LEGAL AID OF NORTH CAROLINA
REPORT TO THE NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE
FIRST QUARTER 2017
MARCH 31, 2017

Legal Aid of North Carolina (LANC) is a statewide, nonprofit/law firm that provides free legal services in civil matters to low-income people all one hundred counties in North Carolina, in order to ensure equal access to justice and to remove legal barriers to economic opportunity.

GENERAL INFORMATION AND NEED

LANC serves households with legal issues in housing, public benefits, family integrity, consumer, employment, education, and community economic development. We also serve victims of domestic violence, seniors, and families facing foreclosure whose income qualifications are slightly different. Persons living in poverty not only lack a living wage, but many have health and literacy challenges that severely limit their economic opportunities. In turn, these factors affect the options available to them as they try to resolve legal problems, often without legal representation.

LANC serves all one hundred counties of the state. Our primary client base comprises the very poorest: generally households with incomes falling below 125% of the federal poverty guidelines (FPG); slightly more than $30,000 per year for a household of four. Our general client base comes from the roughly 3.65 million people, approximately 37% of the state's general population, falling at or below 200% of the FPG.

The poverty population in North Carolina has increased in the last ten years. The latest census statistics indicate that the state's poverty rate is 16.4% and North Carolina now has over 1.6 million people living at or below the FPG. Over 2.2 million of the state's population lives on incomes at or below 125% of the FPG. About 7% of families are considered in extreme poverty and have incomes below 50% of the FPG. These figures include over 9.7% of all seniors (over 200,000 fall below poverty) and 23.5% of all children (530,000). Food insecurity ranges as high as 30.6% for children in some counties. Over 17.7% of households are food insecure. Over 1.16M households, and 81% of renters, pay more than 30% of income on housing and just over 11,000 people are homeless. Almost 300,000 families are below the FPG; another 385,000 are below 185% FPG. Nonetheless, there are fewer than 250,000 households receiving any sort of federal rental assistance. Contrary to conventional wisdom, only 19,000 of these many poor households in our state receive TANF, which traditionally is "welfare." Over 120,000 individuals who worked fulltime remained in poverty. The majority of the households living in poverty are headed by females. The median gross annual income of LANC clients stands at approximately $16,000, significantly less than the living wage annual income of $60,000 for a four-person household and the $47,830 state median income. (Almost 40% of LANC client households earned less than $10,000 in 2016.) Poverty is not constrained by geography, and the poor live in both urban and rural areas. North Carolina is about 66.1 % urban and 33.9% rural. The major urban areas have experienced a 45% increase in population since 2000.

LANC makes every effort to provide the highest quality legal advice and representation to our clients. As a civil Legal services provider, we make every effort to ensure that our work ameliorates poverty and creates economic opportunity for those most in need.

ORGANIZATION AND WORK

With our staff attorneys, along with paralegals and support staff, each year we provide direct legal assistance to approximately 22,000-25,000 households and legal education and outreach clinics information to an additional 25,000 households. LANC focuses its legal practice on critical basic needs: housing, consumer, public benefits, family, education, employment, health care, and elder law. LANC also employs statewide, special provider units that address specific issues: Advocates for Children's Services specializes in education issues and combating the School to Prison Pipeline. The Domestic Violence Prevention Initiative and Battered Immigrant Project focus on protecting victims of abuse and reducing the incidence of domestic violence. The Child's Advocate protects children and resolves complex, high-conflict custody matters. The Mortgage Foreclosure Project protects homes from abusive lending and loan servicing practices--the project is a multi-partner project with a thousand open cases on any given day. The Senior Law Project and its toll-free hotline focus on the needs of the 240,000 seniors in poverty in our state. The Fair Housing Project works across the state to educate renters, owners, and landlords in order to fight housing discrimination in all its forms.

LANC settles about 65% of its cases without litigation. When it goes to court however, it prevails over 90% of the time. When litigation is the best legal strategy for the client, LANC has a highly trained and experienced staff that is prepared to go to court to fight for its clients rights. LANC zealously litigates cases in every forum and at every level in the state and federal courts, including jury trials and through appeal in all jurisdictions. LANC's legal advocacy also includes community education and outreach, consultations, and negotiation before litigation. We employ an informative website that permits clients to gain knowledge about legal issues and to contact any office in the state for direct help or for local pro se information. We also employ social media tools such as Facebook, Twitter, and e-newsletters. Much of our Helpline, our call center, work involves specific legal advice to address important legal issues or some brief service before litigation is pursued. The Helpline receives almost 90,000 calls each year and helps thousands of clients navigate the court system and resolve legal problems.

