not defined in statute.)
6. Satellite-based monitoring. Submission to satellite-based monitoring, pursuant to Part 5 of Article 27A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes (Sex Offender Monitoring), if the defendant is described by G.S. 14-208.40(a)(2).

A community punishment may also include a fine, restitution, or any other condition of probation.
