

North Carolina General Assembly Legislative Ethics Committee

2010 Annual Report of the Legislative Ethics Committee

Pursuant to G.S.120-103.1(n), the Legislative Ethics Committee must publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee. By rule, the Legislative Ethics Committee has defined the annual reporting period as the preceding twelve months ending on November 30th of each year. This report contains information from December 1, 2009 through November 30, 2010. In addition to the statutorily required report, the Legislative Ethics Committee is releasing statistics on additional activities of the Committee during this reporting period. The attached chart contains this information.

As Co-Chairs of the Legislative Ethics Committee, we remain committed to raising ethical awareness at the General Assembly and bolstering public confidence in State government.