LANC continually works to expand access to justice: LANC now has expanded its work with veterans. We have trained and certified approximately 30 staff advocates on veterans law. We have NC VetCorps attorneys and fellows from Americorps. We collaborate with, and take referrals from, Duke Law School's Veterans Project. We participate in numerous veterans "Standown" outreach events all over the state. LANC is part of the Veterans Pro Bono Network, which includes the North Carolina Bar Association and the state's law schools. We focus not only on veterans' benefits, but we strive to serve comprehensive legal needs, including issues affecting veterans' abilities to obtain employment and decent housing. In the past year, LANC directly served almost 2,000 households in which a veteran was a member. The second project is what we call "Second Chance" or, sometimes, "Re-entry." Re-entry advocacy helps clients to clean-up arrest, conviction, and discharge records so that they again can qualify for employment and decent housing. Removing barriers to employment helps reduce the rate of recidivism for those, mostly, young men who have earned an opportunity for a second chance. We closed nearly 1500 such cases in 2016. The third project of note is called "Lawyer on the Line (LOL)." The LANC Helpline, the name of our toll-free call center that receives 6700 calls per month. The Helpline provides first-rate legal advice or brief service in situations where the client needs actual legal assistance but may not need to go to court right away. Lawyer on the Line is the project that recruits lawyers from the private bar to provide free consultations on poverty law issues to eligible clients. The average LOL case requires about two and one-half hours. LOL has recruited nearly one thousand lawyers and served over 3,000 clients.

Other noteworthy projects: Our Mortgage Foreclosure Project continues to save homes and the credit of thousands of families. Our collaborative, multi-agency project to become the most vigorous foreclosure defense projects in the country. We continue to shape and to expand our Medical-Legal Partnership Project. MLPs place lawyers in public health clinics to give medical staff the resources they need to change the social determinants of health. MLPs can reduce unnecessary returns to clinics and ERs, reduce community healthcare costs and actually improve community health. The initial efforts in Durham have enabled LANC to obtain funding for similar projects at UNC, in Winston-Salem, Charlotte, Greensboro, and Moore County.

In an effort to improve rural delivery and outreach, the State Bar and IOLTA fund Clifton W. Everett, Sr., Fellowships, which permits LANC to serve hundreds of rural clients who would otherwise not have access to legal representation. From 2014-2016, our Everett fellows were placed together in Richmond County, one of the poorest in the state, as a pilot project. The results have been astonishing: In a county where we previously had little ability to serve, the IOLTA Fellows served nearly 300 households in two years. We have maintained our services to these rural areas with state funding.

EXPANDING ACCESS

Our many challenges at expanding Access to Justice took a dramatic turn on October 8, 2016, when Hurricane Matthew hit North Carolina full-force. Many new, unexpected, and unfamiliar legal issues for both individuals and businesses arose with the subsequent flooding and will remain salient in the aftermath: For individuals, registering and qualifying with FEMA, food stamp eligibility, unemployment compensation, landlord-tenant issues, property ownership and insurance denials often require legal expertise to navigate. Agribusinesses and small farms lost arable land, crops, and livestock. Small farms and small businesses are faced with decisions about insurance claims, recovery financing, and loans. Clients and communities served by our offices and staff in Pembroke, Wilson, Goldsboro, Greenville, Fayetteville, Wilmington, and Ahoskie have been impacted by the disaster.

In response, LANC sponsored a toll-free telephone hotline, designed and constructed a special disaster relief website, produced a dozen videos dealing with disaster legal issues and promulgated these on social media (Facebook, Twitter, and YouTube) in a concerted effort to provide as much get information to the public as possible. LANC sponsored, organized, and conducted a training session for nearly eighty attorneys who volunteered to assist with disaster legal services. LANC staff was part of numerous outreach efforts including two major disaster events in Lumberton in the last quarter of 2016. In the First Quarter of 2017, we assisted hundreds of victims through onsite events January and the continuation of our hotline and video series. Funding for these efforts came, in part, from the North Carolina Bar Association and AARP. We have been awarded special funding from NC Blue Cross Blue Shield to initiate a project in the affected area to mitigate asthma and other social determinants of health in children that could be exacerbated by the airborne pathogens caused by the destruction and worsening housing conditions. If this disaster follows the pattern of previous natural disasters since Hurricane Floyd (1999), we expect to see an influx of complicated property and title cases, along with insurance cases as claims come in and property owners seek recovery funding. We will be seeking funding to ramp up for this work.

In addition to addressing the needs of disaster victims, LANC continued its efforts at restructuring its intake priorities, merging offices, and expanding its videoconferencing capabilities to faith-based groups and other nonprofit to more than seventy counties, while continuing to increase pro bono recruitment. With additional funding through the federal Victims Of Crime Act (VOCA) through the US Department of Justice, LANC will provide expanded services to victims of domestic violence, human trafficking, and elder abuse. We continued our efforts to seek funding to expand our services in the Boone area. We will be continuing our statewide foreclosure work and expanding our veterans' work through the Finance Agency's SHFPP program.

In the First Quarter, LANC is working directly with elected district attorneys and Chief District Court Judges in Wake and Orange Counties to expand reentry to housing, employment, and education opportunities to young offenders through intensive expungement clinics that will help qualified applicants clear their public records. We expect to assist 500-700 applicants at these clinics.

During the First Quarter 2017, LANC attorneys opened nearly 5,500 cases. Approximately 25% of these cases were opened to prevent homelessness; another 28% deal with domestic violence prevention and family law. The remaining caseload is distributed primarily between consumer protection, employment matters, and benefits. Attorneys from the private bar already have contributed over 3,515 hours to our work in the first three months of this year.
