

SENATE BILL 185: Clarify Credit for Time Served

2015-2016 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	March 12, 2015
Introduced by:	Sens. Daniel, McKissick, Randleman	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 185 would clarify credit for time served as recommended by the North Carolina Sentencing and Policy Advisory Commission.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 185 would amend G.S. 15-196.1 to clarify that credit for time served does not include any time that a defendant has spent in custody as a result of a pending charge while serving a sentence imposed for another offense.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2015.

