THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA
Report on the 2000 Higher Education Bond Program
Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations and
Joint Legislative Education Oversight Committee
September 2009

The Higher Education Facilities Financing Act bond program is now in its eighth year and the constructed facilities are providing significant benefits to the students of the University of North Carolina and to the State. While providing more than 88,000 jobs during design and construction, the program has produced high-quality resources, particularly science and technology facilities, to prepare students and researchers for a more knowledge-based economy and to compete in the global environment.

With 99% of the UNC Bond Program complete, closing project budgets and filing final reports will be the focus for 2009-10. By December 31, 2009, campuses will file their final plans to administratively close each of the Program's 319 projects. By March 31, 2010, all unexpended funds will be transferred to their original source, and on June 30, 2010, the Office of the State Controller and the Office of State Budget and Management will close all budget codes. Exceptions may be granted under special circumstances, such as pending construction claims or litigation, pending land transactions, unresolved construction issues, and ordered but undelivered equipment.

Over the last year, the campuses have made considerable progress.

- All 319 bond projects are now in construction or completed. As of July 2009, 12 projects are in construction, and 307 have been completed.
- $2.48 billion, or 99.2%, of bond program dollars are now committed to design or construction, or completed work.
- $2.47 billion, or 98.8%, of bond program dollars have been spent as of June 30, 2009.
- As part of its continuing commitment to contribute its own resources to its capital needs, the University has requested, and the General Assembly has approved, over $3.6 billion in projects from non-state sources since 2000.
- The bond program continues to exceed the State's goals for Historically Underutilized Businesses (HUBs) by more than 65%.
- UNC projects completed through the Construction Manager (CM) at Risk construction delivery method have out-performed those completed through other construction contracting methods in providing contracts to HUBs.

- The State Treasurer has sold all $2.5 billion of bonds that finance the UNC program.
- While 307 of 319 projects were completed within the original schedule, recent status reports project the completion of the remaining projects by December 2009, five months later than was originally planned on the baseline schedule adopted by the University and accepted by the Higher Education Bond Oversight Committee in April 2002. All projects have been completed within budget.
- Appalachian State University, East Carolina University, Elizabeth City State University, North Carolina State University, The University of North Carolina at Asheville, The University of North Carolina at Charlotte, The University of North Carolina at Wilmington, Western Carolina University, Winston-Salem State University, and the North Carolina Arboretum have completed all of their projects. The remaining campuses have all of their projects under construction or complete.
- The University of North Carolina at Charlotte and the North Carolina Arboretum have spent all of their bond funds and have administratively closed all of their bond programs.

As required by the Act, the Board of Governors reports annually on the authorized bond program to the General Assembly.

Attachment 1 of this report provides a summary of the contractual commitments from bond funds by project phase for the program at each campus.

Attachment 2 provides the following information on the bond program:

1. the total cost of each project (column 7),
2. the amount of each project funded from the bonds (column 5),
3. the expenditures to date by project from the bonds (column 8),
4. the expenditures to date by project from other sources (column 9), and
5. the percentage of each project completed (column 11).

Attachment 3 provides the following information on the bond program:

1. the estimated [20-year, average] operating costs for each project begun in the preceding fiscal year (column 8),
2. the proposed source of funds for these operating costs (column 9), and
3. the anticipated dates of occupancy for each of these projects (column 6).

In addition to providing information on the bond program, the act requires the Board of Governors to report annually on the University's current condition, its presently funded maintenance projects, and its funding needs that would allow the University to be proper stewards of these valuable State assets.

Attachment 4 provides information on the condition of the University's capital assets. Every three years, the State Construction Office reviews the facilities at each UNC constituent institution, documents deficiencies, and estimates the cost to remedy the deficiencies. Their work results in a Facilities Condition and Assessment Program (FCAP) report for each campus. Attachment 4 summarizes these reports by campus.

As of the 2008 cycle (the most recent available), the University has a documented backlog of repair needs of $2.9 billion, of which approximately $2.0 billion is related to deficiencies in state-supported facilities (column 4) and approximately $895 million is related to deficiencies in non-state supported facilities (column 7). It is important to note that the FCAP reports do not fully consider the value of non-building infrastructure, which constitutes roughly one-third of the State's physical plant.

No funds were allotted or expended from the 2008 Statewide Reserve for Repairs and Renovations due to budget considerations.

Attachment 5 provides the allocations to the University from the 2009 appropriation to the Statewide Reserve for Repairs and Renovations.

Attachments 6 and 7 provide information on the need for additional funding to maintain the University's facilities. This information comes from the University's six-year plan for Repairs and Renovation funding, as approved by the Board of Governors in its 2009-11 biennial budget request. The total, approximately $1 Billion, represents the portion of system-wide repair and renovation needs proposed to be funded from the Statewide Reserve for Repairs and Renovation to care for state-supported facilities over the next six years.

In summary, the campuses are meeting the challenges of this multi-project task by managing their programs well and delivering first-rate facilities that will keep North Carolina in the forefront of higher education and well positioned for a promising future.

*The number of projects undertaken by the institutions differs from the number as listed in the bond legislation because projects are in some instances combined or separated into multiple phases. The percentages reported are based on the number of bid packages being prepared by the institution in order to give a more accurate progress picture. The number of projects listed based on legislation, reflects the original 316 items with adjustments approved through scope change requests.

With no construction projects in design, a dollar commitment continues to be reported reflecting the continued role of the designer in construction administration until completion of the project.

The initial reserve of $25,186,595 is reduced as reserves are transferred to institutions.

*Land acquisitions amounts are moved to the "Closed Out" column when final close-out reports are submitted on these purchases.
Construction Manager at Risk preconstruction fee is listed under "Construction" column and will reflect a project count when a Gross Maximum Price contract is executed.
